

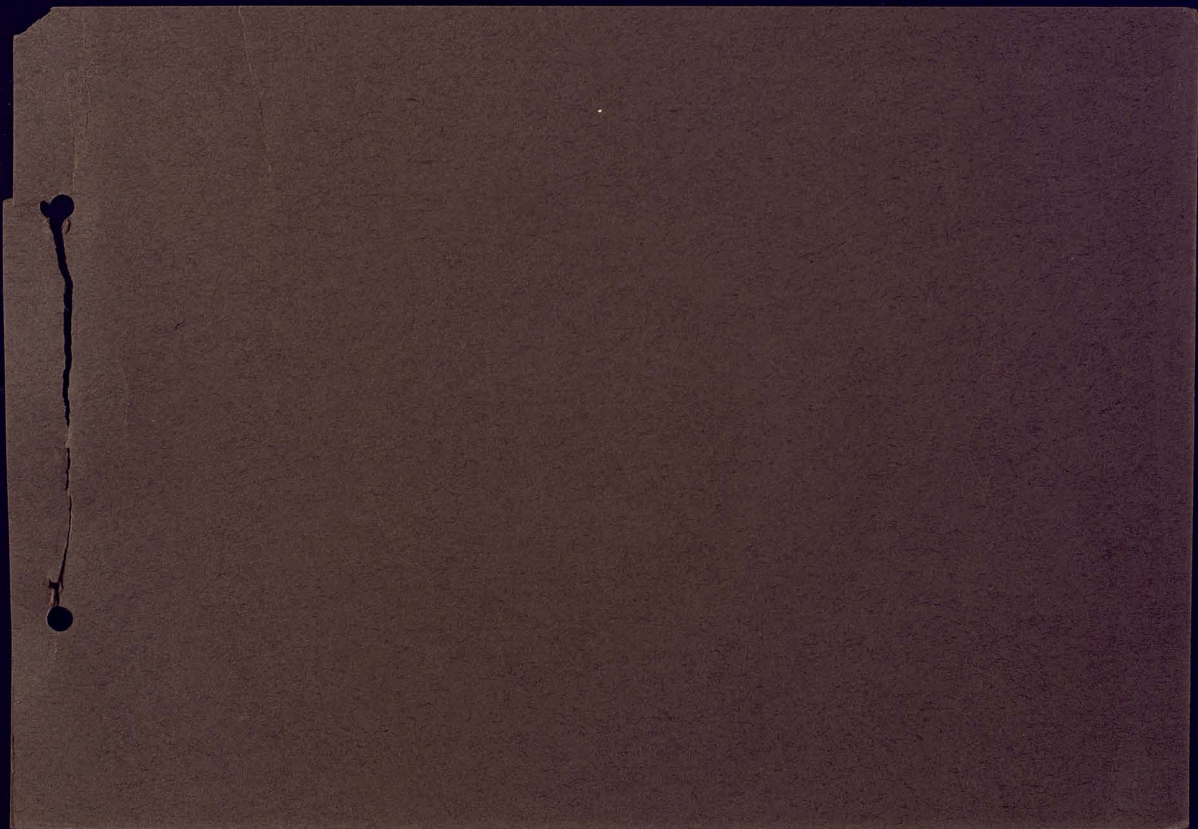

PHOTOGRAPHIC VIEWS

ABILENE TEXAS

LAKE ABILENE

View of Abilene's Seven Billion Gallon reservoir.

CENTRAL POWER STATION, WEST TEXAS UTILITIES CO.

This plant furnishes electric energy for thirty-two cities and towns of West Texas.

BUTTERNUT STREET

This street, paved with bitulithic over its entire length leads direct from business district to Site No.1 offered by Abilene for Texas Technological College.

NICKORY STREET

Paved with brick on concrete base from business district to Simmons College.

SAYLES BOULEVARD

Paved with concrete from Abilene
Christian College to McMurry College.

UNITED STATES WEATHER OBSERVATORY

Showing view of North First Street, concrete paved from business district to Abilene Christian College.

WEST TEXAS BAPTIST SANITARIUM

Architects drawing showing appearance of building when completed. This building, when completed, will represent an investment of $250,000. It is now under construction and will be completed and opened before November 1, 1923.

WEST TEXAS BAPTIST MEMORIAL SANITARIUM ABILENE TEXAS
DAVID S. CASTLE ARCHT. ABILENE TEXAS

WEST TEXAS BAPTIST SANITARIUM

View taken April 16, 1923
showing progress of construction.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Abilene, Texas.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Abilene, Texas.

CARNEGIE PUBLIC LIBRARY

Abilene, Texas.

ABILENE COUNTRY CLUB

This club adjoins one of the sites offered by Abilene for Texas Technological College. Golf links, tennis courts and swimming pool are part of the recreational equipment.

SOME ABILENE HOMES

