Our own troops

A patrol of one officer and twenty men was organized to cross canal and river to leave at 20:00 o'clock and cross on bridge which was supposed to have been built by the French troops over our left. At 18:30 three men were sent into French sector to locate bridge and act as guide for patrol. They returned about 19:15 stating that they were unable to locate bridge. Four more men were sent out at 19:30 on the same mission.

177

They went down the canal as far as Montmarin Chapelle but were unsuccessful also. Returned about 21:00 clock.

General impression of the day.

During the night (17-18) increased activity of our own and enemy artillery movements - Visibility - Very poor fog and rain.

Work - Nothing to report.
