Col E.W.Taylor:

Commander R E Lee Camp Fort Worth Texas:

Your committee is called upon to chronicle the demise of another of our comrades - Reuben Baskin - which occurred on the 26th day of June 1906 at the residence of his son, John Baskin, in North Fort Worth, in the 81st year of his age, full of honors as a useful citizen as well as of years.

He was born in the state of Georgia but at seven years of age his parents removed with him to the state of Mississippi, Carroll county, where he was reared and the second year of the war between the states he enlisted in Col Dick Pinson's regiment of Confederate cavalry and served under the great cavalry leader Gen Bedford Forrest till the end in 1865, and surrendered with him at ^{Gainesville} Selma Alabama in May 1865.

In 1878 he moved with his family to Texas and for years followed the vocation of farming in the Northern portion of Tarrant County, near Dido, ^{as to his mortal remains} where he rests with his devoted wife, who preceded him to the better land a few years ago.

A few years past he moved with his life companion to this city to live with their children ^t Albert and John - till summoned on high to serve as soldiers of the cross in the service of the Master, Christ.

Therefore resolved

That we mourn the loss of a true ^t tried friend in the departure of our comrade, Reuben Baskin, and we tender to the bereaved family our sincere condolence in their sore bereavement.

Commander R E Lee Camp Fort Worth Texas:

Your committee is called upon to chronicle the demise of another of our comrades - Remond Baskin - which occurred on the 26th day of June 1906 at the residence of his son, John Baskin, in North Fort Worth. In the 31st year of his age, full of honors as a useful citizen as well as of years. He was born in the state of Georgia but at seven years of age his parents removed with him to the state of Mississippi, Carroll County, where he was reared and the second year of the war between the states he enlisted in Col Jack Pinson's regiment of Confederate cavalry and served under the great cavalry leader Gen Bedford Forrest till the end in 1865 and emigrated with him to Texas in May 1865.

In 1878 he moved with his family to Texas and for years followed the vocation of farming in the Northern portion of Tarrant County, near Bird, where he resided with his devoted wife, who preceded him to the better land a few years ago.

A few years past he moved with his wife and children to this city to live with their children - Albert and John - till summoned on high to serve as soldiers of the cross in the service of the Master.

Christ. Therefore respectfully

That we mourn the loss of a true friend and in the departure of our comrade, Remond Baskin, and we tender to the bereaved family our sincere condolences in their sore bereavement.
