

ORAL HISTORY COLLECTION

MAIN ENTRY: Duncan, Homer
DATE OF INTERVIEW: April 10, 2003
LOCATION OF INTERVIEW: Lubbock, Texas
INTERVIEWER: Seth Green
FORMAT: File on Server, Cassette Tape
IDENTIFICATION NUMBER:
LENGTH OF INTERVIEW: 52 minutes
SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE: Homer Duncan speaks about his past and present occupation as a preacher. He relates stories that lead up to his current success as a preacher.

ABSTRACT:

TAPE side A	TIME STAMP
Background	:00
Religious training
Baptized in Amarillo
Attended Texas Tech University
Preaching around the world
Experiences of preaching around Texas
Having meals with friends and enemies
Preaching at the jail	:09
Youngest preacher of all
His marriage and how he met his wife
Courtship
Getting married
Having children and grandchildren
Lubbock Bible Church established 1949
Others giving their lives to God during the Vietnam War
Turning point in life	:20
Before belief in God

Began to pray and “nothing happened”
Cooperation and battle between churches
Errors in translations, and conflict

Ecumenist movement :28

Defined

“That you may be one”

Bases of love

Every religion wears their own “glasses”

In Lubbock: conservative or liberal?

Headed for judgment in America

Side B

Past fifty years in Lubbock, Texas :39

Churches closer or further apart in terms of doctrine

Church of Christ members

Change in reaction to different religions

Tolerance now and then

Southern Baptist is the fastest growing religion

Missionary crusader

Seminary

Support to start missionary crusader :49

Advantage of good literature

Ask God and tell the people

Received gifts from $1,000 to $26,000

Roman 6, 7, and 8 are his favorite chapters

“Live his life through us”

“Let him do it”

End of interview

DATE OF BIRTH OF INFORMANT: 1913

GENDER OF INFORMANT: Male

ETHNICITY OF INFORMANT: