Forward and Lateral Passes . . .

COACH FRAZIER

Just tossing a few forward and lateral passes around . . . That little fellow coaching the Big Marquette aggregation is Paddy Driscoll . . . weighing all of 145 pounds in his varsity days, Paddy was captain and left halfback of Northwestern in 1914, the junior year . . . He's the little guy who once buckled up, swallowed and kicked a 45-yard field goal and scored a touchdown to defeat Chicago . . . the first time Northwestern had accomplished the trick in 15 years of rock'en, sock'en, leave'em there football . . . Paddy once played shortstop for the Chicago Cubs but, he heard that the Yankees were coming and resigned . . . Like Pete Cawthon and Russell "Dutch" Smith of our smearing Red Raiders, Driscoll is one of the few real colorful coaches left in the game. Paddy knows them all and rates Cawthon and Smith two of America's finest coaches . . .

. . . that Carl Siefert who is playing a lot of left tackle for Marquette likes green eyes . . . likes to fish . . . can't go women drivers like steak, but no fish . . . admires of Robert Young and Myrna Loy and is a triple-threat whiz at mathematics . . . maybe he goes for Myrna Loy because she has the prettiest pair of green eyes in the make-believe world . . . Fireman Bill Burke who plays a lot of right end for Marquette likes political science . . . goes for spaghetti in a big way . . . likes Ginger Rogers, Don Ameche, Bing Crosby . . . likes tennis . . . favorite magazine is—well, McCall's . . . But what Fireman Bill probably doesn't know is that Ginger Rogers doesn't like spaghetti . . . If you co-eds want a real hero then go for Raymond Apoleks, Marquette's center-guard, because he has officially saved 26 lives . . . yep, he's a life saver . . .

. . . and here's something that should appeal to "Bo" Williams Tech's genial athletic manager, who is fast becoming one of the most popular in the business. Harry Loryensnar, Marquette quarterback, trained on beer this summer . . . but wait a second, "Bo" . . . He loaded it on trucks at the brewery . . . The first syllable in Paul Fajjike's name rhymes with "Bo" . . . but you can see from the way he plays halfback that he's no flat-foot flounder . . . Did you know that Elmer Tarbox, the good-looking youngster who has scored 42 points this season for Tech, is a carbon copy of Gene Raymond . . . that is, the way Gene is when minus makeup and off-screen . . . There's always an unassuming hero on all winning football teams . . . we'd like to let the cat out of the bag and tell you it's Leonard Latch, tackle for the Raiders . . . He doesn't receive much black, bold-face type but you can't go wrong in giving him unlimited credit for much of Tech's sensational campaign.

. . . just don't forget that Dec. 3 the Red Raiders will battle a very powerful Centenary College team here . . . Coach Curtis Parker has his big Shreveport Jugernaut rolling after a slow start . . . If there's one single team in these United States that Centenary desires to beat just a wee bit more than anyone else it is Texas Tech's Red Raiders . . . And that's the real McCoy on how the Louisiana Gentlemen feel about the scourge of the South Plains . . .

. . . Donald Vosherg, Marquette left end, likes roast beef but hates pork . . . he has a lot in common with Captain Frank Gaskin who it comes to that it business . . . Orchids for the boys . . . last week goes to big, likeable Elbert Overton of Texas Tech who made the great block that allowed Jodie Marek to run 83-yards for a touchdown against New Mexico . . . stand up and take a bow, Overton, you deserve the applause . . .

. . . this is the first time Marquette has played in Texas since the Golden Avalanche participated in the Cotton Bowl two years ago . . . Texas Tech is proud to have the privilege of playing Marquette . . . and Texas Tech is proud of the support football fans of West Texas are giving the college . . . and Texas Tech wishes to thank each and every person in this stadium for attending today's game and helping make "West Texas Day" a success . . . the Executive Committee at Texas Tech, the Athletic Council, the Football team, and the entire Student body wants you to know that your friendship and support is sincerely appreciated.

Centenary vs. Texas Tech—Lubbock, Dec. 3

Tech Football Stars of the '20's

Remember When...

... "Handsome" Ransome Walker was famous throughout the South for his wonderful football record with the Texas Tech Matadors? ... when every game in which he played was made more spectacular and much more thrilling because of his sensational long runs and his all around football prowess?

He was a star of stars ... the type you see in the movies and read about in stories ... he was "much man" and a favorite of all who saw him ... (especially was he a favorite of the ladies ... for he was such a "handsome brute").

Walker received one of the greatest honors to be given a football player ... he was invited to play in the East-West game held in San Francisco ... naturally he played for the West and shared honors with the outstanding men of the game.

Walker was a rare combination ... he was BIG ... yet he was extremely fast ... he was a shifty runner one moment and a graceful, swift runner the next ... and all that combined with being a natural born football thinker made him greatly appreciated by Tech fans and respected and feared by all opponents ... We'll never forget him.

OUR HERO...

JODIE MAREK

Here's your campus hero... Jodie Marek, 185-pounds of hard running and accurate kicking fullback from Temple who saved the day last Saturday when he paced the Red Raiders to a 17 to 7 verdict over New Mexico. Marek firmly and definitely established himself as one of Texas Tech's "great history players" when he booted a 23-yard field goal against New Mexico to break a 7-7 deadlock with only 31 seconds left to play. After putting Tech ahead, 10 to 7, Jodie intercepted a pass and behind the great blocking of Elbert Overton, raced 83-yards for a touchdown. Don't wait until he is one of the "old grads" before applauding Jodie... give him orchids today as he runs and plunges against a great Marquette team.

COACHES GENTLEMEN

When Centenary College broke into the national football spotlight it boasted two of the finest coaches in the country in Homer Norton and Curtis Parker. Several years ago, Norton resigned from Centenary and accepted the head coaching position at Texas A. and M. College. Norton made tempting offers to Parker to become assistant coach at Aggie land, but Parker decided to remain at Centenary as head coach. Since that time Parker has established himself as one of the country's better football mentors and boasts a high winning average at Centenary.

Parker and his steam-rolling Centenary College Gentlemen from Shreveport, La., will be here to play Texas Tech on December 3. It will be one of the greatest games on Tech's 1938 schedule.
