Birth: May 14, 1831
 Breckinridge County
 Kentucky, USA
Death: Jan. 23, 1908
 Hereford
 Deaf Smith County
 Texas, USA

son of George C. LeGrand - Nancy Bridwell

George Henry LeGrand was educated in Louisville, KY, and received his medical degree from the University of Louisville Medical College. He was a "Southern Rebel", and though not in the Confederate army, took an active part in the conflict between the states.

He fell in love with Elizabeth Tanner while he was attending Medical school, and they married while she was in her teens on 26 April 1859 at Louisville, Kentucky.

In the winter of 1901 moved to the Texas Panhandle, at Deaf Smith County on the Cap Rock.

In 1903-1904 all of the balance of the family left Graham to make their homes in Hereford, where George Henry, Elizabeth and five of their children are buried.

Birth: Jan. 2, 1825
 Columbia
 Adair County
 Kentucky, USA
Death: Mar. 13, 1892
 Austin
 Travis County
 Texas, USA

BELL, JAMES HALL (1825-1892) ~ James Hall Bell was born to Mary Evelin McKenzie and Josiah Hughes Bell in Bell's Landing, Kentucky; now known as Columbia. (Headstone reads he was born in Austin's Colony and 1880 Census records read Texas as birthplace)* The family moved to Texas sometime before Bell entered St. Joseph's College at Bardstown, Kentucky in 1837. After only one year of college, Bell's father died and he returned to Texas in 1838. A year later Bell returned to Kentucky and to college, this time attending Centre College in Danville. He remained there from 1839 to 1842. After graduation, he returned to Texas where he fought under Alexander Somervell in repelling the Mexican invasion.

Bell studied law under William H. Jack and enrolled in Harvard University in 1845. In 1847, he found himself back in Texas and formed a law partnership with Robert J. Townes in Brazoria. From 1852 to 1856, Bell served as District Judge and on August 2, 1858 he served as associate justice of the Texas Supreme Court; a position he held until August of 1864. From August 7, 1865, to August 17, 1866, he served as secretary of state under Governor A.J. Hamilton.

At the time of the Coke-Davis controversy in 1873, Bell interviewed President U.S. Grant and is said to have persuaded Grant not to interfere on the matters of Texas. Grant abided.

After Reconstruction, Bell engaged in mining in Mexico but in true fashion returned later to Texas where he settled in Austin. He died there on March 13, 1892.

From the Arkansas History Book 1891: Hon Jacob Buttram, farmer, Sugar Grove, Ark. Mr. Butram is one of the representative men of the county and is thoroughgoing and progressive in his ideas. He was born in Tennessee in 1825, and in 1848 started out to fight life's battles for himself as an agriculturist. The following year he was wedded to Miss Josephine Wilson, a native of Tennessee, born in 1826, and the daughter of George Wilson. The same year of his marriage Mr. Buttram removed to Scott County (now Logan) and bought 80 acres of land, to which he has since added until he now has 320 acres, 140 of which are under cultivation. Upon this he has erected six houses, dug wells, planted several orchards, and made many and vast improvements. To his marriage have been born eight children, only one of which is now living: Margaret (wife of James Henderson).

In 1863 Mr. Buttram was elected representative of Scott county, which office he held until the close of the war.

He is a member of the Masonic Fraternity, Sugar Creek Lodge No. 205. He was made a Master Mason in Booneville Lodge in 1859 and was one of the charter members of the Sugar Creek lodge in 1868, being worshipful master of same for 12 years.

In 1878 Mrs. Buttrams death occurred. She was a worthy member of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. In 1879 Mr. Buttram took his second wife Mrs. Emma R. (Barnett) Logan, who was born in Alabama in 1842, and the daughter of Thomas and Nancy Barnett. (He and Emma had no children.) Her first husband was James Logan, Jr., and by him she had one daughter, J.E. Logan, who was born 1878.

About 1868 Mr. Buttram erected a gin run by horsepower, but this was afterward changed to a Stream gin, which he conducted until 1878. He secured the first post office in Petit Jean Township and was appointed the first postmaster, which office he held for about 6 years. This office took its name fro the fine grove of sugar maple trees in the yard of Mr. Buttram. This gentleman has always been a liberal contributor to all public enterprises, was instrumental in building 2 churches, school, halls, and other public buildings. In order to secure a trading point in the valley of Petit Jean, Mr. Buttram gave 40 acres in 1884 for the purpose of laying off a town, the nearest point at which goods of any kind could be brought being at Magazine, 8 miles distant. Four stores now supply the wants of the people in the vicinity of Sugar Grove, as the little town is now called. (Sugar Grove is southeast of Fort Smith and located just south of Booneville, Arkansas. Here all eight of their children were born, and it was here where all but two of their children died.)

Mr. Buttram has been steward of the Methodist Episcopal Church South for thirty years, and is a man well and favorably known all over the county. His parents, Noah and Ann Huffaker Buttram, were both natives of Kentucky, in which State they were married, and the father was a successful tiller of the soil.

He erected six houses in which the to wn of Sugar Grove, Logan Co.,Arkansas was latter named . Elihu's wife and Jacob's parents were buried in the cemetery o n Jacob's place. He was elected representative of Scott County, an office he held until the close of the war. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge No. 205 of Sugar Creek and was made a Master Mason in the Booneville Lodge in 1859. Jacob and his second wife
