THE OLD DOWLIN MILL

One mile off Highway 70 at Ruidoso, New Mexico, is over 100 years old. The 20 ft. high wheel is still turned by water during the summer months and corn and wheat are ground on flint stones inside the building. "Kid", Pat Garrett and General Pershing were some of the more colorful visitors.

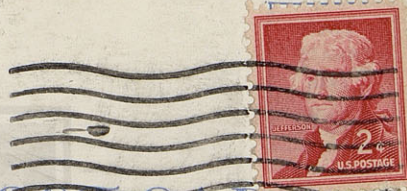

Dear Grandmother,
How are you.

You had some of our nice cool air.
We are having a delightful summer.
We will see
you soon.
Love
