My Dear Julia

Because
this mornk. Auty & I did it, I went in my room for something. I found him at the table, he said he was waiting.
he is into everything,
when he hears us coming he will run under the bed or behind a chair, when he gets enough of anything, he will say no good, no good, he is cute alright.

Auty gave Mrs Duncan and I a trip to Gause last Tuesday. They had a

Said whenever there, it was exhibits from many countries. I never saw as many beautiful flowers and lovely fruit of all kinds. They had a large hill of prunes, and on top of it was an elephant made of prunes with uncle Sam's hat in his hands. They had rabbits of all colors imaginable they were beauties, they raise them for fur.
We spent a very enjoyable day.

I called up Kamma-J
and talked to her, she said she was going to have her mother and me to go over and make her a visit. I knowed will enjoy it.

I called up Mrs. M^{rs} Kins but no one answered.

Mrs. Benton, Eva and the children were to see me last Sunday Eva is so large, Mrs. B looks the same.

Mr. & Mrs. M^{rs} Kins were to see us last night, they are Sambo's folks, she was a Kirkpatrick that lived in Cherokee, they moved to S. C. after we left there, they have two girls 4 & 5 years old they are as much alike as two black-eyed peas.

I wonder if you passed your examination, how I hate to see you go out into the world to make a living, not telling where you will go. I wish we had a little home. said for and you would be willing to share my bit with me. and not have to go out to work.

By the way, dont you have to pay that note off for your. Palace in Jan?
What are you going to do about it?

Your note me he went by to see you and Vada A letter from. Toller yesterday said they were going to move the next day. she said they had had the days of the worst sand-storms she ever saw, she was disgusted.

The climate is Heavenly out here now.
Therese helped me wash
my head yesterday and we washed my bed
spread this morning
it was full of Stamford dust.

I sleep so good. and have such an appetite. My wants I to buy every thing I like. he has a bad cold I bathed his feet in hot mustard water he said it reminded him of his boyhood days next morning he said he was almost well.

I have not heard from L. J. since he returned from Dallas. He wrote me a card while there and said his exhibit was as pretty as anywhere Tab helped him arrange it. He enjoyed being with the family.

A letter from another said she was as well as usual B. was not well, neither was sister Laura. She thought sister L. was grieving herself to death over Wood's, none of the family ever mentions him.

I must close and write to mother.

Monice joins me in love to you and Yada.

Loveingly Maria.
