ELECTRA TEXAS JANUARY [illegible]

COMPTROLLER

HON. GEORGE SHEPPARD

DEAR SIR

I received your letter in regarding to the pension of L. L. Pryor. In regards to same will say that I would not have sworn to the statement that I made on the application if I had not been sure that he was a Confederate. During the War between the States I was the private spy of Gen.R.E.Lee and I was in all the battles that was fought by the Army of Northern Virginia and I have often heard Mr.pryor tell of things that I know of my own knowledge that he would not have known if he had not been there Thecamp at Childress is almost without a member and does not meet any more and at the reunions I am the only Delegate because I am the only one that pays any dues. When I went to Childress in 1902 we had 48 members but they are all dead but myself and two others. I was commander of the camp at one time so you see I am conversant of the pedigree of each member. I have written 21 letters to old members of the regiment Bryor belonged to and he has wrote several but we find them all dead.Mr.pryor is in needy circumstances, and I would not have made the affidavit that I did on his appication if I was not satisfied that he was a Confederate Soldier

I am respectfully yours COL. ED. C. WILSON
