Reference is made to your claim for detention benefits under the provisions of the Act of Congress approved December 2, 1942, as amended.

The law has been further amended by Public Law 650, 79th Congress, approved August 7, 1946, to permit payment of detention benefits retroactive to January 1, 1942, or the date of capture, on the basis of 100 per centum of your average monthly wage, as determined under Section 101 (b) (1) of the Act of December 2, 1942, as amended.

Under the amendment you are entitled to receive additional compensation for detention in the sum of $1,504.08. A payment in this amount has been certified to the U. S. Treasury Department and you should receive your check within two weeks.

Very truly yours,
