The first thing I saw when I stepped out of the boat was a vast, flat, green expanse of water, stretching to the horizon.
 The water was calm, reflecting the pale sky. In the distance, a low, hazy line of land was visible. The air was still, and the only sound was the gentle lapping of the water against the boat's hull.
 I felt a sense of peace and solitude, as if I had found a hidden world.
 The boat moved slowly, and I watched the horizon line shift slightly. The water was so green, it almost seemed like a different color. I had never seen water like this before. It was beautiful, and I was lucky to be here.

Handwritten text on a rectangular piece of paper, possibly a letter or document, pasted onto a larger sheet. The text is written in cursive and is partially obscured by a large, faint, stylized watermark or stamp in the center. The watermark appears to be a large, blocky letter 'E' or a similar geometric design. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words being difficult to decipher due to the handwriting and the watermark. The paper is aged and shows signs of wear, including creases and discoloration.

Notes on Grafting Fruit Trees In layering the bark must be somewhat soft & ripe.
Split the shoot where it is to take root. Making the slit just below a bud. Press the dirt firmly & keep it straight.
Layering can be done in Spring Midsummer or Autumn.
The pears, apple & quince layered early in Spring, or grapes in Summer will be well rooted in Autumn. Most season most favorable for rooting.

Grafting Recipe 3 parts of rosin, 3 of bees wax & 2 of tallow. Also 1 pint of linseed oil, 6 lbs of rosin & 1 lb of beeswax.
Apply them either with a brush when warm, or thickly over sheets of muslin, or thin tough paper, which are afterwards cut up in sizes for applying. Best when the bark will peel readily when there is a space between the new addition & the old bark or inner bark. Bidding best for quince, & for peach & nectarine.

Diary continued from the back of Aug. 11. Left Staunton this morning in company with Mr. Estlin in the stage for Buchanan.
 We were told the stage would leave at 10 o'clock & for fear of being left we arose at 2 o'clock & had to wait in the road until 8 o'clock.
 We had a crowded stage warm weather & dusty roads.
 Was sorry to leave cousin May who in her grief dreaded to be alone. Promised to correspond with Fannie.

Took breakfast at Greenfield 12 miles from Staunton & dinner at Lexington 36 miles. The persons stopped at the Natural Bridge, but having a snack in our pockets Mr. E. & I went to the bridge to view it again & supped on the bridge.
 I never tire of looking at this great wonder 190 ft high, 50 long & 30 broad. Picked up a stone & gathered some ferns under the bridge. The rock is dark limestone. Arrived at Buchanan at 11 o'clock P.M. Found cousin Jane well.

and but little ⁷⁸ changed. She has five children being oldest about nine years & the youngest three months. Mr. Boyd has added to his house & improved his yard & has now a beautitiful place. As they were about establishing a hospital at Buchanan the ladies gave tickets on the 13 & 15th inst to procure money for the benefit of the hospital. I attended & was pleased with their efforts.
Aug. 19. Left Buchanan on the Packet boat at 5 1/2 o'clock this morning. The boat was crowded & the day in-⁷⁸ comely hot. ⁷⁹ Reached Lynchburg 8 o'clock at night. Deposited my baggage at the hotel & hastened to the Transportation Office to get transportation so as to go on the morning train. I succeeded in getting it. Then I eat supper & went in search of Mr. Strango. Did not find him. Left Lynchburg about 7 o'clock. but was detained at Nyanate Station 42 miles from Richmond in consequence of the train ahead of us running off the track.

Got to Richmond 9 o'clock ⁷⁹ at night, too late to get transportation. As Congress was in session the hotels were crowded. I had to sleep on a settle in the drawing room. I went to the Intelligence Office & learned that my Regt. was at Gon-dowille. In consequence of the number of troops in organized battalions going up on the Central the stray long soldiers returning to their Regts are sent by way of Lynchburg, so that I had to go back the route I came 130 miles. Went to the - Senate Chamber to day & while there met with Mr. Sumner of Sequoia & had a long talk with him. Then we entered the Sen. Chamber & heard Senators Yancy & Wigfall speak on a resolution to resort to retaliation, to stop the hostilities of the South.

In the evening went to Mr.
Lechman's, left my valise & visited the St. Francis de Sales Hospital way down on Brook Avenue. Saw the Chaplains McDonis, & Tom Ewing, John Fennell, White, Capt Wade, & Mr. Fennell.

82 Was introduced to Col Reley by Mr Gibbs of Orleans as he asked Col Reley about Mr & Henry Maney. He said he thought they were released & were at home by this time.

Aug 22. Could not get off on the Danville Cars. Her Friend Mr Barreger & I went down in the rain & waited in vain to get off. Having settled my bill at the American & sending it large, went to the Vernon House near the corner of 1st & Broad St. ^{of by churches} ^{broken nearly entire}

23. Left this morning at 7 o'clock on the Central Road. Went on cars 82 as far as Hopeport & then on Orange & Allen and in R.R. Station from there a foot at 10 o'clock in the evening & walked 8 ms.

Had no supper, but got to sleep in a house on the floor. 24. Started early & walked several miles & got breakfast at a roadside lady's near the Statute field of Cedar River. Got a good break fast & she did not wish to charge but

25. but we all agreed to pay $1.00 as she had been almost robbed by the Yankees. Walked to Brandy Station on the O & A. R.R. & then took up Hazel

River 6 or 7 ms, making a dist. of 19 ms

26. We eat no dinner & but little supper.
Rose at dawn & resumed our journey breakfasters & after 6 or 7 ms travelling 83 joined an regimentth & then got a good meal the first for 24 hours. Found

Camp in an hour after my arrival. Mr Hennel & F. Berger came with me from Rehms. Got a gun on going to the left.

Aug. 25. Camped near Hoppenhans No. 50.
ms. I suppose from Landaukloster.

1862 Diary

May! Left home to day with a sad heart, bidding farewell to my sisters & my dear wife & darling baby. Poor Bettie, it almost broke her heart to give me up. Had a sad heart this day. Set out in bug gies with brother Andrew, Igg J.
Emmeline & Will Ehringhaus & several others. Had a merry, witty, strange profane Frenchman, named Loer^{lein} along. Went seven miles below Gonzales before stopping. When the solemn, meditative hour of two o'clock came round, the hour when I had been accustomed to sit with my dear wife & take my little babe in my arms, my thoughts naturally reverted to home & its loved ones, from whom I was to be separated for a long time perhaps for ever, and my heart grew sad & tears bedewed my eyes. I thought how sad, painful & anxious would be the watching of that lonely heart, and my soul was pained. My only relief was in prayer to my "Heavenly Father" who heareth the cry of the young ravens, and who surely would not turn a deaf ear to the earnest supplications of a sorrow-stricken heart.

