

Hamden May. 6, 1857.

My Dear Mother:

I arrived safe to Hamden station and most all the boys to. To day is Wednesday, us boys unpacked our trunks to day. My paper and all my things I ~~liked~~, but you did ^{not} ~~not~~ send me any lead pencils I wish you would send me some if you can but if you cannot
I will buy some here. I cannot think of anything more but to ask if every body are well at home.
Please answer this letter soon so ~~God~~ good by all at home.

Your affectionate son

A. T. Weld

London May 6. 1852.

My dear mother:

I arrived safely at London station and met all the boys. The day is Wednesday and they unpacked our trunks to day. My father and all my friends are here but you did not come. I wish you would send me some if you can but if you cannot
 I will buy some here. I cannot think of anything more but to eat if every body are well at home please write soon to let me hear of all at home.
 Your affectionate son
 J. Smith.

®

®