Texas Republic Daughters Form Dallas Chapter

Mrs. Herman Gahagan Is Elected President. Group Certified.

Mrs. Herman Gahagan was elected president of the Dallas chapter of Daughters of the Republic of Texas, which was organized Friday afternoon at the Baker Hotel by twenty Dallas women, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Cloud of Austin, secretary of the State body, and Mrs. Mattie Austin Hatcher, also of Austin a member of the State board.

Mrs. Gahagan invited the group to meet at her home, 3416 Lindenwood avenue, Feb. 11, at 2:30 o'clock, to make further plans for the organization.

Other officers were elected Friday as follows: Mrs. George W. Truett and Mrs. Cora E. Behrends, vice presidents; Mrs. Maudetta Joseph, registrar and corresponding secretary; Mrs. T. A. Scott, recording secretary; Mrs. J. A. Moore, treasurer, and Mrs. T. Whit Davidson, historian.

Mrs. Davidson was named chairman of a committee to name the chapter, this group including Mrs. Elliott Ramsey, Mrs. J. A. Moore and Mrs. Cora Behrends.

Mrs. Joseph was made chairman of the membership committee, which includes Mrs. Scott and Mrs. R. E. Doyle.

The new chapter was certified by the State officials, and an invitation was extended from the State president, Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier of Austin, to be represented at the State convention which will be held March 11 to 13 in Corpus Christi. A visit to Mrs. Sevier's ranch home in the valley will follow the convention.

Mrs. J. L. Mims and Mrs. J. E. Taulman of the Francis Cooke Van Zandt Chapter in Fort Worth attended the organization meeting and invited the members to a tea which the Fort Worth group will give Feb. 28 at the University Club of that city.

The Daughters of the Republic of Texas is made up of women whose ancestors rendered signal service to Texas between the years of 1836 and 1845.
