Dear Ms. Suppe:

I want to stay in touch with you!

Thank you so very much for the lists of resources you sent. I did not know there was so much music for children available. I appreciate the name, address, and telephone of places where I can get the resources. That is very valuable. It also encourages me to keep on writing children's lessons.

Thank you for taking time to write to me and sending me the information. I will certainly make use of it--good use.

God bless you in your ministry.

Paz y gracia,

Mary Lou Santillan Baert

Dear Ms. Suppe:

I am gladly enclosing the check for $3.00 because you have indeed been an answer to a prayer. I thank God for your ministry.

I do appreciate the information you sent about copyright ownership.

I am writing some Sunday school lessons for children and I wanted (and want) to use some songs in Spanish. I am glad for the different versions. You indicated you found five examples which you compared. I got three. Are the other two similar to the three you sent? I really like the "La iglesia..." stanza of the "Popular" version. I had never heard that stanza before.

God bless you so very much.

Peace and grace,

Mary Lou Santillán Baert

Dear Mary Lou:

Thank you for the check and letter. I'm glad I could help. I didn't send the other two copies of "De colores" because they were the same as the ones I did send.

A lot of new children's songs for the Spanish-speaking church have been published in recent years, and I thought you might like to know what some of these sources are. So here is a list of some books with my own personal feelings about some of them. I have also given a list of the addresses of the bookstores where they are available, in case you wanted to investigate further.

May God bless you in your work,

Sincerely,

Gertrude Suppe
