

I have been to Church. Mr Mackay & I started out to hunt a Church, we went almost everywhere, the people were passing in all directions, evidently going to Church. We passed a Presbyterian Church & did not go in because of the style of the edifice, it was massive & grand, but not beautiful. We passed on for a less stately, & more Christian looking building.

We at length came to a Unitarian Church, & as neither of us had ever heard a Unitarian sermon went in. They had fine music by the choir, none by the congregation, tho' all were furnished with books.

Since I commenced this I have taken a long walk, I found many very fine buildings but a large proportion are modern structures and many small. This now all must do.
I do not promise myself much comfort tonight. The train starts at 11 o'clock, so that I cannot sleep before starting, and there is not much chance for sleeping in the cars, We will get to Rock Island at 8 o'clock, & 20 min. in the morning. Departure at 12 P. M. If I can go right on I must reach Washington a little after 2 o'clock. but I will not get there before Tuesday or perhaps Wednesday.

When I get to Washington I will write you again. May the Lord bless & preserve

You my dear wife - and our dear little Children is my prayer.

I will get home as soon as possible, I hope to hear from you soon after getting to Washington.

Your aff Husband.

W. C. Ireland.

P.S. I have just looked over this & find that I have nowhere spoken of my own health.
It is very good. I think I have taken a slight Cold. The reading has interested me with another fact, that it is rather uninteresting. I console myself by the reflection, that it will at least interest you - to hear from me.

I was about to omit ~~stating~~ that I met B. J. McComas' brother. He is well, & anxious for B. J.'s health & prospects, &c. He is a clever gentleman. Tell B. J. that he looks like him - that's all W. C. I.

8. O. C. C. A. M. My dear Mother, died. and while I weep I thank God, that her many suffering spirit is released from its tenement of clay. Thanks to God for the hope of immortal life. Oh! May we meet in Heaven.

Dear Will

Not Having heard from you for a long time I have thought fit to address you again. We are anxious to know what become of the Rouse case give us the particulars.

We have no news in this place, have just had a very fine rain the first for a long time our Crops look well, Have you any Douglas men in Greenup. The Democracy are having a very nice fun in this part of the state they are more bitter against one another than they ever were against the Know nothings. I hope the fight may grow thick & fast with them.

Will you let me know what the prospect is for getting the amount due me from the Estate I want it badly & could use it to advantage, I hope you will get it fixed for me

My wife is well & joins in love to you and your family

In haste
D. P. Robb
