D. 1900 after date, for value received, I promise to pay to the order of The Stamford Town Site Company, at the office of the treasurer of said Company in the City of New York, One Hundred Eighty Three ³³/₁₀₀ DOLLARS, with interest thereon from the 18 day of September A. D., 1900 at the rate of eight per cent. per annum, payable annually, and if interest be not paid when due, to become as principal and bear the same rate of interest; and if this note is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection after maturity, an additional ten per cent. on the amount to be collected shall be added for attorney's fees.

This note is given for a part of the purchase money for Lots numbered Thirteen (13) and Fourteen (14) in Block number Seventeen (17) of the town of Stamford, Jasper county, Texas.

and is secured by vendor's lien retained in deed of conveyance, of even date herewith, made executed and delivered by the said The Stamford Town Site Company to Ed. M. Hart conveying said property.

This is one of a series of Seven promissory notes given for a part of the purchase money for said property, and it is hereby, and in the said deed of conveyance, understood and agreed that if any one of the said promissory notes, or any instalment of interest on all or any of them, be not paid when due, then all of the said promissory notes shall immediately become due and payable, at the option of the holder thereof, and suit may be immediately commenced, at the option of the holder of the said promissory notes, to collect the same and to foreclose the said vendor's lien.
