Obit of Rufus Davis

Mr. Rufus S. Davis was born in Smith Co. TN. on Dec. 9, 1843 and died at his home in Cimarron Co. OK. Jan.1, 1925.

Mr. Davis was always a kind and loving nieghbor, husband and father. His parents died when he was very young, an aunt reared him until he was old enough to care for himself.

Mr. Davis came to Texas in 1857, where he worked with ranchmen and grew up with the frontier until 1861 when he joined the Confederate Army under Joe Dixon's company and General Maxies Brigade. He fought in the southern Army for 4 years and in some of the inportment battles of the Civil War that is the Battle of Shilo, which was the greatest battle of the war. he served under General Robert Sidney Johnson, who was killed in this battle, General Bougard taking Johnson's . Mr. Davis often praised General Johnson for his faithfulness to the end. Mr. Davis was taken prisoner by the Federal Army, until the close of the war. He then came back to Texas, always stayed on the frontiers, worked on Mr. Goodnight's ranch several years also worked for Mr. Dan Wager in OK as boss for several years, Mr. Davis has been where the city of Dallas now stands many times when there wa no city there and he little thought he would live to see a flourishing city stand there.

In the year of 1886 he came to plains of Texas. He met Miss Sarah Brunner ar Childress, TX, who became his wife in 1887 at Old Clarion, TX and born to this union ten children, three of which preceded him to the great beyond.

Mr Davis and his wife lived at Palidor Canyon near Amarillo and Lascasia until 1905 when with his fmily moved to Cimarron Co. OK settled near Buffalo Springs just across the line in OK. Mr. Davis has lived to see this county build up and settled. Many of his old friends have gone before him.
