Dear Comrade Hokey.

You are certainly putting the right stuff into the Rebel now. Dubo are beginning to pick up again. E.R. will likely be back about the 30th. Don't know for sure. Pa left for St Paul this week, so we are rushed off our feet. Miss Marys mother is quite sick as she couldnt help us this week. Several new Brewery ads begin this issue of Rebel. ~~But~~ Keep up the good copy and only hope you can keep out of jail, but if they send you to jail and let the Rebel keep going we wont be able to put the names on as fast as they come in.

Mit love to all from the whole force
Arnold

Tuesday Morning
Dear Comrade:

We are still playing a waiting game it being the Washington bunch's time to move.
If they suppress the Rebel altogether it would be a lot better than to slowly strangle it.
Am mailing a lot of single wrappers of marked New Era to day to Rebel workers so they will have an idea what is keeping back the Rebel issue of June 9th. Say Comrade

that article of yours regarding the kidnaping is splendid and only you would know how to write it that way and it would be a dirty shame not to get it to the readers in some form. We are holding the prints as we believe the orders will pile in if we can mail it out.
Maybe we will skip an entire edition of the U.S. don't let us know in a day or so. B.R. has written Meyer London a long letter and asking him to do something up there so we can Go on here.

Ellis and Frieda came in last night about 12 and had some trip alright. They run from Denver here on a broken front spring, and the last 25 miles a badly damaged wheel, one front tire flat and though a little "disfigured" they are still here. They were hungry too and went right to work cooking something to eat. They had $1.10 when they hit

San Antonio, bought gasoline with that and had only about 2 quarts in the Ford when they arrived here. They will rest up several days then go back to housekeeping at Subline.
Pa is tickled with his job in Fargo, acting as German editor of ^{the} non-Protestant paper and Mr. Panek will be the kind and help him out. If we have any more we will let you know. In the meantime keep original copy coming and we will get out the Rebel early as soon as we hear from Wash and sell

Dear Comrade.

I know your time is dear very dear, but I cannot keep from writing you this: In 1911 I was 19 years old and the Kaiser Franz Joseph commanded me to serve him 3 years in the army. As I have been a international social democrat through and through (and still am) would not serve the Kaiser and could not serve the red Flag so I emigrated to America as I was told this is the land of liberty (I'm damned if I believe it now!) When I first got here and heard about it, how proletariats of whole Europe is ~~be~~ slaughtered, I thought myself safe under Stars and Stripes. ~~the~~ Now they want to slaughter american proletariat to, and I have no place to go to. They have got ^{me} cornered now! Asking me to fight for the Flag. over there for Black and yellow here for R. W. & M. I must decide now. Wipe white and blue out and spread red over the whole flag, pole and all, and I am ready to die for it. But I never will obey no command of no Capitalist president, absolutistic monarch Kaiser or King or the W. W. clerk of Morgans office who has to pay money to a Bermuda woman to keep her mouth shut.

Where is my flag? where is our recruiting station? when will we march out?

If my flag is calling me or not, - the first Morgan agent comes along to conscript me will have to kill me where he meets me or I will send him to halllujah.

Nobody can conscript me. If I must die allright! but I will die only for ~~a~~ my flag, the blood red flag, only for it, and for the blue whites and yellow may crook anybody who wants.

If you're organizing a regiment for the 14th of may I want to enlist right now and wish to be told when and where to come. Even the red flag dont stand for slackers, if we let them capitalists murd our leaders what will become of us? Lets get our Mooney out of their claws, before it is too late.

Yours under the flag of international social democra~~tism~~ G. Crawley

British papers in Holland within 24 hours of publication. It will be 10 days at least before our newspapers reach a neutral country in direct communication with Germany.

It is not all news which we wish to keep from the enemy. Almost all information which we regard as "good" would be "bad" news for the enemy and would exercise a depressing effect on the morale of their people. We wished, for instance, to give the widest possible publicity in Germany to the fact that Congress had voted the war-credit bill, including the loan to the allies, without a dissenting voice.

