Dear Miller; - Have you your old friend "Ritz" -

I have not forgotten you in these years that have been so eventful. I fought through the wars in the Philippines; & since have traveled twice round the world.

had a summer home in my country near Africa

I hear that you are doing well in your profession. Tell me all about your self.

I have often thought of you in my wanderings. and wondered whether you ever think of me

Can't you come South for a visit to me sometime soon I should like to tell you a few yards and have you read me some "Longfellow" & "Father - Ryan", as of yore.

My Dear Boy you must come down to see me sometime.

Your friend as of

Congratulations

I was very ill for some time after getting the Card announcing that glad event (to which I as a lonely bachelor now look forward to with sensible pleasure).

I have a battle lance used by the Filipinos in fighting us in ~~the~~ our recent war

It has been used in battle & was often wards presented to me by a great chiefton who after being conquered became my friend.

It is very dear to me & for that reason I wish to give it to you & the "little-girl" as a wedding gift. I coming at this late hour I hope you will see that it is not the customary tribute exact by wedding invitations; but rather the humble gift of one who loves you & hopes to love her; & wishes to be remembered in your happy little home. And some time when you two sit by your fire side just give me tender thought to the lonely bachelor who has been long a wanderer & has suffered many hardships but all the while been true to his old school-fellow.

Your old Friend "A. J."

Write me where you want my office is. I will not send it until I know. We have opened our law office over our bachelor's Dr. ~~house~~ ^{place} -
