

OFFICIAL JOURNAL
of the
CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION
of the
STATE OF TEXAS

FORTY-NINTH DAY
(Wednesday, March 27, 1974)

AFTER RECESS

The Convention met at 9:30 o'clock a.m., pursuant to recess, and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following were recorded present: 168 Present, 6 Absent-excused, 6 Absent. (Record 1, Appendix)

The Reverend Reginal - King, Pastor, Tarrytown Baptist Church, Austin, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

Lord, we address ourselves in an attitude of prayer this morning, to give thanks for the geographical blessings our state has that brings happiness to some eleven million people. The diversities of our climate, the variety of occupations, and the multitude of ethnic backgrounds we count as assets too. We are to consider ourselves among the most fortunate.

Our prayers this morning are not for the ills of the world nor for the less fortunate of our state. We bow together as men and women called to serve a state we love. Called by our constituents not because of the money we spend in publicity but because the people trust us to do what is right for our state, our cities, and our homes.

The august responsibility of voicing a single prayer in behalf of each delegate is a privilege, but the needs of each person remain unknown. Almighty God we are not presumptuous enough to claim the privilege of stealing each person's private moment of divine communication. We know you do not listen any more attentively to the amplified words prayed than the secret thoughts of each person present. Hear collectively the individual petitions that will be prayed during the next ten seconds of silence. Even though we are not touching each other physically, we are touched by your spirit which spans the spaces between each of us.

We conclude this sacred moment at the beginning of a busy day by saying thank you for hearing our prayers. In His name we pray. Amen.

REASONS FOR VOTE

I voted against the Scoggins amendment because I felt it was not voting on the Right To Work, and did not technically belong in the Finance Article. I intend to work for and vote for the Right To Work in the General Provisions Article where I feel it properly belongs.

KAster

I voted no on the Scoggins amendment because it unduly hindered local government in providing the needed services. This was undue state control in local government operations.

GREEN OF HARRIS

I voted against Scoggins amendment

March 27, 1974

because this amendment would restrict the state's ability to take low bids on transportation and other important contracts. It would also interfere with the operation of local governments.

The motion was duly seconded.
