The man's name is Jacob Hemphill.

The name of TX Gold Star Medal recipient and TX CSA pensioner from Haskell County, TX(#22556) was JACOB HEMPHILL. He was a sergeant in Company H, 5th Texas Infantry, NVA. He was wounded four times at four different battles as following:

2nd Manassas on August 30, 1862

Antietam on September 17, 1862

Wilderness on May 6, 1864

White Oak Swamp on August 16, 1864

Was paroled at Appomattox on April 12, 1864.

Mentioned in Yeary's book, page 324. Home: Haskell, Texas.

He is buried in North Belton Cemetery, lot 542, 5 FEB 1844 - 14 FEB 1935. I locate the grave by information provided by his 2nd Great Grandson. He moved from Haskell after his wife died to live with a daughter in Belton..

Another man you all should be aware of who's also in the Belton North cemetery is John Patterson Osterhout.

<http://www.tsha.utexas.edu/handbook/online/articles/view/OO/fos10.html>

He had service in the State Troops and provides strong support to the Southern cause.

Here are other men in Bell county, we may possibly have in the book.. The lines start with County, City, Cemetery.

Bell Moffat Moffat HARRIS KOLLOCK HARRISON circa 1872 John Luckey furnished the following on Harrison, who was "One of the Immortal 600".: "Captain, Co. E, 7th GA Cav Captured at Trevillian Station, VA, on 6/11/1864. Moved to TX in 1866 and lived near Navasota, Grimes Co. He was reported to have died in Belton.

Bell Belton North Belton MILLER J Z Aug 17, 1834 Jul 11, 1920 69 JOSEPH ZACHARIAH MILLER November 7, 1910 Bruce Allardice advised that Miller was "Lt. Col. 17th TX Infantry and postwar president of the Belton National Bank".
