My Dear Sweetheart: On train.

Our train is 8 or 9 hrs late. Will reach H. Worth about 6 or 7 to-night & should have reached there 7 or 8 this am. I went to bed in sleeper at Sweetwater at 9 PM & supposed to leave at 9:30 PM but left at 4 am. We are traveling my slowly on account of so much rain &
effect on road bed.

I hope you are feeling better, I thought both kinds of medicine I sent you would be good for you.

We are nearly to Baird where we will have breakfast.

Lots of love to the dearest sweetest sweetheart
in the world. Kiss the boys for me.

Remember I love you dearly,
M.C.O.

DR. M. C. OVERTON WEDS
MISS JENNINGS TONIGHT

As a pre-nuptial announcement we are permitted to announce the marriage of Dr. M. C. Overton to Miss Nan M. Jennings tonight, Thursday, at the home of Miss Jennings in this city, Rev. J. B. Cole officiating. They will be at home at the J. L. Higginbotham residence in the western part of town. They will not make any wedding tour on account of prevailing health conditions over the country. Miss Jennings is an enthusiastic Red Cross worker, having been active in this work ever since the United States entered the world war, and has labored unceasingly in the cause of humanity, through this great organization. Dr. Overton is one of the most popular and most widely known physicians in the southwest, and has practiced in Lubbock longer than any other physician here.
