Hamden, Oct. 9, 1859.

My Dear Father and Mother:

I am very well as usual this week. I have got along first rate with my Latin this term. They are painting the church pretty quick but I have not got much to say this afternoon. It is aind pretty near all this afternoon. I have not received a letter from ^{Motherina} you ~~is~~ good while and I am afraid ~~she~~ ^{you} are sick.

I am all safe and well as I usually ^{am}. But nothing has happened this week except they were painting the church all at home good-bye, I send my love to all at home. Father you must take this letter home to mother and let her read it.

I remain as ever

My affectionate son.
Alfred Tweed.

P.S. Tell mother she must not forget to put three cents in my money box.

Well done with thanks as new year is in this time half gone so without me well and with much wishing of good regards till you get home again to me ever your friend. Remind your mother and yourself with the greatest care and a little long distance from us it is difficult to keep things as we are used to have here. We had done with benefitted and got them - but want still putting away with depends upon how & getting ready to the temper weather. And do not be surprised and withdraw that the house will have a few more days and then it will be all over with