We camped 7 miles from Gonzales.
At bed time I went out in the woods and again commended my home treasures to the keeping of the ever watchful - merciful God, & asked him to keep me from the temptations of camp, shield me in the dreadful hour of battle, & restore me safely to the loving heart that was longing for peace & the return of its mate.

I prayed fervently my accustomed prayer - that the beams of peace might again bless our torn & bleeding land.

May 2. To day we took a wagon filled with Lieut Buck's recruits that were going to travel with us for Allegan. Camped on the Navidad 36 miles from Gonzales. The wagon stopped near us. We were shy of the new acquaintances, as we learned that one of them, Tom Dimmit, had badly lice on him, which forced him to throw away a quilt & some clothing. When any of them came aboard I had nervous itching sensations.

At night as before the separation from my dear wife would be more strongly impressed on me & my comfort was in prayer.

May 3. At noon this day while eating & resting our horses were overtaken by the rest of our party who separated from us at Gonzales, viz. Erskine, J. J. Will & Davine. Reached Columbus at dusk, crossed the river on a boat & encamped on the left bank. This day heard the news of the Fed. boats passing Ft. Jackson & Philips & taking military possession of MO. This news filled me with gloom. The most powerful city of the Confederacy had fallen & the enemy had possession of the Mississippi River, thus dividing the Confederacy.

May 4. This morning went to Alleton the ^{western} terminus of the R. Bayan, Brazos & Colorado R.R. situated on the Colorado 3 miles below Columbus. Here we found Lieut Rich awaiting us who had left on the night of the 1st in the stage. We did not go to the Hotel but encamped on the river. Eat our dinner at the Hotel. In the evening brother A.

Liest R., Erskine & myself took a bath in the Colorado, which although the river was up & very muddy, improved our condition & feelings.
We had been compelled to walk a great deal on account of the heavy load, ^{and had} and we were very dirty.
Wanted very much to day to go to Church, but there was no service in the place. Here met with Mr Nugent who was taking his family to Sequim, having feared the fall of N.O. a Joe Johnson & Baby Park having overtaken a locomotive on rail road, I took them to the Engine House & explained the ^{machinery} to them, and they left with a tolerably good idea of it May 5th. Left the hotel at 8 1/2 o'clock, (where we had passed the night in consequence of a rain) & took the cars to Houston.

Brother A remained behind with Will, who had been ^{with measles} latter sick, at Columbus the evening of the 3^d.
Alonzo Gordon & young King were left at Alherton with the same disease.
Arrived at Richmond a small town on the right bank of Brazos at dinner time & got a good meal.
Here in consequence of the water being over the R.R. Bridge, we were detained at the ferry in the hot sun 2 1/2 hours & there being but one passenger car on the other bank, & we having much baggage to look after lost a seat & had to sit in the baggage car. Reached Houston at 5 P.M. & stopped at "Rusk House". The city was full of soldiers & the hotels crowded.

May 6. Met with Capt L. N.
Minter who was stationed at Hemp-stead & performed the duties of Commissary & Q. Master for a part of the Regt. I was dissatisfied with his duty & short pay, &

Houston is a considerable place said to contain 6000 inhabitants & has some fine buildings, among which the "Morris Building" with iron front, on main st., is conspicuous. The streets are made firm & dry with shell brought from Galveston island, but they are dirty & smell bad. And at this time the ^{city} was full of drunken soldiers, a good many troops being quartered in its vicinity. The accommodations at the hotel were bad & the charges very high. Every thing sold on the city is high. Here I indulged in the unaccustomed luxury.

way of an ice-cream.
At Houston we found out positively what we had before supposed, viz that we could not go through N. Orleans, & Lieut R. after inquiry determined to go to Beaumont, thence ascend the Neches to Weiss Bluff 30 miles, by water, & from thence hire conveyances to Alexandria La. by way of Jasper, Tazewell Co.
Wrote two letters to Bitter for her One enclosing an extra with the news that the garrison of the ^{city} ^{no. 10} had surrendered after the surrender of the city, and capitulated, with the honorable exception of a regiment for St Mary's hands, 10

This news was very distressing more so than several defeats May 7th. Left Houston this morning before sun up for Beaumont on the cars. Forgot to mention that four R. Roads terminate at Houston the B. B., B & C. R. R. the Houston & Galveston R., the Road to Hempstead & the one to Beaumont on the Neches, which when completed will cross the Sabine at Orange & connect with the Opelousas R. R.
Lieut R. remained behind with more sick soldiers & R. Commit was left Loringham out of place.
The R. to Beaumont passes through 11

Liberty on the left bank of the Trinity River. We arrived at Beaumont about 2 o'clock P.M. having had no detention.
As it looked like rain we procured an vacant house, of which there were a number, and moved all of our blankets & provisions into it. As soon as this was done, I went aboard of a boat which had just arrived from Riblett's Bluff, to look for father or Mr Shelley. Found Mr S. but could have but a few minutes conversation with him as the cars were about starting back. He told me that father

was on the ¹³Mermin team on a little island where he had purchased beef. ^{Mr S.} Said that the beef market might soon open, or the people of N. O. would starve. He said also that there was a rumor of a large fight on the Rapahannock in which we defeated the enemy with a loss of 40,000 & they ^{lost} Gen Mc Clelland, we losing Gen Taylor Johnson & Lee. I do not credit the report in full although it may be founded on truth, also there was a rumor of another fight near Corinth. We had supplied our selves with cooked food

for several days & had but little trouble cooking. Harry eaten a daylight breakfast & a late dinner. I eat too heartily & felt unwell at night, feverish & with aching in the bones.

May 8. Went a fishing this morning at the S. Boat landing & our party caught nine very pretty blue cat fish. Commenced raining about 9 o'clock & I had to hire a boy to bring me a pair of heavy shoes & an over coat as I feared to get wet in this low swampy country. Waited on the boat until the boy returned & got to our lodging place without getting wet & took some quinine.

We borrowed a spider & had our fish for dinner. As it continued to rain there was a motley group in the house.
Some lying on their blankets sick, some cooking & eating, some writing and others playing cards, and I regret to add generally for money. I engaged in reading, meditation about home and in keeping up my diary.
As the rain continued to pour in torrents the weary hours were beguiled by some music & song. One of the finest voices, yet he sings with a vain & affected air Sometimes he sang the songs which my dear Bettie used to sing to me in courtships.

Happy days & tears would start into my eyes.
To day while passing through town I plucked a rose bud for Bettie, which I pressed & intend sending it with a Kiss upon it in my next letter.
May 9. Still raining. Employed myself pleasantly writing to my dear wife. Wrote a long & full letter. Sent birds arrived this morning with out Will & Bro. A Will was too unwell to leave 16

Alleyton? Expect then the next train cleared off about 11 o'clock.
We occupied the C. House for the last two nights on account of the drunkenness of some of the party. Recd a bouquet of flowers from a lady staying at Mrs Alexanders (relative of her Baldwin of Va) & was entrusted with some letters to Va.
Took a "heart's ease" & piece of Arbor Vitae to pass for Bettie.
Were treated very kindly by the people of Beaumont.
May 10 Left Beaumont this morning at 10 o'clock AM in the Steam Boat "Sun Flower" Capt Word.
After a pleasant run of five

hairs arrived at Miss Bluff a distance of 50 miles. Had the use of an empty Ware House which we swept out & would have had comfortable quarters but for the mosquitoes & fleas.

