Sibling Concern

Ali's mother baked a cake. She put it into the refrigerator before she went out to visit some friends. After his mother had gone, Ali went to the refrigerator and found the cake. He began eating it, and he liked it so much that he ate the entire cake.

When his mother returned and discovered that the cake was gone, she said to Ali, "Son, why did you have to eat every bit of that cake? Didn't you think about your brothers and sisters?"

Ali replied, "Yes, Mother, I did think about them. I was afraid that they would come along before I had finished it!"
