Sec. 5- Reconsideration passed (10-4)
Bynum amendment (attached) passed Sec 5(e)

Clower pointed out this would be a waste of time as this issue will be brought out on floors.

Sec. 6 Compensation
Davis moved for reconsideration as he wanted to delete Sec 6 - this sounds odd as there is no Sec. 6 but he wanted to then add a Sec. 6 saying the leg. could set their own salaries - he says the public isn't going to be fooled by no mention of salaries in Const. so why not be honest & say what they are doing. Reconsideration failed

Sec 7. Sessions
Bynum & Sieger moved to reconsider 1-11
Stiggins moved to table - passed 8-9

Sec. 8 Organization & Procedure

Bynum amendment passed (see attached)
Clower & Ragsdale voted against Bynum amendment

Art. III Sec. 3 (e) Dual office holding (Again!)

All Failed

Ragsdale amend - would add as an exclusion "an employee of any political subdivision"

Hernandez - would add as an exclusion school teachers.

Weddell amend - more general language with out all the exclusions - she realized that her language would leave much up to interpretation by the A. G.

The committee generally wanted to open up membership in the legislature while at the same time prohibit conflicts of interest and dual compensation. They were unable to find language to do this without developing a long list of exceptions to dual office holding so they finally went back to CRC proposal.

— The CRC proposal with a slight amend. by Sherman (passed several days ago & I no longer have it) was finally agreed on.

RECORD OF ACTIVITY (record all votes, resolutions, who testified, major points made, etc. continue on back and additional sheets when necessary)

Frank Elliott CRC member testified at the request of the committee on dual office holding Sec 3 - he says at present time the regulations on legislators holding dual offices are contradictory & confusing & that's why CRC included some specifics - he thinks CRC viewed a legislator as a professional, full-time sort of position so they didn't brooder the dual-office holding to include teachers, etc. - he feels this action needed in court to permit legislators to be on Not Board, etc. - if they leave it out the A. Co. that under the "separation of powers" this was not permissible + his subject will be taken up again on Tuesday Feb. 26.

The next subject considered was the Adams-Donaldson amendment on redistricting Sec. 5 (sub c) to remove ~~the~~ the words "one district" in line 16 + add one or more districts. The political maneuvering that when on in the next hour was unbelievable. Amendments were proposed, withdrawn, tabled, filibustered, etc. But when it was all over they went back to the original Adams-Donaldson amendment - adopted 12-8 Reyes, Henderson, Regalado spoke against it

OBSERVER COMMENTS

I was out of the room when Byington amend. was adopted 11-2 on this Sec. 5 but since there was no discussion couldn't have been too important

- Davis proposed amend. to remove phrase
"on the pop. of a county insufficient to comprise a dist," from Sec 5- subsection c. This passed
- Clower introduced attached amendments.
They are a reinstatement of CR C recommendations as a redistricting board into the committee's working draft
- Patman prefers for the leg. to do it themselves + Clower agreed but felt an "af behind the door" was needed.
- Parker says leave it out + that will be an incentive for the leg. to do it themselves
- Clower wants the make up of the board specified in the constitution if there is to be a board.
- Everyone agreed that the best way was for the leg. to redistrict themselves
+ the discussion centered around how they could provide the most incentive to do this
- Reyes - pointed out that if you leave the board out of the const. the federal courts could redistrict ~~if~~ that if the leg.
failed to do so + that was a better
"af behind the door."

Testimony from Robert Freeman, Texas Legislative Council at request of committee, re Art. 3: 56-57 (State cannot pass local laws except: [long list called laundry list])

Freeman emphasized that CRC provision would provide for judicial determination of whether a general law can be made applicable to local situation. Stated that problem of "bracket laws" will be same in his opinion. Would every local law have to go to court to be effected? No, history doesn't show this. Should language "local & special" be changed? No, tends to think not.

- Bill Pateman, Jackson - relative to Article XVI, Section 11 of 1876 Constitution.

Believes this section should be kept in new constitution as there is fear that such authority might be delegated to some administrative agency in the future and lead to loss of limitation on interest rates.

Ron Clower - Dallas - Introduced proposal that legislature also have power to grant reprieves, commutations, pardons, remission of fines & forfeitures.

It was pointed out by Maloney that this would interfere with Separation of Powers and infringe upon the powers of the Executive.

each house.

And Rep. Richard Reynolds of Richardson suggested that the legislature convene itself in special session only with a four-fifths vote of the membership of each house.