Here a yeilding was purchased for us & we divided our party of 23 into 3 messes, the mess consisting of Jas Thompson, E Miller, Thomas Cunningham, Jas Campbell, Jas Gimmet, O. Menger, Jgg Johnson & myself, who cooked on turn two each day in the order in which their names are placed. L. Ruch had procured from the Com. Department 2 Sacs of Flour.

30 lbs of Coffee, 3 large tin pan, 3 skillets & a kettle so that we were provided with provisions & camp equipage.

May 11 Left Miss Bluff in two ore wagons. The teams were so broken down, we had to walk a great deal of the way. Jgg, Eskine & I walked 9 miles the first day. At noon we got another wagon & found better. Travelled 18 miles the first day. The country was low sandy poor land.

May 12. Teams worked down to day in the sand & we had to walk a great deal. Twenty five miles from Beaumont, we struck a hilly country. Dined pretty well along the road. Bought eggs, chickens butter & milk; generally paid 25¢ a dozen for eggs, 25¢ for chickens & the same for 1 lb of butter. Milk 10¢ a qt. ^{fairly} great many blk berries on the road, but few ripe.

Came 19 miles this day. At night got to sleep in a good bed & paid nothing for it.

May 13. Arrived at Jasper in the evening. Having travelled from this bluff 50 miles.
Camped on a pretty little creek.
Took a good bath & put on clean clothes & was much improved in feelings. We were offered a ra-

cont house here, but preferred to camp on the beautiful creek over shadowed by pine, beech gum & magnolia.

We were detained here half a day procuring teams. I employed the time writing to my dear wife. Procured two ass teams & stabled in the afternoon.

3 o'clock P. M. Jasper is about as large as Prairie Lea.
There are a good many fruit trees in the place. peach, apple, cherry, quince, plum & mulberry. In the evening was overtaken by Lieut. Ruck.
He had heard nothing from brother Andrew. He supposed he had 21 like taken some other route or that mile was too unwell to travel Came out of town 7 miles & camped. May 14. Still in the pine woods. Near Jasper there was a kind of bottom, but soon after leaving it struck the hills again. Travelled 15 miles today, May 15, to reach a little place called Burkville.

Campbell & Coda taken on the measles. While walking ahead stopped at a nice house 1 1/2 miles west of Burkville.
Saw a nice lady Mrs. Norvell whose husband was in Whitfield Battalion. Shamed us her da-22 gumwyle²⁰ that we might recognize him if we met.

Camped at Burkville & got the use of a porch to sleep under May 16. Crossed the Sabine in the afternoon "Drank of its waters." Trusting however that they would not have the pernicious effect formerly ascribed to them.
Name of the Terry River.
Pearl Creek empties in part at the crossing on the Lasalle side. Newton is the last County & Sabine Parish is the first that you enter Camped on a little creek

2 miles from the ferry. Made 13 miles

May 17. Crossed a Considerable Creek soon after leaving Camp called Ana Co Co.
Travelled only 13 miles and just Rich wished to procure another wagon. Most of the men took lodging in the school house Erskine & I preferred to lie under the tall pines in the pure air, as the atmosphere of the room had the odor of unwashed feet. Sat up late writing to sister Ellen & reading "Tom Burke" by Lever in which I was much interested 24

Did not write to Bettie as I had done so from our last encampment & handed it to the mail boy to day. Yesterday felt low spirited & kept thinking of dear Bettie. She was constantly in my mind & I frequently prayed to my Heavenly Father to comfort her sad heart & restore me to her. This night went out in the woods & fervently commended her to God's care.
May 18. It's Sabbath & in order to commune with my own thoughts & to recall the sweet images of home & commit its treasures to my Heavenly Father 25

I preferred to walk a great deal. Walked 6 miles in the forenoon. This afternoon I left the wagon & walked a head & gathered some beautiful flowers & arranged them in a bouquet & thought I would give anything if Bessie had them, both because they were beautiful & because they were plucked by the hand of love. How beautiful & pure are flowers! They are always associated by me with everything good, lovely & pure. They are tokens of God's goodness to us.

26

While I held these sweet flowers in my hand & remembered that God made them in all their beauty & placed them where they would waste all their sweetness on desert air, I took courage & was hopeful; For I said surely if God so cares for these little flowers as to deck them in beauty & place them here, he will surely care for me, & restore me to that heart, that longeth for me.

Again these little flowers reminded me of the time when I used to gather them for & with my heart's only

Love, now my dear wife, and memory went back over many a pleasant scene, until tears suffused my eyes.

I wrote seated on a fallen pine, the air redolent with the perfume of Magnolia & Laurel (white Swamp).

My banquet consisted of ^{crimson} Verbena, butterfly-weed, wild pea, white honeysuckle, a species of morning-glory, white laurel, pinks, a beautiful tufted flower, a delicate tassel flower, a swamp flower resembling elder & several other varieties. Carried them all evening & it seemed as if I was going to give them to Betty 18 miles were travelled this day. 28

May 19. Rose ²⁹ early to make a good day's travel. Passed the day reading Tom Burke. Forgot to mention that we failed to get the wagon we engaged but got another at noon Sunday. Crossed the Colcasien late in the evening. It is but a little creek here. Intended to bathe but it was so muddy & the banks so boggy, did not go on. Passed beyond the creek about 4 miles & encamped. Found great comfort in prayer at night in the solitude of the pines. Had good level roads to day. Made 20 miles.

May 20. At noon camped on a beautiful little branch thickly overshadowed by beech & stately pines. Took a fine bath & put on clean clothes & felt better.
Washed off the dirt of a hundred miles. Our camping place was beautiful & water fine. Felt in fine spirits. Met some crocodrons from Alexandria who told us that the Reds were expected there to day. Lieut Reid had gone ahead write this on the banks of the beautiful brook beneath a most dense & refreshing shade - sub-tigme ne pagi.
Traveled until after dark & we camped on Bayou Rapides 11 miles from Alex 31

Alex³¹ we struck this Bayou about 16 miles from Alex³¹. The country immediately changed from barren pine land to flat rich clay soil deep red. The entire road was lined with pretty farm-houses & large plantations of sugar, cotton & corn in a high state of cultivation.
May 21. Rose at 3 o'clock & continued our journey in order to get to Alex³¹ in time for a boat which we heard would leave at noon.
The last five or six miles was beautiful. We were in a lane 30 ft wide formed by high hedges of roses in full bloom. The bust was coarse but the landscape was beautiful. Some of the most 31 lonely yards I ever saw since here Arrived at Alex. about 8 1/4 o'clock Went on board the boat expecting it to leave but in this were disappointed.

