C. W. Ferrell Of Temple Has 90th Birthday Sunday

CONFEDERATE VETERAN CAME TO TEXAS IN 1881; CHILDREN AT HOME

C. W. Farrell celebrated his 90th birthday Sunday with a family reunion at the home of his son, H. C. Farrell, 809 North Ninth street. An old-fashioned southern dinner was served. The birthday cake was decorated with pink and green rosebuds and had on it the dates 1845-1935.

Mr. Farrell was born Jan. 20, 1845, in Luningburg, Va. He joined the Confederate army, 59th Virginia regiment, at Luningburg court house at the age of 17, and he fought in battles at Richmond, Harpers Ferry Petersburg and Fairoaks. He w taken prisoner by General Mead's army on Dec. 5, 1864, and placed in prison at Elmira, N. Y., where he remained until the close of the war.

He was married to Miss Mary Jane Freeman of Charlotte county, Virginia, in 1870. The couple came to Texas in 1881. Mrs. Farrell died in 1918, and since that time Mr. Farrell has lived here with his son.

Guests at the entertainment were: Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Riney and daughters, Cora Alice and Dorothy, Harry Riney, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Riney, Mrs. Clyde Jones and son, Clyde Harold, Mr. and Mrs. Frazier Farrell, Miss Thelma Farrell, R. R. Farrell of Kelso, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Farrell, Miss Irene Farrell, Miss Mary Lois Farrell, H. C. Farrell and Miss Doris McFarland.

Other Countries May Demand Own Plebiscites

GENEVA, Jan. 21 (AP)—Renewed Nazi activities in Austria and the reported bristling of Lithuanian defenses around the autonomous city of Memel (Klaipeda) partly con-the beginnings of the Buddhist religion in Central Asia and possible connections with ancient Babylon.

Hundreds of rolls of Buddhist classics, musty with the age of centuries, have been brought to light under layers of wind-piled sands hiding the temples and courtyards of a monastery which flourished some 1,500 years ago.

The classics, in Chinese and Sanscrit, make frequent references to the wonders and beauties of a far-off city believed to have been Babylon. In the same area archaeologists have found earthenware strikingly simil a Babylonian pottery.

We are sorry to state that Mr. J. D. Bright's little children are quite ill, the baby thought to be dangerously so from pneumonia.

You can't miss it by trading with Field or Morgan. They sell the best, the cheapest and throw in full weight every time. 4-2-2t

You can buy your suit as cheap for cash at Sherrill's as any place in the city. 4-2-2t

Reports from Little River and its tributaries are to the effect that it was higher from the last rain than it has been for years and that wagon loads of fish are being captured along these streams that failed to get back as the water ran down.

The remnant of furniture saved from the fire by Kyle & Son is going at prices that suit the purchasers. They are bargains.

Jackson Bond, an old confederate soldier, died at his home on South Side Sunday and his remains were laid away by his old comrads to wait the bugle call at the last great day.

LOST—On Main Street, between First Baptist church and Kyle's furniture store, a pair of gold-rimmed spectacles, with stiff ear pieces crooked at end. Finder please return to Mrs. J. S. Payne.

If you don't buy furniture now you will always wish you had, for Kyle & Son are certainly selling cheap, some excellent goods.

The work of repairing the Eagle block, burnt in the fire that destroyed the Kyle furniture, is now going on.

Oklahoma City, June 7.—Attorneys who assisted in handling the legal phases of the removal of the capitol from Guthrie to Oklahoma City, and who are allowed fees aggregating $10,100 for their work by virtue of a senate resolution passed by the 1910-11 legislature, are making a demand for their pay out of the $5,578.50 which this city is now raising as a capital bonus. MORTUARY

One more old Confederate veteran has passed over the river.

"Grandpa" James V. Martin died Tuesday at the home of his son-in-law near Temple. He served under Captain John Rabb, guarding the frontier from 1861 to the close of the war.

