

Sunday Afternoon

Dear Sister:

If you had been here yesterday you would never again feel that your efforts in life had been a failure.

Bro. Griswold was called on to speak and he paid Vernon the most beautiful tribute that was ever paid any one. One of the many things that he said was that a sweetest, nobler boy never lived. He seemed to be so proud of the fact that he had made good as an officer and ~~that~~. I felt that every one there felt just like he did.

The programme was not made out before we got there. Different ones got up and said what they pleased. It was the most satisfying day that I have had in all my life, it seems.

I will send you the clipping so you will know who were there. Miss Charles wrote a grand message.

I sat next to Ark Coffman. His little boy and Tom spent the day together going to the show and getting their hamburgers etc. Ark has the sweetest wife and both children are beautiful.

Celile and Dr. Strother each wrote to me. Bones Wyatt and Jim Bushy were there. I will tell you more about it when I see you.

We will meet next year in Stamford, I think.

Sarah English and Raymond Astin are going together now and were here.

Both Thompson boys came from Dallas and are fine looking and are, I am sure, fine men. Their wives are friendly and seemed to have a grand time.

Blanche wrote that she couldn't come, as did Mawune. They should be there next year. One girl Alma Brunson, came from Midland just to see Mawune. There were 106 here.

Ross moved from Little Rock Ark. That he would be in tonight.

The children have been fine.
I have all the curtains clean and the yard all clean awaiting your arrival.

Tell Ed that every one asked about him and said for him to show up next year.

We have heard from Ross four different times, which is grand for him. I am sure that he has had a grand trip.

Not being settled down enough to write a real letter I will close for this time.