Alexandria is not so large as I expected to find it I seemed no larger than it did ^(nearly) twenty years ago.
Called at Mr Robertson's store to see him He lived out of town & as his wife was not well did not stay much in town. Bought "Ben Loh" & employed my time pleasantly reading it. Wrote home to Betty also to Lin.

May 22. Remained on board the boat (Doctor Batey) all day reading. Took a walk late in the evening down the river. Saw some pretty residences. May 23. To day it rained.

all day. After finishing "Ben Loh" I wrote to dear Bessie & enclosed a spray of arbutus gathered in yesterday's walk. Became very much wearied with staying at Alexandria, & being deceived about getting off.

This evening Lieut. Rich took a party of ten men & went on board the Grand Duke to compel her to take us.

May 24. The Grand Duke is stirring up & taking in wood & we expect to be off in a short time, but it is probable we may be disappointed again. Orders came for us to remain on the "Dr Batey" as the Grand Duke would take provisions & beef cattle.

for the army at Corinth & might pass fearing to be going to N. O. as Gen Butler allowed all boats carrying provisions to pass down.
Got off at sundown, ran down to the cattle pens waited awhile on the Duke & left, running 22 miles. We then tied up waiting for the Duke who was to precede us. May 28. Grand Duke did not come up until late in the evening.
We had run about 50 miles & were wooding & waiting for the Duke.
While we were wooding two men passed down in a yawl & being suspected by Maj Dawson who was A Master & in command, we 34 got up steam³⁵ & over hauled them brought them on board & went back to the wood yard. One of them had no pass but I think their intentions^{were} good.

They were going to N. O. to their families. After the Duke passed we followed. Red River below this point had overflowed its banks. The water was running all over the country, fields, yards & even in the houses. Those families that remained moved from place to place in boats. I saw a ^{man} ~~man~~ ^{about} dressing cans.
Hogs were swimming about & poor cattle & horses up to their sides in water.

All the stock must perish.
About dark entered the mouth of Black River which is formed by Little River, Washita ^{Quadrata} & Texas.
We ran up a few hundred yds & tied up. Found the blake there.
We were 100 miles from Alexandria.
The color of the water was dirty brown from the concretion of Black & Red Rivers. Red river much narrower than at Alexandria & had no current as it was backed up by the Mississippi. Eight or ten miles from Black River ran through a raft 440 yds long of heavy timber completely stopping up the river.
We had not been tied up but a 36 little while ³⁷ I had fallen asleep when I was awoken by the men running over me, & all were calling out "a boat, a gun boat".

I quietly asked them not to run over me & started to lay down.
Knowing that no enemy's boat would run up such a crooked stream at night but I was surprised so much I got up & went on hurricane deck to the pilot house and kept a look out down the river.
In the mean time we had run a mile up Black river. Maj. Dawson went down in a yawl to reconnoitre & make signals. Several thought that signals were made to go up higher 37

I saw none. Presently I saw a light down the river & asked the pilot. He waited it a while & said it was a boat coming up. At first we thought it the Duke but he soon told by his puffing that it was a little boat called Homer going from Atchafalaya Bayou up Black River. The fear being at laid we tied up & went to sleep.
May 26. Started at sunrise ran back up Red River a mile to get a little flat bottomed steam boat. The intention was to go up Black & Texas & take the flat to go from Texas across the rap.
^{past Chocktan Bayou}
All the country was under water.
38

Stopped for the night at Trinity at the confluence of Little Ouachita & Texas Rivers. The town was all under water. Ran up Ouachita 15 or 20 miles to Harrisonburg & delivered the cattle.
Harrisonburg was dry ground. The only piece seen since leaving a point 60 miles below Alexandria.
Returned & went up Texas 40 miles & up Chocktan Bayou 15 miles on Dr. Brady & then got on the little steam flat. Some spar ring between Lieut Rich & Maj. Daw son about all getting on.
Stopped for the night on the bayou 6 miles from Mississippi. Slept on the pilot house. Some went ashore.
39

May 28. Got up early & started up the Bayou. Ran a few miles & waited until a party went towards the Mississippi distant 3 miles & make a reconnaissance & saw the Provost Marshal who would endeavor to get a ferry boat to take us over. Waited until in the evening ran up a lane for a mile & a half on the flat & then went to land in the canoes. Camped near Prof. Preston's. Had a very uncomfortable night in consequence of mosquito May 29. By 10 o'clock this morning Prof. Preston had 3 wagons to move us to the ferry. He was very kind to us;
- 49 -

He has a fine place & splendid gun & great mill propelled by steam In going to the River we passed two miles through a splendid farm of Mr. Bass, a single man.
It was but little overplanted although the river was 20 inches higher than ever known. All that we could see was in corn and looked beautiful. Got on the River 2 miles above Water Proof at 11 o'clock.
Ran down the Mississippi 6 miles & then up Cold Creek to Bever's Landing 4 miles. When we took the boat was on island & the stream we were on was narrow not being the main one & thus we 41 and hidden from the sight of boats passing (the night we stood on shore cannon were occasionally heard). Water level was under water. In going down we could see the river for 20 miles below such was the bend; it lay only one mile across. By 1 1/4 o'clock reached Brown Landing & an haver started for Fayette distant 15 miles. He had one six mule team & many had to walk. I rode 4 miles, then got out to walk. I got myself & others. Stopped at a Mrs.

Scotts to get water. Here there was a piano & two nice young ladies we asked for music & being much 42 entertained let the wagon pass us half an hour & we never could overtake it again until it reached Fayette. Mrs Scott was a sister in law of Col Marshall. She was very kind to us, handy with milk & cooking to cook some dinner for us. But we would not suffer her. Ever since entering Miss we found the people very hospitable.

Reached Fayette at dark broke down. At night had company & the boys serenaded the girls of the female college & as it was very near & I listened to them, did not get much sleep.
May 30. Woke up so late this 43 morning that I could scarcely walk Got another wagon at Hayette.

The people were very kind to us all along the road coming out to meet us with buckets of cold water & blankets of beautiful flour as & away their handkerchiefs & cheering us on to the car of glory. If we could not fight when inspired by the smile of beauty, we surely would be cowards.
Camped 5 miles from Union Church having travelled 26 miles. People here very kind giving us eggs, butter, milk & honey & cooking bread & charging nothing.
We left them some flour which is a rarity there.

May 31. This morning made the remaining 20 miles by 12 o'clock to Brookhaven on the N. O. & Great Northern Railroad. 46 miles from Jackson saw Mr. Rogers & learned that brother Andrew & Will had preceded us, having gone to Natchitoches, thence by cars & boats to Natchez & from there to this point.
Left Brookhaven at 3 o'clock P.M. & reached Jackson at 6 1/4 a distance of 55 miles (dist. from N. O. 183).
Reached Jackson too late for ^{the} cars & had to remain over until next train.
June 1st. Had an unpleasant night and rose with a painful knee.
Went to church. Episcop. in morning & Pres.

