MATADOR SONG

*Fight, MATADORS, for Tech.
Songs of love we sing to thee,
Bear our banners far and wide,
Ever to be our pride.*

*Fearless champions always be,
Stand on heights of victory;
Strive for honor evermore—
Long live the MATADORS.*

Haskell Indians

The Haskell Indians of Lawrence, Kansas, are invading Texas for the only time during the current season. Captain Louis (Little Rabbit) Weller of All-American Fame, will lead his band of warriors against the Texas Tech Matadors for the first time in the history of the two schools.

The Indians have lost one game to Washburn College and have won one game so far this season, when they defeated the strong University of Kansas Jayhawkers.

Walter Johnson, of the Ute tribe, from Carson City, Nevada, ran through the Jayhawk line for the lone touchdown of the game.

Although the Indians and Matadors are meeting for the first time, it is hoped that in the future these two teams may make an annual classic of this intersectional game.

TEXANS LET'S TALK TEXAS

"Texans, Let's Talk Texas!" is an urge addressed to all Texans. The Texas Power & Light Company is doing everything it can to make the Lone Star State a bigger and better place in which to live. But it is not a job for one company, for any single group of individuals. It is something which should have the united support of every Texan. "Texans, Let's Talk Texas!"
