On Saturday, April 5, there will be a conference at the Jerusalem Baptist Church, 2201 Tuam, Houston. We'll discuss organizing and building a Houston demonstration on April 26 called by the Conference on Minority Concern and the Student Coalition Against Racism. The April 26 demonstration will protest racism and demand the immediate desegregation of the Houston and Boston schools.

In addition, the conference will discuss getting people to Boston on May 17 for the National March on Boston. The NAACP has called for a mass march on Boston on May 17 which is the 21st anniversary of the Supreme Court decision outlawing segregated schools and saying "separate is inherently unequal." The march on Boston will demand (1) Desegregate the Boston schools now! (2) Keep the buses rolling! and (3) End the racist attacks on Black students!
