WEST TEXAS SANITARIUM
AND TRAINING SCHOOL FOR NURSES

My Precious Darling Mamma! - Tuesday.
LUBBOCK, TEXAS

So much I want to tell you and it seems I never get to write a letter as I want to, owing to interruptions.

I went to the Post office to get a letter to-day and took out the "fattest" letter I had felt for a long time and just knew I was going to have a nice long one to read, but no! Most of it was to the other fellow and if you had not asked me to read it I would not have done so, for my confidence in you is so great that I knew you would say and do exactly the right thing. If your letter to him will cause him sorrow or sadness, I rejoice in the fact that his loss is my gain and I consider myself, dear girl, the most fortunate man in the world, from the fact that I have won your heart and love, and I pray daily that I may be able to show you day by day how much I love you and that our lives may be blessed with true happiness as I know it will be.

The girls are "house-hunting" and your humble scribbler don't know just what will happen. They only want a small house about four or not over five rooms and there will be no place in it (comfortably) for the doctor and "our boys". They want us to crowd up with them till "we" go to the bungalow but I cant yet tell just what we will do.

Sweet girl, I would not worry you one minute,
I would not do a thing to make you feel badly, but I cant help but ask if under the circumstances, we cant hurry-up our arrangements a little bit. I know finances are close in West Texas and they are as close with the doctor as with anyone else, for as a rule a doctor's collections feels the pinch quicker than anyone else, and it is your own dear self I want, and not a lot of fine clothes, and yet I know there is always considerable expense connected with such affairs, but cant we draw the lines a little and arrange to have the little "big" wedding in the next three or four weeks. We do not have to get out of the present house till next week then I could do some way or other for a couple of weeks, then we would take a trip for about ten days wherever my darling sweet heart would rather go, and then back to the bungalow.

Will you think me unkind or unfair to say this after you have been so tender and sweet and frank with me in the matter, please dont look at it in that way and if it is not agreeable I say,

"you will be done."

I wish I could see you and talk to you dear heart, for it is the reflection of the beauty of your face and ~~its~~ your ever-shining goodness, that makes me smile when I see you and you can tell Aunt Sarah and Julia that is the cause of it.

Must stop for this time.

"I love you, I love you, tis all that I can say"

Yours

M. C.