45.

Hydron at night. Wrote to Betty from here. The mail train from Vicksburg was so crowded that we could not get on it.

Jackson is a small badly built dirty place. But few good buildings. Confederate House, Bowman house & Capitol. The Capitol is on pretty natural ^{at} ground but not ornamented.

June 2^d. As we would not get off until 9 o'clock A.M. went to the foundry to see the cannon cast here 2, 4, 6, 8 & 12 pounders. Mostly for ^{Gen} Price.

Saw a good many plastered bells which were to be cast into cannon.

Left Jackson⁴⁷ at 9 o'clock on the freight train. Passed through ^{Brandon} Norton Fonat & Newton to Mendon a distance of 96 miles, reaching it at 6 o'clock. Met with Capt. Evans & Ashby & went Baljell on their way to Corinth. They took supper with us.
Laid down on the platform & slept until 12 o'clock. Expecting the train got up then but it did not arrive until 3 o'clock. Made some coffee & offered it to Mrs Jordan. She authored of some stirring words to the tune of "My Maryland".
The train was so crowded that by the trickery of the conductor we did not get on.

Had to lie here all day & risk the chance. The train are crowded with sick soldiers & others.
A great many sick are lying here in a pitiable condition. Very dirty lodging & need of attention.
One poor fellow under the influence of liquor fell off the cars & had his leg crushed below the River. Meridian is a very disagreeable place, & smells & dirty.
Slept first night in the depot platform; second in a new ware house.
We eat our own provisions.
Left at 12 o'clock Tuesday night June 4th. Arrived in Mobile 9 o'clock.
A train a dist. of 130 miles

Took breakfast & dinner at Battle House. Wrote to Betty & father. Left at 2 o'clock P.M. in a boat for Texas Landing on Texas River 15 miles. As we were going out of the River saw two Confed. gunboats & guns.
& a "ram" also two forts at on the bay. Took the cars at 5 o'clock for Montgomery, by way of Pollard & Greenville.
June 5th Reached Montgomery this morning at sun up.
Breakfasted at Mt. Hall & took the 8 o'clock train for Atlanta passing thro' West Point the mid way point. Dined at Opelika

Cars at Atlanta. Reached Augusta by 6 o'clock Friday the 6th. passed thru Branchville & Kingsville stopped at Elmore in S. C. at Marion made the acquaintance of Mr John son who was much taken with Lucas. Reached Wilmington about 2 o'clock Saturday morning.
Breakfasted at Goldsboro' N. C.
Got to Weldon about noon but the train to Petersburg was about to leave & only a few as got on.
I got a seat & gave it to a lady & had to stand all the way. Was completely worn out. Could not keep my eyes open. Slept at Petersburg to wait for Capt. Rich & others behind.

Got supper & went to bed as I was completely worn out. Caught a great cold. Petersburg under martial law Scene 8th. Was engaged this morning in reading the Bible when I was called to go to the depot as we expected to get off at 9 o'clock but found we had to wait until 4 1/4 o'clock.
Waited at the depot. Waited very much to go to church. Left in the afternoon at 4 o'clock for Richmond. Went to the Columbian Hotel after depositing our baggage at the depot. After supper went to the Exchange & found brother 57

And then waiting on Mr. Burgess who was sick. Took lodging with him.

June 9
This morning after writing to Betty we moved our baggage to Mr. Debrill's house and after waiting at the Texas Depot for our accommodations went out to Camp 2 1/2 miles below Richmond.
Arrived there at night found many acquaintances. Remained that night & our trunk lodging with Aunt Holloman.
June 10. A disagreeable day rained all day & we had but little to eat.
Took cold from damp blankets.
June 11. It having cleared off we were preparing to go to our Regimental Camp, when we rec'd. orders to cook 3 days rations.

As we were going to join Stonewall Jackson in the Valley of Virginia.
While cooking supper our baggage came by & we had to leave our supper & move off. Passed thro.
Richmond that night & crossed the River & encamped near the Richmond road & Danville Depot. Arrived about 11 o'clock. Expected to move that night & left in our clothes. June 12. Did not get off until 12 o'clock A.M.
Rode on the flat cars. The heat was oppressive. Had developed a severe headache. Was quite unwell at night. Saw on a plank six inches wide which was used for a seat. Had nothing under me & did not sleep well.

June 13th Arrived in Lynchburg about day light. Was moved into town & our regiment quartered in a beautiful yard very shady & commanding a fine view. Saw a muddy brook & learned from him that Cousin Lewis Ca-perlen was in town & that Gen.
Echols & family were at Mary's 2 miles from town & that he & Henry had been fellow passengers with us. In the evening Henry & Cousin Lewis called at our camp.
We all went home with Henry & staid all night. Had a pleasant time

June 14th This morning while on train saw Mr Lo Norvell on Street & called to see Mrs Norvell. Mrs Mary was married. Hurred off from Mary's thinking we would leave early ^{but} did not.
June 15th Spent this day reading my bible & going to church.
June 16th Left this morning early for Staunton. Arrived there 11 o'clock P.M.
June 17th Went early to Mr Gays which was in a 1/2 of a mile of our camp.
Met Fannie at the door & knew her. Mr G & Cousin Mary much changed. 4 child. beside. Explain that that our Pig. had moved.

regular breakfast. Had not made the am reg. until 10 o'clock at the foot of ^{the} Blue Ridge on the Charleston village & Staunton road. ^{9 miles} sore footed miles that day over the B. Ridge. When I got to camp I was completely broken down.

June 26 Took the cars 1st day at Woodville & came to Fredrick Hall on Va Central road & encamped in pine woods. Slept badly; in fact have not had a comfortable night in camp since reaching Va it being too cold. Have a very bad cold & cough. Motivated to B Gurneys. Employed the day reading "Alone" Excellent book beautifully written & moral effect good.

June 22^d Remained at the encampment today, cooking up three days rations of provisions.

June 23 To day made a long march & camped in a pine woods as usual. About dusk there came up a very heavy thunder storm & it rained all night. I sat up all night with my oil cloth & blanket around me & held my knapsack & Kropsack under them. Was much fatigued in ^{the} morning & had cricks in my neck. Had no fire until evening.
June 24 Took all morning to dry my blankets & when I got them dry had to move. The mud was deep & sticky & the day warm & I became very much fatigued. Capt Bane kindly carried my ^{gun} & Mr Jeffers my Kropsack a portion of the way which relieved me much.

My knee pained me again & I am afraid it will continue to do it. Lieut Holliston joined us this evening coming from Richmond. It threatened rain at night & as I had not slept any the night before & was unwell, I got permission to sleep in a night box car for which I paid 75¢.
Could not induce them to give me anything to eat. Said they had nothing. June 25. Joined the Regt & got breakfast & we soon started. I gave my Kropsack to a boy to give to Mass who previously had charge of it.
Doubted whether I would see it again. Moved on slowly to day get ^{to} near the enemy. Crossed the North Anna today. S. Anna yesterday.

