Leadville, Col., Feb 4th 1882

Dear Mother

Your letter of Jan 29th and 30th at hand by this A.M. mail - as regards any little gift for the table I don't approve of any outlay on your part especially as you are fixed - not that I would not be more than appreciated - but that I don't want you to deny yourselves to send me anything - we have every thing that is needed on the table except as you suggest a case Basket - and that I would indeed be very acceptable and no doubt a great satisfaction to Magg. you can get Dick to get one for you at cost - Anna would go over to N.Y. and select one with Dick I am sure he would when you send goods by ^{exp} find out about weights - as goods come in certain rate at certain weights - send by U.S go with her - no more expensive something neat & plain - it would match our castor and Butter dish - which were presents - by getting Dick to get it you could get one for $\frac{1}{2}$ as much as you would have to pay Retail - I see close $\$10.00$ which you can apply to payment of Repg Music Box etc I have Frank's address & will write him - I will not ^{have} to make extra exertions to keep my end up with my own Responsibility as well as look after you - which I shall not fail to do providing misfortune don't overtake me - we will not worry about that at least from the present outlook = No doubt you feel very strange over my marriage I shall not dwell on that but will hope to be the best with lots of love to all from Mag & myself Yours from Alfred
