Dear Aunt Julia,

Good morning - I'm going to get this letter off early, before breakfast, so that you'll be sure and get it. If I waited until the days activities had begun, it might never be written.

I received your check, and thank-you kindly for the same. The amount has been added to our account.

I'm very deeply sorrowful that you are all having such a hard time there. It must be an awful wear and tear on the nerves. Best we can do is to be though I have a very tempting invitation to go to Globe, where I spent Christmas last year.

That reminds me, our Christmas vacation begins on the 16th of December. I don't know yet, just what I'll be doing. If Mother can get to Los Angeles, we'll all spend it there.

I must be jumping along now. I wish you all the best. My regards to all the family - I'll be thinking of you -

Sincerely with love,
Betty

patient and keep our heads.

You ask about Mother. She is working, as a receptionist sort of, for a lady in Stockton. Route 6, Box 17, Stockton Calif. And of course, you may always reach her at Holt. Andy is in Los Angeles - I do not know his address.

Mother seems to feel that there is something good ahead of us - I hope she is right. At least, it's encouraging to have her feel that way for a change - She, to be sure, deserves something good now for awhile.

Everything is under control here. I'm staying here thanksgiving.