Just a considerable stream. Camped in a pine woods & had to make bread & cook it without pans or ovens. Made it up on a piece of tent cloth (some on bark) & baked it on sticks. 1 dep rat of flour & 2 of hard bread.
June 26. Next day rose before day to march. Last night casters Helen Danair kindly gave me his.
This morning some Cavalry scouts & our skirmishers came upon the enemy. One or two ^{men} killed. ^{some} Captured.
All day skirmishing continued and 60 a few prisoners were taken.

About 4 o'clock P.M. the advance came on the enemy burning a bridge which they nearly destroyed. Our artillery soon came into position & shelled the woods all around. Then we, (the main body) were ordered to cross over & cause the woods to act as pickets.
In an hour the bridge was rebuilt & the troops soon crossed & were moved cautiously along having first removed some ten men followed by the enemy. At sunset as we got upon a hill. Gen A.P. Hill's troops engaged the enemy near us. We had been hearing the cannon for some time 61

They boomed just at mid night & the flash & the casting of the bomb was distinctly seen. We left on our arms near the road.

June 27. Ate a hasty meal & started shot off my gun & reloaded it.
All day we passed abandoned camps of the enemy, a great deal of plunder & hospitals full of sick.
Many prisoners were taken.
In hearing of firing ^{near} all day.
In the evening about 4 o'clock P.M. halted in hearing of the ^{firing} whilst halted I plucked two wild geese, me-ments of the battle field. Just then we were ordered to form line & battles marched on for some dist.
& halted. Shells shot flying over head.

Don^m moved into an open space New shell & shot flew thicker & did some execution. Don^m ordered to take a destructive battery. Here there was a storm of bullets & shell. Commended myself to God & went into it coolly. Had to make a swash before forming in front of the battery. Here we passed in the charge for more than $\frac{1}{4}$ of a mile. I was wounded 150 yds from ^{the} first fortification of the enemy. Shot in ^{the} right side Many others fell. E. Miller, Lieut. Rich-

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th inst. in relation to the purchase of the land for the purpose of building a new school house for the use of the children of the colored community of this city. I am very glad to hear that you are so interested in the welfare of the colored people, and I am sure that your efforts will be successful. I have already written to the Board of Education, and I will continue to do so until the matter is settled. I am, Sir, very respectfully, 24th In consequence of the travelling wound did not feel so well. Ran bruised blood.

71

While at Mr Gays on Saturday the 26th about dark Gen Echols came.
Staid until after supper, was going to bed. His wound not healed.

Aug 6th. This morning walked to town & made some purchases.
On returning studied "Bookkeeping" a while & then read Goldsmith's
"She Stoops to Conquer".
Was charmed & laughed aloud at the humor & wit of the piece.
Tom Lumpkin's pretended idiocy & his mischief is inimitable, All the characters are good Miss Hordcastle especially.

But have ⁷³ sunshine & cloud these each other. Aunt came in & I laid down my book & we conversed.
She questioned me about my family. We were silent. A storm was brewing over the distant hills.
Murmurs & noises came the muffled thunder & the sky was being overcast with a dark cloud.
A dark cloud hid also on my soul. My thoughts went to my sad home - a lonely wife left with her aged parents who have but promises of but few more years, her husband & brothers in the army liable to the casualties of war. I think of the bereaved 74 sisters at home, ^{one} without a protector, one with her husband absent and a prisoner & the other with her young hopes dashed by the capture of her betrothed.

I think of the Captives ones far away from friends in a rude country, of absent brothers whom we may perhaps never see again; of my sister in Carolina driven from home & very dependent with a large family. Of brother Andrew & Mrs. Tolson's family with their only protectors gone; of the sad changes that will soon occur at the old homestead. And thinking of all these things my 74 heart grows sad & tears spring into my eyes. How dark the storm-cloud without & how dark the storm cloud within.

But the storm abates, the cloud passes off, the dark again sky & seen & the blessed sunshine these are harbingers of hope.
I will look up in faith to Him who has ruled this storm & ask Him to let the bright sunshine come into all our hearts, by bringing peace upon the land, by ending the murders releasing the captives, & bringing us all to our dear homes & the loving hearts that constantly long for us. see page 76 before this diary - 75

Do you remember all the sunny places, Where in bright days long past we played together?

Do you remember all the old home faces,

That gathered round the hearth in wintry weather?

Do you remember all the happy meetings,

In summer evenings round the open door?

Kind looks - Kind hearts - Kind words & tender

And clasping hands, whose pulses beat no

Do you remember them?

The forms of the departed,

Enter at the open door:

The beloved, the true hearted,

Come to visit me once more,

With a slow & noiseless footstep,

Come those messengers divine,

Take the vacant chairs beside me

Lay the gentle hands in mine.

Song/William

Jan 27: Went out to buy corn & my supplies - This was excused for the people they looked so frightened - Our soldiers committed many excesses by way of retaliation.

28th & 29th - Remained at Chambersburg 30th - Moved on the Baltimore pike to Fayetteville & remained until the evening of Feb. 1st - To day the whole army was in-motion eastward on the pike - Another report at Fredericktown - General fight on the east side of the Blue Ridge.

little town of Fayetteville where we were encamped 7 hrs from Chambersburg.
Moved nearly all night - Night moonlight Crossed the B. Ridge, passed thro' Carlisle town 15 hrs from Fayetteville & stopped at early morning on the Battle field of Gettysburg where Early's Div & Rhodes & Heintz Div. engaged Meade's Army Corps - Campbell & Mearns of Gettysburg

After taking a note of sleep rode over to Little field & onto Gettysburg - Early's forces on the left of the Hagerstown road. Heintz & Rhodes on the right - How many dead & badly wounded perhaps 300 & I did not see more than half of
it. Then loss 1000 killed & wounded & 6000 prisoners - The Mich. suffered severely - Saw at least 150 dead & badly wounded on the ground they fought on not more than 5 acres.
Early's army went along the lines to see the disposition of the troops - Smith on left wing. Heintz in center, Longstreet on right - Pickett - Hood - McLean's Saw Ewell's Corps - In center of the line was there line - Rode two miles on left to troops Soon after leaving them 5 o'clock firing with artillery commenced & was kept at briskly along the line - One dead found, among others Rymond 2nd in command was killed (report says) also two brigadiers - Meade said to be surrounded said to have succeeded Hooker.

Diary of Travel

11. Left "sweet home" dear wife & dar. little Agnes for Signin to take the stage for the usual scenes of Van. Brother John & Henry Maney accompanied me. Left Signin on Thursday, the 12th dined in Belmont, supped in Gonzales. Travelled with Maj Jackson former Q. M. in Silliges Brig. Capt Harrison on his staff. Found them to be agreeable gentlemen.

