

OFFICIAL JOURNAL
of the
CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION
of the
STATE OF TEXAS

---

TWENTY-SIXTH DAY
(February 22, 1974)

The Convention met at 9:00 o'clock a.m., pursuant to recess, and was called to order by the President.

The roll was called and the following were recorded present: 156 Present, 10 Absent-excused, 15 Absent. (Record 1, Appendix)

Reverend Harold G. Zink, Rector, St. Mary's Cathedral, Austin, Texas, offered the invocation as follows:

O Almighty Father, again we beseech You for divine guidance in the deliberations with which we are faced this day. As President Dwight Eisenhower once said, "To be a good American is the most important job that will ever confront you." It is our task to help our fellow Texans be better citizens of our country by making such decisions that will help them be good members of their own community. O Almighty Father, direct our judgments to this end. When we disagree, may we do so amicably and sympathetically, so that each day's session may result in a little better job than that which preceded it. May we always be mindful of the common good which we are pledged to uphold. May the rights of the fellow members of this state be uppermost in our minds as we remain aware of the dignity that those rights guarantee. May, then, the dignity as well as the rights of our fellow Texans guide our deliberations, so that by helping others to be good Texans we may likewise help them to be good Americans—all of which we ask for in the Spirit. Amen.

ARTICLE VII ON SECOND READING

The President laid before the Convention as unfinished business Article VII, Section 8.

Question: Shall Article VII be adopted?

Delegate Pentony offered the following amendment to Article VII, Section 8:

Amend Section 8 of Article VII to read as follows:

Sec. 8. PERMANENT UNIVERSITY FUND, ITS ADMINISTRATION, ITS INVESTMENTS: AVAILABLE UNIVERSITY FUND AND ITS EXPENDITURE. (a) The Permanent University Fund consists of the two million acres of land set apart and appropriated for the establishment and maintenance of the University of Texas by the Constitution of 1876 and the Legislative Act of April 10, 1883, together with the proceeds of the sale of such land, including the sale of oil, gas, and other minerals from such land, and the securities and other assets purchased with the proceeds. All proceeds shall be invested, and only the income from the Permanent University Fund may be appropriated and expended.

(b) The Permanent University Fund shall be held in trust for the people of Texas and for the use of higher education. In pursuance of such trust, the Coordinating Board shall have authority to sell, lease, exchange and otherwise manage the assets of the fund as provided by law.

(c) The Coordinating Board may invest the Permanent University Fund in securities, bonds, or other obligations issued, insured, or guaranteed in any manner by the United States government, or any of its agencies, in bonds issued by the State of Texas or any political subdivision thereof, and in such bonds, debentures, obligations, preferred stocks, or common stocks issued by corporations, associations, or other institutions as the Coordinating Board may deem to be proper investments for the Permanent University Fund. However, not more than one percent of the fund shall be invested in the securities of any one corporation nor shall more than five percent of the voting stock of any one corporation be owned by the fund.

February 22, 1974

Stock is not eligible for purchase unless it is issued by a company incorporated in the United States which has paid dividends on its common stock, or whose predecessor companies have paid dividends on their common stock, for at least five years preceding the date of purchase and, except for stock issued by a bank or stock issued by an insurance company with capital and surplus of not less than the Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000) and admitted assets of not less than Fifty Million Dollars ($50,000,000), is listed on an exchange registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or its successors. In making each and all investments, the Coordinating Board shall exercise the judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing that men of ordinary prudence, discretion, and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs, not in regard to speculation, but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds, considering the probable income therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital. The Coordinating Board shall make full disclosure of all investments as provided by law.

(d) The net income (that is, dividends, interest, and other income less administrative expense) of the Permanent University Fund, exclusive of net income attributable to grazing leases of Permanent University Fund land, shall constitute the Available University Fund.

The amendment was read.