He criticized Coleman's "simple majority" requirement, saying it would "lead to nothing but chaos."

The committee also heard from former Meridian Sen. J.P. Word, now an Austin attorney.

He urged them to leave the power of calling special sessions solely in the hands of the governor, where it is now.

"If the legislature is given the authority to call itself into special session . . . I think you'll be in continual session," Word said.

He also urged a provision to allow the legislature to fix its own salaries, and not to establish a salary commission to set pay limits.

Rep. Hilary Doran of Del Rio, who is not seeking re-election, took the opposite tack. He wanted legislative salaries fixed in the constitution — at $14,000 annually (they are presently $4,800 a year).

To "sell" the higher salary to voters, he recommended cutting the size of the House to 100 members from the present 150.

The committee also heard a variety of proposals on session length — proposals that indicate many delegates favor annual sessions.

Even Sen. W.T. Moore of Bryan said, though he "personally" didn't like annual sessions because he didn't like to come to Austin, he could accept a regular session in even-numbered years of 140 days in length, and a brief budget session in odd-numbered years of 30 to 60 days.

Several proposals would have set up annual sessions, varying mostly in details of length and topics that could be considered.

The most detailed was from Rep. Bob Davis of Dallas. He would provide for a 10-day organizational session in January of each even-numbered year, then a two-month recess followed by a 140-day session.

In odd-numbered years, he proposed the legislature meet to consider fiscal matters, legislation submitted by the goevernor and bills submitted by standing legislative committees. —RICK FISH

Legislative

Variations on the theme of legislative sessions were presented by convention delegates to their colleagues on the Legislative Committee Tuesday.

Several ideas dealt with special sessions. Rep. Ron Coleman of El Paso told committee members that he is proposing that a simple majority of members of each house be able to call themselves into special session.

Rep. Carl Parker of Port Arthur and Sen. Ron Clower of Garland both wanted to allow legislature-called special sessions on petition of two-thirds of the members of Rep. Hilary Dean of St. Ric - wanted legislative salaries fixed @ $4,000 annually + compensated by reducing size of House to 100 members. Feasibility of fixing any explicit salary figures in the constitution questioned by Rep. of San Antonio.

Rep. Bob Davis read his proposal for annual sessions #41. Each year to convene 2nd Tuesday in March - Odd numbered years not to exceed 140 days. Even numbered years not to exceed 90 days with limited considerations (1) Budgets, appropriations, + revenue bills (2) Bills raised by standing committees - other House (3) emergency matter submitted by Governor. An additional 10 days to convene 2nd Tuesday in January after their election for organization session elect its officers & standing committees but transmit no business.

Rep. Ron Clower - Dallas - submitted proposal of 226 granting right of legislature to call self into special session upon a petition signed by 2/3 members each house, acting separately. This in addition to authority of Governor and note the substitute for that authority.

OBSERVER COMMENTS

Mr. Wykoff - City Attorney, Port Arthur, Texas
Relative to Article III Section 12 C.C.R. Document
Article IX - Section 36 - 1976 Constitution language

Requested that more specific terms be used relative to the "Legislature making no laws pertaining to city government or make assessments of city government or monetary expenditures without providing monies needed to implement the law."

Interview by request of Committee
Mr. Fullmer - Legal staff Texas Legislative Council
Committee seeking possible interpretations of Section 12.
Seems to be unresolved doubts relative to same articles & general terminology of statement.

- Alternatives recommended:
- 1) Prohibit special or local laws except where general not applicable.
 - 2) Delete from Constitution
 - 3) Qualify - sections which prohibit certain types by classification.
- No conclusions discussed.

Final witness - Dewitt Hale - Nueces County Representative

- 1) Concern regarding Section 9 - Not inclusive enough. Stated he thought legislative section could not be written in general terms but must be more detailed!!
- 2) Asked for requirement of public notice required & enforced for local and/or special bills.

- 3) Asked that local bills designated by name rather than nebulous population bracket description, which can change & hence law illegal & not applicable.
- 4) State that no General Law may be amended to become a local bill.

Observer Comment: Attitudes of all witnesses & Committee was one of supply relative to general terminology. They are looking themselves to explore with specific detail - Restrictive?