13th. Travelled all night, & breakfasted in Hatillo. Arrived at Allerton at dusk & there found Col. Wm. Herdman who informed me that Gen Maney was in Columbus. After going to bed he came in & slept with Mr. Haggerty & myself. Has charge of the train in Columbus & has for a train for this.

new & consumed an hour on again. Left on board of the Palo Verde, about 9 1/2 o'clock. Left morning about daylight. Arrived at the mouth of Neches at 10 o'clock, ran in beside a schooner on Sabine Lake & put off some cotton passed the mouth of the Sabine at 11 1/2, shot Bar fort aboard 12. Orange at 2 o'clock. River very crooked. In one place 75 yds across & 5 ms. around. River very high, all the land covered. Passed the prize schooner at Orange that was captured at Sabine Pass. Distance from Beaumont to mouth of Neches 30 ms. from mouth of Neches to mouth of Sabine 8 ms. Mouth of Sabine to Orange 15 ms. to Tuleto 17 ms.

Arrived at Tuleto at 6 P.M.

for agent to secure seats in the stage Austin succeeded in getting ours.
Put up at "Travellers Home" Mrs Turnbull March 19. Left at 5 A.M. travelled early dined 22 ms from Hibbotts. Roads very muddy & stormy. Had to wait at Emg hot Bazar for the arrival of other coach from 1 o'clock to 5 A.M. (20th) At Mansfield got dinner & changed coaches got a fine train & were dashing away finely when after going 7 ms we ran into an ugly mud hole & broke the lead bars & got the wheel horses kugged.
The leaders ran away & injured themselves a good deal & we were left sticking fast. We sent 5 miles for wood for the horses & 7 ms back for back horse & were then detained four hours.
After travelling 14 miles we got fagged & lost & had to lie up. until morning. In the morning we discovered that we were several miles out of the way.

21st: Reached La Fayette about 10 o'clock A.M. Got breakfast & started in an extra for Washington, separately from the most of our passengers. Arrived at Washington about 7 o'clock.
22. Lay over to day, passed the day reading my bible, going to church morning to Bettles & Henry, a gentle man from N. O. who told some of Butters infamous acts.
Prospects for a disagreeable trip as it rained all night, & is still raining. Had very bad roads mud & water all the way. Creeks very high. At one place it ran in the coach & wet most every thing in my valise. Sat with the driver the rest of the night & was sleepy.

24th. Saw some beautiful residences near Alexandria, among others those of Mrs Moore & Mrs Flowers very beautiful. Arrived at Alexandria about 5 o'clock P.M. Got lodges & arranged transportation & wrote home to Bettie Sister Ellen & Dr. Massey.
25th. Got transportation on the "Dan-bloom" loaded with provisions for Port Henderson. Started about 10 A.M. got near the mouth of Red River & lay up for the night. As the difference in cabins & deck passage was we took the latter. We bought some provisions in Alexandria & slept on our blanket on the corn in the went to sleep in the men's room but we had to leave there as it was suffocating. 26th Passed the mouth of the river about 8 o'clock A.M. There saw & lay up beside the "Queen of the West" it was captured at Fort De Russy.

She had been shot ^{21.5} ~~21.5~~ ^{21.5} ~~21.5~~ gun 32 pounds. She had been shot through her scope pipe.
She seemed to be at the mouth ing a look out. - Forgot to say that we passed Ft. De Russy about 2 o'clock the 25th. All being right we steamed down the river & arrived at Port Henderson at 1 1/2 o'clock. Got a number of the Red River boats & transporters 3 or 4 miles below. So we an officer came down & finished boat's landing as the boats had taken position below & commenced shelling. We came up a little creek above & landed from the Port Hudson. We had to work & I walked about two miles & then went to a plantation & hired a couple of horses & a negro to take them back. He carried the valise & the bundle. Arrived at town about dark.

There was only one place that any body could stop at & there were eleven already there & after one thin supper. We eat coarse corn bread & meat & slept on the floor on our blankets. The town has been evacuated by citizens for fear of the Yankee shells. They have holes in the hills back of the town to which they go. The country is very broken around Port Hudson & very favorable for defense. Many little creeks to cross.

Many soldiers are encamped here & many are in town in the houses. Went out this morning (27) & had a good view of the Yankee boats. This is the day the President has appeared for fasting & prayer. Had no place of worship to go to & did not stop. My heart united with the rest through a prayer for peace. Left in the evening at 1 1/2 o'clock for Clinton, a distance of 24 miles upriver N. River. Arrived there at 5 P.M. Got transportation, engaged a hotel & put up at the hotel until morning. ~~March~~ Feb 28th. This morning after a deal of trouble succeeded in getting the hotel started at 10 o'clock for $15.00 a piece. Then the last to start with a rickety vehicle & sorry team. The road was bad in places & we drove carefully & smelted a good deal.

When we got in two miles of the place, Ed got careless & drove carelessly & broke the vehicle & we had to foot it the balance of the way. Arrived at Tongipahoa, or Camp Mone, at night, distance 34 miles. Tongipahoa is 78 miles from N. O. & 183 from Jackson Miss.

30th - Wrote to Belle, her & brother John. Got transportation through to Richmond by way of Selma. Left in afternoon at 6^{1/2} o'clock. Got to Meridian 96 miles at 8 A.M.³¹, breakfasted & left at 7 A.M. Arrived at Tombigby River, dist. 56 ms at 1 o'clock. Took down last mile going up the river to ms Then took the cars at Demopolis for Selma dist. 50. Demopolis is 2 ms below the Junction of Tombigby & Black Warrior rivers. Beautiful country between these & Selma. Something like Texas. Arrived at Selma at night & took the boat for Montgomery, dist. 80 ms. April 1st. Arrived in Montgomery at 7 A.M., two hours too late for cars to West Point - Forget to say that Austin Jones went down to Clinton from Jackson to see Dick, & Campkin, Gaudin, Herby, Fudges & others went by way of Mobile, leaving us at Meridian - Remained in Montgomery until 5 P.M. - Wrote two letters & walked over city - Ladies at Capitol engaged in signing & clipping money. Slept at Exchange Hotel. Home pretty good - Reached West Point at 7 A.M. & Atlanta at 7 P.M. April 2^d.

Did not have time for breakfast at Atlanta - Arrived at Dalton at 3 1/2 P.M. & here we waited here had to lie over for the regular train until 2 o'clock A.M. next morning but preferred to get on a freight train going out & wait at Knoxville.
We had a passenger car & had a whole seat to myself & slept all the way - Ripped at St. Louis over house. Arrived at Knoxville at 4 A.M. Apr. 3rd Took breakfast & waited until 12 o'clock for regular train.

