"IF I COULD KNOW..."

By Lewis Burton, New York Journal-American

"Were I, in some coming engagement, called upon to make my final sacrifice, I would meet my last rendezvous in the sky with a heart less burdened—if . . . if I could know that someone would help to take special care of you, My Mother . . . or you, My Wife . . . or you, My Child, in those trying times that lie ahead."

Chattering Between Halves

By Bill Parker

James Ross Callahan, Texas Tech's great triple-threat left half-back from Wink, was certainly a surprised boy when he received notice to report to naval headquarters in Dallas immediately. Callahan gave up a $20.00-per day job in the New Mexico oil fields and tore out for Dallas, but he did find time to come by the Tech gymnasium and tell everybody "hello" and "good-bye".

You wonder why Callahan was surprised by the call; Well here is a few lines from a high naval officer to Callahan. Can't mention the writer's name but here's a paragraph from the letter:

"I have checked on your case, and unofficially the boys tell me that it will be six or eight months before we call you to active duty with the United States Naval Service."

Due to that one paragraph, Callahan had planned to play football this season for the Red Raiders but when he received the call he just smiled and said he was going to play football but against different kinds of opponents. Don't worry about Callahan, he was glad to be called and he will be a triple-threat star wherever the Navy places him.

Don Austin, who played three years of right halfback for the scarlet and black, was working in the same oil field with Callahan and got his notice to report to Dallas' navy division at the same minute Callahan got his. So they left Lubbock together, and here's a big hope that the former Tech backfield performers will go along together during the war. . .because that is their wish.

There's a couple of boys in scarlet and black uniforms tonight that you should keep your eyes on. Both are from Monument, New Mexico and they are Donald Earl Grove and Delbert Earl Cooper. About the middle of summer these two boys walked into the Tech gymnasium and asked for Coach Dell Morgan. Morgan lifted himself from his comfortable chair and explained he was Coach Morgan. Cooper and Grove grinned, stuck out their hands to Morgan and Grove said:

"Coach Morgan we have decided to play football at Tech this coming season. We just hitch-hiked over to hear what you thought about us playing here."

Morgan inquired of Donald Grove about his age, height and weight.

Grove said:

"I am 16-years-old, I am 6-feet, 5-inches. I weigh 195-pounds and can play tackle or end."

Turning to Cooper, Morgan inquired about about him. Cooper replied:

"I am 16-years-old. I am 6-feet, two-inches and weigh 186-pounds. I can play end or half-back."

Morgan looked at the boys a few minutes and said:

"Come on fellows I want to buy you both a lunch."

Now when Delicate Dell Morgan flatly buys anybody a lunch he must really believe in them like he does Cooper and Grove.

One of the most promising prospects is Ed Robertson of Post. Ed is another who just walked into the gymnasium and introduced himself to Morgan:

"I just graduated from Post High School and am ready to be a Red Raider", smiled Robertson."

Morgan smiled, grabbed Robertson's hand and said: "Robertson, I was wondering about you yesterday and was going to write you a letter about coming to Texas Tech."

Robertson eyes twinkled because he knew that Morgan had never heard of Ed Robertson, but it was O. K. with Morgan. He bought another lunch.

Texas Tech's next football battle will be at Oklahoma City on Taft field against the Oklahoma A. and M. Aggies. It will be played on Friday night, September 24th. If you desire to send the boys a telegram wishing them luck, they will be quartered at the Biltmore Hotel.

WALTER GAYE SCHLINKMAN-FULLBACK

This powerful running fullback, Walter Schlinkman of Dumas, Texas is being selected by North, South, East and West sports writers as of the higher among 1943 All-American prospects. Schlinkman led the Red Raiders in ground gained last season. This summer he has learned to be a kicker and passer while working out every day on the Texas Tech football field. Schlinkman hardly missed a day practicing all by his lonesome. Walter is in the Naval Reserve and may be called any time but until he is called he is going to be an All-American for the Red Raiders.

On Thursday, August 26th, the 1943 Texas Tech football outlook received a serious set-back when popular J. R. Callahan was called into naval Service. Callahan was planning on a banner year with his running, kicking and passing not to mention his great blocking. From a letter he received from a high navy official, he did not expect to be called for seven or eight months, but the navy decided they needed him in a hurry in mid-August and he resigned from a $20 a-day oil job to put on a uniform. He wore an ear to ear smile when he shook hands with Dell Morgan in a good-bye.

President Clifford Jones

Colonel Ralph Emerson Holmes of the Lubbock Army Air Field and President Clifford B. Jones of Texas Tech will be two fine football fans attending tonight's football battle. At a recent meeting with the athletic council, President Jones said: "Let us have football, it means so many good things for our college." And those at the meeting voted for football this year and Mr. Jones is very happy that the Red Raiders will run, pass and kick this year against some of the toughest and biggest named teams in the Southwest.