The only news which we wish to keep from the authorities of Berlin is the kind which would be of tangible help to them in their military operations. At the moment more than half of such news has to do with naval operations, including the movements of merchant ships. The remainder is of such subjects as coast and harbor defense, new inventions, information confided to us by our allies, details of diplomatic proceedings, etc.

It will be some time before our Army grows to the point where successful censoring on its behalf becomes of vital importance. The staff of the committee will have gained much valuable experience before this more formidable problem of shielding the Army from undesirable publicity becomes pressing.

The Three Categories of News.

It will facilitate the work of the committee if a sharp distinction is made between three categories of news.

1. Matters which obviously must not be mentioned in print.
2. Matters of a doubtful nature which should not be given publicity until submitted to and passed by the committee.
3. Matters which do not affect the conduct of the war, do not concern this committee, and are governed only by peace-time laws of libel, defamation of character, etc.

Under Category I would fall locality of warships, and mine fields, location and description of coast and harbor defenses, or photos giving clues on these matters, date and port of sailing of merchant ships, etc.

Under Category II would come such matters as narrative descriptions of units in the Army or Navy or of their operations. We will want many such stories published, but they should be first submitted for visé, as it is extremely easy to give inadvertent information of great value in such narratives. The Kipling stories of the destroyers in the Battle of Jutland were very carefully scrutinized by the Admiralty experts before release. The committee will strive to meet the wishes of the publishers in this

They want to make poor peons
Of the laboring men to day
They cant do it at the ballot box
So have tried another way
They get U.S. behind them
So they furnish all the dough
To keep Villa raising hell you bet Way down in Mexico
Did the soldier boys that went there Kill any of that bunch You bet your life they didn't
For the officers had a bunch

The whole programme was cut & dried Before they left for fun
So all the boys could do you see
Was to muzzle every gun Should any one by accident
Kill a mexican you bet
When he got back to camp he knew A lecture he would get With money sent by capitalists
Who live back in the east
You suckers get an empty belt While they stay home & feast the wicked beareth rule the the princes thereof: for ye have eaten

What mean ye that ye beat my

Not satisfied taxing us heavy;
They're trying to grasp more in their hand,
They want all our wives & our children;
Not counting our houses & land,
So all that we have; must be given,
To fill up this great graft flood.
Not satisfied still they are clamoring;
Like the Romans did after Christ's blood.

We have passed thru two wars; This ~~thru~~ the third;
That's been all on account of the rich, They've schemed & they've browbeat & drove us,
'Till we've got to the very last ditch,
These pirates are truly well organized;
Hold together even up to a man,
They have done in the past a God's plenty;
But they're going to do more if they can.

Don't they know there's a God up in heaven;
That will not stand this treatment I know,
But will do as he did down in Egypt;
To the hosts of that King Pharaoh,
For they were all drowned in the Red Sea;
As the waters rolled up in a flood,
Just so it will be with these pirates;
They'll drown in our noble son's blood,

For the curse of our Father in heaven;
Will be visited down upon those,
Who murder & steal as they're doing;
For this is the plans of our foes,
They can't beat us down at the ballot;
So they get; throw their money control;
Of the cabinet & other officials;
And shove us poor ones in a hole,

It's coming; the day is not distant;
When right will be might; you will see The people will raise as a unit;
And fight once again to be free,
It's then these vulturs will beg us;
To grant them a resting spell, He'll give them the rest that they beg for;
I will be in ~~the~~ a bottomless hell,

Dear Mr. Ford:

Please excuse the seeming neglect of your telegram of the 27th inst. It was required to me from Kansas City to New York and then to Washington, where it was mislaid by my secretary during my absence from the city.

I am assuming that the expression of opinion requested in the Mooney case would be too late at this time. If you should want one for a later edition of your paper, I would be glad to give it.

Personally, I wish to say that the advocacy of the Irish World for justice in this case may have been, and likely was, the final drive that broke through the crust of apparently entrenched injustice in San Francisco.

My idea for many years has been that whenever we can enlist enough Irish in the cause of social and economic reform, a peaceful revolution will have come and gone, and the world will be a better place for all of us to inhabit.

With my kind personal regards and sincere good wishes, always,