April 12th - Sunday joined the army this evening while it was besieging Suffolk - Remained around Suffolk until Sunday night the 3^d of May, a day of the fight at Chancellorsville. May 3^d - Made a very hard march 21 miles in 24 hours besides cooking rations at Franklin May 5th Got to Petersburg, Slaid there until the morning of the 7th. Passed through Richmond the morning of the 8th & Camped about 17 miles from the City on the road to Louisa C. H.

Having marched 4 ms beyond Richmond Next day marched 19 miles (9th) 10th Reached Frederick Hall 12 miles Left F. Hall ^{the} morning of 13th camping at Louisa C. H. 14 miles.
Next day went to camp 4 ms of Pop-idon Riv & remained until the eve ing of the 1st when we moved to a camp 1 mile from Rapidan Remained here on picket until Sunday the 31st of May when we started for Fredericksburg. Marched 16 miles & then went back to a camp near the old one & there remained two days.

(1st - 3rd June) - June 4th Started for Culpeper crossing at Raccoon Ford - 5th Went to see Stuart's Cavalry review at Brandy St.
6th Went down the Rappahannock 17 miles to a ford, starting at 2 P.M.
& returned by 1 P.M. the 7th - 8th Moved camp 1/2 East - 9th - 4th Va & 2^d S.C. Cavalry surprised by Yankee Cav. & caused us to take up line of march to look out Mt S.E. of camp.

I forgot to say that on the 7th & 8th Gen Lee brought his whole army thro' Fairfax except one Division - This morning the 9th began firing N.E. of us supposed to be on the Rappahannock 10th - Was detailed on Engineer Corps found to be simply a "pioneer corp." and I returned to the Regt on the 12th 13th At 1 o'clock moved camp to Sta. in Mt. Lee of one of Gen Jackson's great victories (Aug. 8th 1862) 14th - In the evening walked over the battle field & saw many skeletons & saw marks of bullets in the trees 15th - Left camp at Sun rise, came through Culpeper en route for Winchester - Was detailed to take charge of Gen. Lee's Train - Along took right hand road & we the left

We came through Boston & Nashville carrying 1 mile west of Nashville The country is beautiful - Low hills of the Blue Ridge - Culpeper to Wash-ville 15 miles -

1st Rose early & got off by San Antonio mailed a letter which I wrote the evening before to Betty at ^{Sperryville} ~~Nashville~~ 5 ms from N. - Here we turned to the right pretty abruptly & travelled E of N. - Had been travelling W of N before Passed thro' Lewis Washington 5 ms from Sperryville & Lewis Cross Roads 10 ms from Sp. & Forest Hill about 3 ms from there on - Camped 3 ms from Forest Hill towards Mount Royal Sperryville at foot of Blue Ridge - The town was parallel with the mts. At S X R the troops came into our view but immediately took a left hand road by

Had great deal of trouble with wagons breaking down
Jan 15th - Started at six o'clock for F.R. dist 18 ms - I went on with a crazy wagon to have arrived but did not succeed - Got dinner at F.R. with wheelwright Petty - We crossed Blue Ridge 8 ms from F.R. - Then entered Warren Co. Had been in Rappahannock - Heard other rumors concerning the capture of Meloy & forces at Winchester by Gen. Smith, viz 6,000 troops & $100,000 worth of commissary & ordnance stores - Hope it may all prove true - Our troops reported to hold Williamsburg & Charleston - Evening at H. Ferry Had another break down this evening 3 ms from F.R. I had to get up the wagon Day before hot & dusty - Saw a man cultivating cabbage plants & he said it had not seemed for long weeks. At F.R. left the Winchester people & took a left hand road by Morgan's Ford on Shenandoah river. Wagon broke down

12 ms from ford - Took supper with a 2nd Scrimmons - 18th Camped 1 mile from Shen andoah on the left bank - Beautiful stream - 18th - Traveled 9 ms & came to Millwood. Here camped & delivered the commissary stores to the Brigade Commissaries - While doing so, rained on us hard - Thomas left with most of the wagons (23) & I slept in one of the remaining six - 19th - Left Millwood, passing thru Perry ville (Clarke Co) & camped 3 ms from Perryville & 1 from Snickers Ford on Shenandoah & 16 ms from Winchester, same dist as from Millwood - Dist. from M. to Perryville 6 1/2 20th - Remained in camp to day, shoring horses & mending wagons - Beloved of team came up - Had a terrible run last night. Got lost & had to climb on Sack sacs & horse shoes - Rained again this afternoon - Expected to spend a hard night - 21. Rained West to Kahla to day for plain dist. for B. 16 ms 22nd Went to K. I again for flour remained all night. 23rd On my return found the discussion coming towards Martinsburg.

Camped near (22nd) of Smithfield about 12 ms from Perryville & 12 from Martinsburg 24. Overtook the train at M. at 3 P.M.
Moved down within 3 ms of Williamsport. Rained on us all evening & night 25. More rained up before day to cross the river Patuxent, very still - Williamsport 10 1/2 ms from M. - Crossed the river about sun rise - Had to get on to save a mile from drowning.
Rained on us all day. Staid several hours near W. then took the road for Green castle Penn. dist 14 ms.

Sen Lewis L. Mayfield

General

I have not yet heard from you with regard to the new Texas Rights which you promised to endeavor ours to raise for the army.
I need them much. I rely on them we have in all light places & fear I have called upon them too often. They have fought grand & nobly & we must have more of them.
Please make every possible effort to get them in & send them on to me. You must help us in this matter. With a few more such rights Hood now has as an example of daring & bravery. I could feel much more confident of the Campaign.

Yours very respectfully

1863

Jan 27: Went out to buy corn & my outfit - This was needed for the people they
committed many excesses by way
of retaliation.

28th & 29th - Remained at Chambersburg

30th - Moved on the Baltimore pike to Fayetteville & remained until the evening
of Feb. 1st - To day the whole army was in motion eastward on the pike - No other reported at Fredericktown - Arrived first on the

little town of Fayetteville where we were encamped 7th miles from Chambersburg.
Moved mostly all night - Arrived moonlight Crossed the B. Ridge, passed the East town 15 miles from Fayetteville & started at early
where Lee's army & Rhodes & Hewitt's Div. were Meade's Army Corps - Camped in 1 mile of Gettysburg

After taking a note of the road over the Battle field & into Gettysburg - Smith fought on the left of the Hagerstown road. North & Rhodes on the right - The Lee army died & body wounded
it. Then loss 1000 killed & wounded & 6000
prisoners - The Mich. suffered severely - Saw at least 150 dead & body wounded on the ground they fought on not more than 5 acres.
Smith later went along the lines to see
left wing. Healy in center, Longstreet on right - Pickett - Hood - The "Louis Saw Ewell's & boys - In center of the line was in three lines - rode two miles on left the troops soon after leaving them 5 o'clock firing with
along the line - Our dead buried, evening Regiment 2nd in command was killed (report 500) also two brigades - Meade said to be surrounded since he has succeeded Shoulter.
