

R. E. Lee Camp , U. C. V. # 158

Fort Worth, Texas. June 9th, 1918.

S. M. Kimball an honored member of this Camp has finished his course, has laid down his arms to retake them no more. He has gone from us and is now at rest in that Home above where no trials, troubles nor privations can enter in. He is dead to all earthly woes and pleasures. Our loss is his gain and may we who survive him prove faithful to the memory of our departed comrade.

He was born seventy-three years ago in Butler County, Alabama. He joined Company I 8th Louisiana Cavalry in Winn Parish Louisiana in 1862. His command composed a portion of Green's Brigade and he served faithfully till the furling of the Stars and Bars at Nacatoches, La. in the spring of 1865.

He was engaged in the battles of Mansfield, Pleasant Hill, Yellow Bayou and many other minor engagements. He lived in Texas and conducted himself as becometh a good citizen. He raised a large family to do the work that he has left undone and to them and his many friends we offer this tribute to the memory of our departed comrade.

RESOLVED - that in the death of comrade S. M. Kimball this Camp loses a devoted and consistent member and society a useful citizen; and to the surviving members of his family we offer our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in the hour of their bereavement.

Wm E. Kim
Wm P. Holland
John H. Smith

R. E. Lee Camp, U. S. V. # 158
Fort Worth, Texas. June 24, 1918.

S. M. Kimball an honored member of this Camp has finished his course, has laid down his arms to retake them no more. He has gone from us and is now at rest in that Home above where no trials, troubles nor privations can enter in. He is dead to all earthly woes and pleasures. Our loss is his gain and may we who survive him prove faithful to the memory of our departed comrade.

He was born seventy-three years ago in Butler County, Alabama. He joined Company I 8th Louisiana Cavalry in Winn Parish Louisiana in 1862. His command composed a portion of Green's Brigade and he served faithfully till the falling of the Stars and Bars at Nacatoches, La. in the spring of 1865.

He was engaged in the battles of Mansfield, Pleasant Hill, Yellow Bayou and many other minor engagements. He lived in Texas and continued himself as before a good citizen. He was on a large family to do the work that he has left undone and to them and his many friends we offer this tribute to the memory of our departed comrade.

RESOLVED - that in the death of comrade S. M. Kimball this Camp loses a devoted and consistent member and society a useful citizen; and to the surviving members of his family we offer our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in the hour of their bereavement.

Wm. E. Lee
Wm. D. Johnson
John A. Smith