Return to Cobb

The camp then adopted the following resolutions presented by a committee composed of ~~the following~~ Comrades McConnell, Goodman and Cummings:

~~Return to Cobb~~

Mrs J. D. Brim wife of our Comrade J. J. Brim died at the home of her Sister Mrs. Hayes in the City of Dallas on the morning of the 20th inst. She was born at Yorkville S.C. in the year 1849 and came to Texas with her sister in 1885 and was married to our Comrade in April 1887. She was a bright and intelligent lady of refinement and culture, a consistent member of the First Presbyterian Church of this city and affectionately devoted to the people of her native Southland.

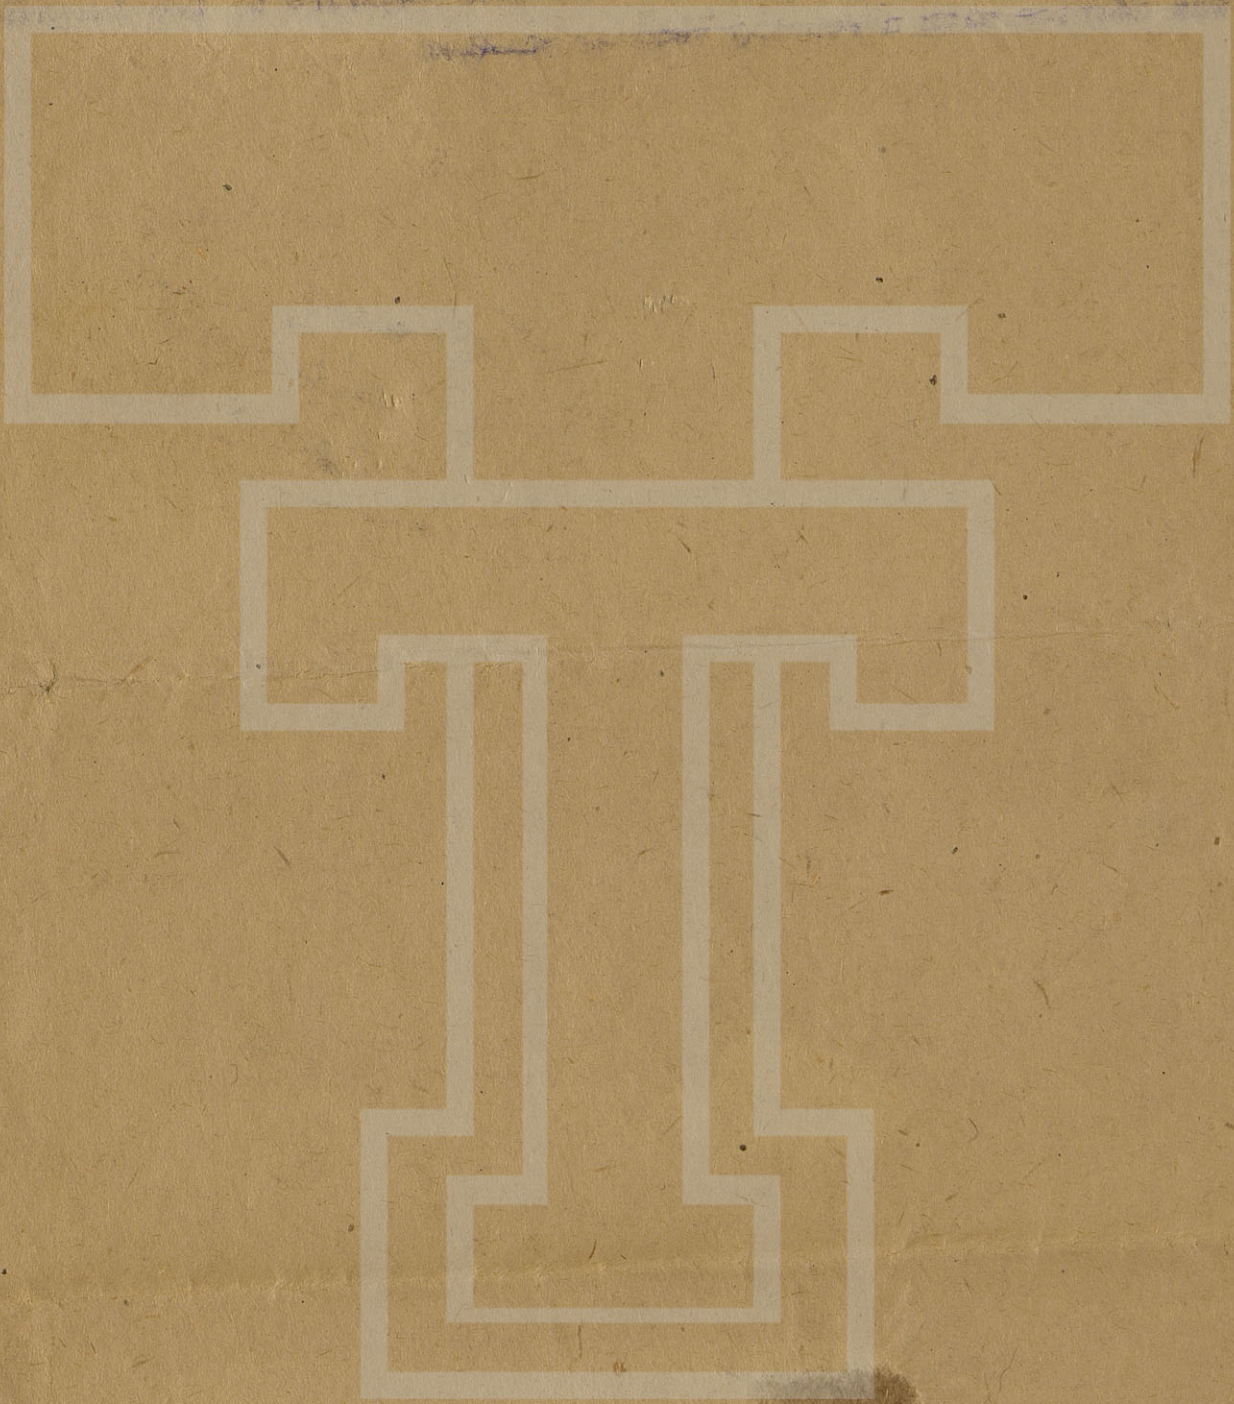

She was also a member of Julia Jackson Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy but rarely ever attended its meetings or her church because of her ill health but she was at all times earnestly devoted to both.

Therefore be it Resolved by this Camp in deeply sympathetic with our Comrade in this sad bereavement and hereby direct that the above Memorial and this Resolution be spread upon our minutes and that the daily papers be requested to publish the same.

~~Wm. J. Brim~~

~~C. Cummings~~

The camp then adopted the following resolutions presented by a committee composed of ~~James~~ ~~Connelley~~, ~~Seaborn~~ and ~~Quinn~~.

Two committees were appointed to prepare suitable resolutions of the death of General Moorman and Comrade J. W. Sharp. Comrades Sellers, Pankey and Richardson were named the ^{latter} committee and Comrades VanZandt, Beckham and Paddock the former. These reports will be submitted at next Sunday's meeting.

The following resolution from the Daughters of the Confederacy was adopted with a rousing vote of thanks:
