

at my first arrival of Gensang ~~at such Days~~, being too keen in the Pursuit of this Article from the when I left London promising Prospect of its making a good Remittance, lead me into this Scrape of which I now so heartily Repent. You inclosed me a Bill of Lading for 300⁰ Mill-Stones without any Act. of their Costs I could have sold them & Remitted for them by this Time had I known what to ask for them & I never ordered any on my own Act. I remember.

W. Gilmore told me he would send me two or three 100⁰ to sell for him, & you may inform him I shall suppose these are the 100⁰ & you may inform him I shall shall readily ~~do~~ ^{obey} when I know the Price — In regard to the Goods shipped by Woodford W. &

Lightfoot I think makes you a Remittance not to be complain'd of to wit 413 1/2⁰ Tob^o. he also sends you an Invoice for something more considerable which I think you may easily vend, he is a very honest industrious young Man & is very clear & punctual in all his Transactions. W. John Pleasants had order'd you a Ton by Woodfo but he is not being able to look
