

1675, Ambrose Fielding will

In the name of God Amen I Ambrose Hoilding being well in body and perfect health and memory do hereby give this my last Will and Testament in manner following In the first I do bequeath my Soul unto god of which gave it desiring him of his mercy through my dear Saviour Jesus Christ to be merciful unto it in pardoning all my sins And my Body I desire may have decent Christian beryal where and when please God to take it out of this sinful World secondly for what Estate y^t I have already or may have after my death being all paid I desire may be equally divided betwixt my three Children (to say Richard Edward & Anne) Also I do desire & appoint my trusty & well beloved Brother Edward Hoilding & my Son Richard Hoilding my to be my true & lawful Executors of this my last Will & Testament And in case of death here in Virginia they being absent I do appoint my loving friends Thomas Broerton & Thomas Dobson to be overseers and to take care of what Estate here is under my managment and to give and ~~amplish~~ ~~unto~~ unto my Executors Edward Hoilding & Richard, Lastly I do bequeath unto my wife Anne Hoilding tenn Shillings Sterling to buy a Ring At this I done as my last Will & Testament As Witness my hand this 26th day of
