

Commander R. E. Camp U. S. A.

HENRY P. SHIEL was born in the State of Wisconsin in the year of 1840-- came to Texas in 1869-- located in Grayson County-- soon after moved to Dallas, from there he came to Fort Worth. Conducted a blacksmith shop on the corner of Weatherford and Rusk Streets-- was elected Chief of Police of Fort Worth in 1873. Was not in either United States or Confederate Armies, but was a strong Sympathizer of the South.

Was in business here for many years--- True to his friends was one of his noble qualities.

A frequent contributor to R. E. L. CAMP & other similar organizations.

Died Sept 12th 1909, leaving behind him, his wife and daughter, Mrs . Duffy, who reside in this City.

Resolved, First While we deeply mourn the loss of our friend and citizen, we bow submissively to him who doeth all things

Second: That in the death of Capt Henry Shielas, the community loses a charitable man whose love and devotion for his fellow man was a great character in his plain life

3rd That we extend to his bereaved family our sincere condolence in this their irreparable loss and may it be a lesson to ~~us~~ all to do unto others as we would they should do unto us. and that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes

Respectfully submitted

*Jno H. Martin
J. J. Mabey + McArthur*

HENRY B. SHIM, was born in the State of Wisconsin in the year of 1840-- came to Texas in 1860-- located in Brown

County-- soon after moved to Dallas, Texas where he was in Fort Worth, conducted a blacksmith shop on the corner of

Weatherford and Bank Streets-- was elected Chief of Police

Fort Worth in 1873. Was not in latter United States

Confederate Army, but was a strong sympathizer of the South

Was in business here for many years-- died in his home was one of his noble qualities

His estate was valued at $10,000.00 and was divided among his children.

Died in 1909, leaving behind him, his wife and daughter, Mrs. J. J. Shim, who resides in Fort Worth.