Here's wishing Colonel Holmes and President Jones a night of real football pleasure . . . and Tech's 16 and 17-year old kids have agreed to bear down for the two distinguished guests.

Playing Against -Mates Tonight

ROGER SMITH

Playing against the Texas Tech Red Raiders tonight will be something no wand unexpected to Rogers Smith, left halfback for the Lubbock Army Air School. Smith played freshmen and two years of varsity for the Red Raiders. He still has one year of eligibility with the Raiders and plans to return to Tech and play football with the Scarlet and Black when the war is over. Smith has been Little All-American and was one of the three best triple-threat left halfbacks in Texas Tech's football history. Take it easy on the Raiders tonight Rogers. We admit you are a great player, you don't have to prove it . . . no sir-ee.

Starting His Third Year --As Head Mentor

Box Ticket

Coach Delicate Dell Morgan is starting his third season as Head Mentor of the Red Raiders. Morgan's 1941 team won nine games, lost two and tied none. One of the defeats was 6 to 0 to Tulsa in the El Paso Bowl game. In 1942, Morgan's Red Raiders won four, lost five, tied one. Morgan has been coaching major college football for 17 years. He has coached at Quanah High School, Lubbock High school, was formerly with Texas Tech but resigned to accept a coaching job with Auburn, resigned from Auburn in 1940 to accept a job with Rice Institute at Houston. He resigned after one year at Rice to become Head Coach at Texas Tech. Here's a hope that Morgan's third year at Texas Tech will be the best of his career.

A message for you... from 1953

(Today, John Jones is just an average American, wrestling with all the doubts and worries and problems that beset every one of us right now. But let's skip ahead 10 years. Let's look at John Jones then—and listen to him . . .)

"SOMETIMES I feel so good it almost scares me.

"This house—I wouldn't swap a shingle off its roof for any other house on earth. This little valley, with the pond down in the hollow at the back, is the spot I like best in all the world.

"And they're mine. I own 'em. Nobody can take 'em away from me.

"I've got a little money coming in, regularly. Not much—but enough. And I tell you, when you can go to bed every night with nothing on your mind except the fun you're going to have tomorrow—that's as near Heaven as a man gets on this earth!

"It wasn't always so.

"Back in '43—that was our second year of war, when we were really getting into it—I needed cash. Taxes were tough, and then Ellen got sick. Like almost everybody else, I was buying War Bonds through the Payroll Plan—and I figured on cashing some of them in. But sick as she was, it was Ellen who talked me out of it.

"Don't do it, John!" she said. "Please don't! For the first time in our lives, we're really saving money. It's wonderful to know that every single payday we have more money put aside! John, if we can only keep up this saving, think what it can mean! Maybe someday you won't have to work. Maybe we can own a home. And oh, how good it would feel to know that we need never worry about money when we're old!"

"Well, even after she got better, I stayed away from the weekly poker game—quit dropping a little cash at the hot spots now and then—gave up some of the things a man feels he has a right to. We made clothes do—cut out fancy foods. We didn't have as much fun for a while but we paid our taxes and the doctor and—we didn't touch the War Bonds.

"We didn't touch the War Bonds then, or any other time. And I know this: The world wouldn't be such a swell place today if we had!"

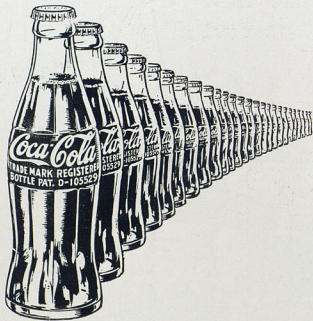

"Coach Morgan must've lost a lot more men in the draft than he lets on."

First Year As Assistant Coach With Raiders

Coach Robinson

Sitting on the Red Raiders bench tonight will be the good-looking Polk Robinson starting his first season as assistant football coach of the Red Raiders. Robinson is a former star football and basketball player for Texas Tech.

After several years of coaching here and there, he finally returned to Texas Tech's coaching staff. He serves as the varsity basketball coach and turned out a swell team last basketball season.

He Will Play Against --his Buddies Nov. 6th

BILLY B. HALE — CENTER

Billie B. Hale of Amarillo was Texas Tech's regular center during the 1942 football campaign. Instead of playing with the Red Raiders this season, Hale will top center for the Texas Christian Horned Frogs. Billy admits he is shivering from thinking about going against the Red on November 6th when Tech plays the Horned Frogs at Fort Worth. The Texas Tech boys plan to play Billie clean and hard but also plan to give him a lot of kidding during the game. Billy is in the naval training at Texas Christian. He was called into service several months ago. Hale was one of the most popular players to ever play on a Texas Tech team, popular with fans, coaches and players.
