

Newark October 31st 1843.

Dear Margaret.

We received your letter last week, and was happy to hear that you intended making a visit to Newark. As we shall be very much engaged this week, it would be more agreeable to us if you would delay your visit until next week, as we have a friend stopping with us who is to be married shortly, and makes her wedding tour to Michigan the first of next week, and she is so busy preparing, for the occasion that it causes quite an excitement in the house and occupies so much of our time that we should not enjoy your company as much as we could wish, but we shall extremely happy to see you next week, and also my Nieces. Our best respects to Sister Susan and her family.

We received a letter from Cousin Temperance a short time ago, she arrived home safe and found her friends all well and wishes to be remembered to Susan and family. With the hope of soon seeing you I remain yours sincerely Eliza.
