"Dear Anna"

Leadville, Col. June 9th 1883

Yours of 4th at hand by to day's mail - I came up from Haywood Springs the 29th last month left Maggie down there expected to go back horseback to day - only 50 miles - but it is snowing and very unpleasant shall stay over until Monday or Tuesday if weather clears up - then will stay down to the Springs until about July 28th Maggie and myself will come to Leadville again at that time, and about July 9th we will leave for Denver to await you The Exposition opens July 27th Grand Army Encampment 22^d later than I expected was changed from the 14th Denver will be full of visitors, and we will have a good chance to get located. ^{Get} just take a run down to the "Paradise of the West." Manitou Spgs and be on hand in good shape to spend two weeks amongst the gayest life you have ever seen, will show you Denver at its best - nothing happening we will come to Leadville about Aug.

1st then soon be ready to take a run over the country by wagon for a month or so, by that time we will get in our home again ^{and} can rest for a while. About staying we will take good care of you as long as you will stay - Tell Frank that he is a "dandy" and will ^{never} regret the part (and the great part) he takes in the matter. I will guarantee you will have such a genuine good time as you never have had before - according to Maggie's instructions I must forward ^{your} letter to her - She is in about a great flurry and anxiety as you ^{are} and am sure will enjoy your visit as much as do ^{you} expect to. I enclose you a note to Dick Jensen deliver it to him and he will deliver to you a package a pair of good sized Field Glasses - Now don't fail to get them from him - as we will need them very much - I shall expect to hear from you once again positively what day you leave and the certainty of your leaving addressed here you need not telegram but twice on the road just as you start and then within ~~24~~ hours of your arrival in Denver, address ^{your} telegrams to #42 Larimer St Denver-Colo - as that is Clara's store in Denver, and I will ^{be} there every day. Five weeks from the time you wrote. Four weeks from day after to morrow will soon slip by. Feel Mother we will take good care of you keep you away as long as we can, and return you in good shape. With lots of love from Maggie and myself

Your Br. Al

I have put Dick's letter in a separate envelope addressed to you deliver it to him and get his ^{answer} don't come without them. Al

If not called for in TEN days return to
