Mr Joseph Miller,

Dear Sir: -

In reply to your letter asking about the old family bible of Mr Hampton, I would say that my mother thinks it was given to Oliver Hampton.

I send you some leaves taken from a small bible of Mr Hampton's which gives his immediate family record, also an obituary notice which my mother would like to have again. She had written down some time in the past recollections of things told her by Mr Hampton and Mrs Malinda Rice relative to the early history of the Hampton family and had given it to "Belly" Hampton, but she thinks ~~it was~~ misplaced or lost. You could write him in regard to it.

With kind regards to yourself and family.

Yours Truly
Mary Mason

Mrs Shepard is here, has been for better than a week, goes home to day, but is coming back in a week, to stay all summer. She sends her love to you, says she wants to be here when you come down. She is as lovely as ever.
Says she is glad I am going to stay here this summer, for she must have some person to cut up with. She is a great old woman.

Mrs Ridenbarr is in from the West

I have not seen her yet. She is a strong libel. Says Mr Baldwin lost all of his horses & mine all together.

Bayl says he will not ask me to stay here longer than September. He is going west in June. to ~~hunt~~ hunt (him) a home. I think he is bound for Indiana. I say not a word as I am bound for the West, Sink or swim.

But I think I have been sunk long enough, to learn to swim, if I can have a little more strength and that I am gaining, so look out.

I cannot tell anything about going to the City until I hear from David. Tell him that Frank will be down the first of next week, and then I will visit him.

I can find enough news that will interest her, I will write her, give her my love, and tell her to keep cool.

Tell Sally I will write to her by and by. I will look for a letter from Guter soon, give them my love and tell them we will expect them this summer.

I must come to a close, and write a few lines to Mrs Ellis, about her folks. I met John's wife and she gave me the news of the family.
I shall expect to hear from you soon.
Oh you want to go to the City when I do
