

Resolutions of Condolence - July 15 - 1910.

Barnard E. Bee Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy adopts the following resolutions of condolence.

Whereas, God in his all-wise Providence has taken from earth to higher service the husband of our beloved friend and co-worker, Mrs. J. M. Gillespie, we, as members of Barnard E. Bee Chapter wish to express our appreciation of the noble Christian character of this honored soldier of the Confederacy, and the great loss we sustain in this departure.

Therefore, be it resolved; that while this blow comes to each of us as a personal grief, we know that our Heavenly Father doeth all things well and wisely, and to this will we humbly yield submission.

Second; That we extend to the grief-stricken family our deepest sympathy, and pray that the Great Comforter may cheer their hearts, now burdened with our by the assurance that their loved one has passed from the sorrows of earth and now rests under the shade of the eternal trees.

Third; That these resolutions be inscribed upon our minute book, and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

Resolutions of Condolence adopted by Barnard E. Bee Chapter N. D. C. March 6th 1912.

Whereas, an all wise Providence has removed from earthly labors to higher service our beloved friend, counsellor and Parliamentarian Mrs. Mary H. Manlove, we as members of Barnard E. Bee Chapter wish to express our appreciation of her noble Christian character, and the great loss we sustain in her departure; Therefore be it resolved: First; That while this blow comes to each of us as a personal grief, and our hearts are filled with anguish, yet we know that our Heavenly Father doeth all things wisely and well, and to His Will we humbly yield submission. Second; That we tenderly cherish her gracious memory and all the traits of her beautiful Christian character, none of which impressed us more forcibly than her love for and loyalty to the Confederate Cause. Where her sublimity of character was shown in her endeavor to discharge the sacred duty and debt of gratitude to our grand heroes, and to serve and honor the memory of those who laid down their lives for us upon the altar of our beloved Country in a most holy and righteous cause. Third; That we extend to her bereaved family our deepest sympathy, and pray that the Great Comforter may cheer their hearts now burdened with woe, by the assurance that their loved one has passed from the sorrows of earth and now rests under the shade of the Eternal trees. Fourth; That these resolutions be inscribed upon a page of our minute book and a copy sent to the sorrowing family.