Grandpa Martin was near 93 years old, was of the old southern blood, strictly honorable and upright. He was born in Mississippi and came to Texas in 1858. He settled in Bee county and was the first sheriff after the county was organized. After the war he moved to Grimes county, where he lived on the farm until his health failed, several years ago, when he came to Bell county, and has since lived with his children and other relatives.

He was twice married and is survived by nine children and thirty grand children and a number of great grand-children. He was buried at the Lancaster burial ground yesterday. There he will rest until called to answer the last roll call.

Peace to his ashes.

The trip will be made overland in their car.

Messrs. Harle, Earle and Sidney Bruce, and their sister, Miss Eudora Bruce, who have been making a trip in their car from here to Dallas, have recently returned and report a pleasant visit.

Cotton around here is absolutely "on the bum." There are very few stalks that have anything on them and the rest is absolutely bare. "Great chunks" of leaves are on one little slender stem of a stalk, and serve as an excellent breeding and working place for the young leaf-worms of which there are literally thousands. A man may not think that he has the leafworm, but once it gets into his field, he will find just simply hundreds of thousands of little worms and eggs. The fly or miller, is so thick a person can hardly walk through the cotton, and of course, they are working all this time, busy laying eggs to have a bumper crop of these "pestiferous" leaf worms.

Many people around here have have already started poisoning their cotton, and Paris Green is in great demand. The most popular way of powdering the cotton with the poison is by attaching long poles on back of a cultivator seat and with blocks tied on the wheels, the farmer can throw such a large cloud of the deadly poison as will kill all the leafworms.

A popular mixture is to mix two pounds of cheap grade flour to one pound of poison, and use four or five pounds of this mixture to the acre. By doing this, and mixing proportionately, the "dope" is neither too strong to eat up the cotton nor to let the worm escape sudden death.

We don't hear much more from those howlers who were yelping a few weeks ago, "keep the Torch Lights Burning," now do we? No, and you won't hear from them, because they know that in the fields where these torches were burned there are four times as many millers, and, consequently, bugs, as there are on the land on which no lights were burned.

Mr. Fred Gauntt has startedy to picking cotton, and he said he was not going to make near as good crop as was first thought. As this is the case all over the country, never discovered a domesticated whippoorwill. In reference to the turkeys, I suppose you mean turkey buzzard, we have lots of them too.

IN MEMORIAM

Last Thursday eve at 11:35 o'clock, one more of the Confederate veterans, who saw service under Lee, passed away to the land where no sorrow is known.

Col. H. D. Patterson, for years a resident of Temple, passed away at his home in that city last Thursday evening at 11:35 o'clock.

Brave soldir, true comrade, loving, steadfast friend, beloved father and husband, we can sincerely mourn his decease.

He was born May 23, 1837 in Pinckneyville, Mississippi, in Wilkinson County. He received his education in Mississippi, near his own home town, and then taught school for nine years or until the outbreak of the Civil War.

He then enlisted in Company K. Sixteenth Mississippi Infantry and served under the stars and bars, until the battle of Spottsylvania court house, where he was severely wounded in the groin, which wound caused his foot to be drawn so that he was forced to walk on a peg up until the last few years, when he used crutches.

He came to Bell County in 1874, and moved to Temple in 1892, where he spent the remainder of his life. He was married to Miss Mary Cornelia Gildart, also of Mississippi. Five children are surviving their union. They are Dick Patterson and Mrs. Addie Young of Temple; Mrs. Tuttle of Oklahoma; Mrs. Fuller of New Mexico, and Frank Patterson of El Paso, Texas.

"Uncle Pat," as he was affectionately called by all his younger friends, was a great influence in all educational and moral benefits for young people.

He was confined to his bed for seven days, at the end of which he succomed.

Personally, I know what bereavement the family of the deceased are suffering, and I can sympathize with them, for although my grief is not as keen as theirs, I feel that I have lost my best friend, that my benefactor has gone home to God, my dear old "Uncle Pat."
