My Dear Miss Naume: -

I had hoped to see you during the parade this afternoon, for I am just a little puzzled as to what night I asked to come back to see you. I had it in mind to ask Wednesday but saw someone starting in the ~~house~~ house and turned and asked you and after leaving I thought I had said Monday. So I am not quite sure which I really did say.

I am planning now to go to Dallas Sunday the fourteenth and no matter which I said, it would give me a great deal of pleasure to come Monday evening if convenient for ~~they~~ you might let me come again on Friday and I would be twice blessed that way instead of
