

Resolutions on the death of comrade Maloney B. Sisk

W. T. Shaw commander R E Lee Camp Fort Worth

The spirit of ~~our~~ comrade Maloney B Sisk passed to a higher sphere last week ^{May 25/16}. His death was sudden and unexpected being ill but a short time. He enlisted at Newport Tennessee in co C 26 Tenn in infantry Browns brigade Breckenridges division Hardees corps army of Tennessee. Was in the battles of Murfreesboro and Chickama-uga. Was wounded at the latter place. Was wounded again at Marietta Georgia ^{which} ~~XXXXX~~ disabled him from active field service but was kept on duty in the hospital as nurse to the sick and wounded.

Shortly after the war comrade Sisk came with his father and family to Tarrant county where he married Mrs Cynthia Burdord daughter of Lem Edwards who yet survives him with a number of her children by him and a former husband to mourn his loss.
Comrade Sisk was a good citizen as well as a faithful soldier in war and being a constant attendant at our camp meetings his loss is keenly felt by us all.

~~XXXXX~~ Therefore Be it resolved that we deeply mourn the loss of our late comrade and extend to his friends and family our most heartfely sympathy

Resolutions on the death of comrade Sidney B. Sisk W. T. Shaw, commander of the Lee Camp, Fort Worth The spirit of our comrade Sidney B. Sisk passed to a higher sphere last week. His death was sudden and unexpected being ill but a short time. He enlisted at Newport, Tennessee in co. G 38 Tenn. in Tenth Army Brigade. Broader division, Hardee corps army of Tennessee. Was in the battles of Murfreesboro and Chickamauga as was wounded at the latter place. Was wounded again at Nashville which disabled him from active field service but was kept on duty in the hospital as nurse to the sick and wounded.
 Shortly after the war comrade Sisk came with his father and family to Tennessee where he married Mrs. Cynthia Birdsong daughter of Sam Edwards who yet survives him with a number of her children by him and a former husband to mourn his loss.
 Comrade Sisk was a good citizen as well as a faithful soldier
 in war and being a constant attendant at our camp meetings
 his loss is keenly felt by us all.
 Therefore we resolved that we deeply mourn the loss of our late comrade and extend to his friends and family our most heartfelt sympathy
