Dear Aunt Maggie

Was glad to hear you found Jennie so well, in regard to her changing her present quarters. I have nothing to say, as I think the
as you do, I am more ~~than~~ than pleased with-
I am very pleasantly situated in the second floor fronting on the street, I think they are the best rooms in the house, I am beginning to feel more like myself and need only one thing to complete my contentment, - you can easily guess what that is; I expect however the cost of next month;

and then I shall be as the boys say O.K. Arthur gets along very well, he told Mamie E. he did not like little girls, & that was enough for her.
We are having lovely weather very cool nights - and morning. Am glad you enjoyed your visit to L. I know Jennie did. Mamie
I. is very stout. She does not look as if she had ever been sick. Willie is the same late Lanky boy. Aunt-Maggie I hope will pardon this stupid scrawl. But better writing I am M. G. Give me love and all, with love for self Yours lovingly

Mary Amelia

Dear Aunt - Maggie
It does seem as if the votes are against me. and that I am now to have the pleasure of making you a visit. I had intended to go to N. J. with - June next - Monday. But yesterday received a telegram from Anne telling me to come home. Of course I must go. I will be at the Fifth - Ave. Hotel Thursday afternoon as I dare say I have will leave for home Saturday. It is very cold and disagreeable here this morning. I hope I will be able to see you before I leave for N.C. Give love to one & all keeping a share for yourself. Lovingly yours

My dear Aunt Maggie
Many thanks for your kind and loving letter, which was received some few days ago. You say I have never written to you. It was not because I did not love you. But that I am not much of a letter writer. I shall always love you, both for Mamma's sake as well as my own, for you were always a true friend to her. Oh! Aunt Maggie I can not imagine how much I miss my baby. And every time I look at Grandma Armstrong who is now 83, I feel right-minded, for she has lived a life time, and is a care to every one. While my darling whose little ~~heart~~ ^{heart} ~~gave~~ ^{gave} ~~up~~ ^{up} should be taken. & she left Arthur I am happy to say keeps well, he misses ^{his} Charlie more than I thought he would.

I have not been at all well since Charlie's death. I cannot do all I can ^{keep} from crying for him, pray excuse this badly worded letter, I am not able to write this over, With love for Uncle R & E & A also Frank, and hoping a share for you all
Love with love
Mary

D.S.
Excuse all mistakes as I am writing in bed, and don't know much about what I am doing. Please write soon again