- Delegate Reynolds: feels delegates + especially committees should be using old const. as amended as the working doc. not the CRC proposal
- he has submitted Proposal (S-4) which is an entire doc. prepared by Texas Admin. Comm. on Intergovernmental Relations. It simplifies old const. - rewords it + reorganizes it (cuts out 35,000 words) There is no substantive change from old const.
 - Under questioning he admitted he would not endorse whole doc. + would like to see the following changes:
 - 140 day session every other year + a 60 day session on the off years
 - no law should be passed by leg which would req. funds to be spent by ~~the~~ pol. sub. unless the political subdivision agrees
 - special session - 4/5 vote of leg. could call them selves into session (over)

Reynolds continued:

- he feels Jud. comm. will throw out most of CRC doc.

- ~~taxpayers~~ taxpayers want more voice - not more taxes as evidenced by last vote on raises + annual sessions.
- likes Bill of Rights
- he thinks people don't want professional law makers - he says career politicians should be in executive dept. + should be paid well - but legislators should be "just people" part time leg., and their salaries not raised above present amount
- he thinks leg. body should provide "balance of power" and says they can do this by meeting once every 10 years!!!

I assume you know what else he said - the important thing is that although the committee generally was unimpressed by him they were not hostile in questioning him.

In questioning Davis said he felt the leg. has an obligation to check on the Executive for the proper execution of law - Davis doesn't want full-time sessions

Says Texas needs new const. but don't jeopardize it by including salary commission as the people have spoken - no raises + no annual sessions

He wants old pay scale set in new const.

He was questioned on this + several other points but doesn't seem to have studied other matters carefully + was hesitant to commit himself to anything else.

Next was

Citizen Steven Camp - 18 yr. old

- says if 18 yr. olds are legal adults + have the right to vote they should be able to run for Rep. He would set figures for Senators at 21 as he thinks the public wants an age diff. here + would accept this.

★ - they want plenty of ^{public} notice when the leg. is considering the passage of local or special leg. - everyone involved should be notified & the over

OBSERVER COMMENTS:

McManigal was questioned by Donaldson on how his membership had arrived at their positions - perhaps LWV should give brief statement to each committee on how we arrive at our position during their testimony

Legislators in & out constantly again & often inattentive - No more than 10 are constantly present and attentive over

They feel the leg. should provide money

In other Words:

Local Gov. shouldn't be put in the position of having to raise funds to meet an

STATEMENT BY MIKE McMANIGAL, ASSISTANT TO THE PRESIDENT
TEXAS FARMERS UNION
BEFORE THE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE
TEXAS CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION, 1974

Mr. Chairman and Members of the Legislative Committee, my name is Mike McManigal; I am Assistant to the President of Texas Farmers Union. Our membership is composed of commercial family farmers who are concerned with the quality of future legislative bodies.

With the quality and professionalism of future legislators uppermost in our minds, we have the following recommendations which we think would contribute most effectively to future problem-solving legislative sessions. We recommend annual sessions of the legislature, as well as higher legislative pay. We feel that more pay is necessary if we are to continue getting the caliber of legislators necessary to do the job effectively.

Our members are also in favor of single-member legislative districts. We feel that the representative should be directly responsible to a certain constituency and that through this responsibility we will have more effective government.

Our members strongly feel that future legislative bodies should have the authority to call themselves into special session by two-thirds vote of the members of each House. Had we had this authority, the 63rd Legislature would have already convened twice this year, once to face the critical energy crisis and attempt a solution before the problem got out of hand and to consider the deteriorating condition of our school finance program. We feel that no longer can the State with its complex problems afford to rely strictly upon the judgment of any single individual to call the legislature into session.

Our members would like to see all meetings for government business continue to be open to the public and they are agreeable to reducing the minimum age qualification for senators to twenty-five years and for representatives to eighteen years in light of the right to vote of eighteen-year-olds.

We think the Lieutenant Governor's power to debate or vote should be exercised only in the case of a tie.

Our members do not believe that it is in the best interest of the people of this state to increase the Senate membership above thirty-one nor the House membership above one hundred fifty-five

We strongly favor providing constitutional guarantees for initiative referendum recall processes to the voters of this State.

We think this was a serious deficiency in the Constitutional Commission recommendation.

Our members strongly favor giving future legislatures the authority to tax alternative sources of revenue for State funding such as a corporate profits and a natural resources tax. It is our feeling that the State Sales Tax has brought in about all the revenue that it should and that alternatives should now be sought.

Our members do not feel that future legislative bodies should require increases in local government expenditures unless supplemental appropriations to those local government bodies are provided to cover the required expenditures.

Rep. ~~Mc~~ Temple - spoke for initiative & referendum for not passed by leg. then presented to voters
