N-784 WINTER IS A "TIME OF ENCHANTMENT" IN THE GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK

E-9463

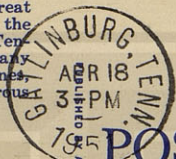

One of the greatest of nature's displays is the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, the largest national park in Eastern America. This park straddles the high ridge of the Great Smoky Mountains range which forms the boundary between North Carolina and Tennessee. Within its borders there are many mountain peaks over a mile high, deep ravines, precipitous cliffs, waterfalls and numerous mountain streams.

On a tour into the mountains to-day we found the trees white with frost.

*Looking forward

STREET SCENE, MATAMOROS, MEXICO.

Matamoros is located in the Eastern part of Mexico, in the state of Tamaulipas, and was the capital until it was moved to C. Victoria. Matamoros was founded about 1820 and was a very prosperous city for many years.

The buildings are all built of brick and are practically fire proof. It is a very typical city because it is built after ancient ideas, having strong doors and iron bars over the windows of the residences, which gives them the appearance of prisons. Spanish is generally spoken although a few inhabitants speak a little English.

Enfureciendo el Toro. Enfuriating the Bull.

After the Banderillas have been thrust into the bull, the toreros flaunt their capes and do everything they can to arouse the anger of the bull so as to get him in a position to enable the matador to strike him. The toreros occupy a very exciting position in the Bull Fight and oftentimes are taking chances of being gored by the infuriated animals.

This beautiful tribute of a nation to one of its departed heroes and patriots, Benito Juarez, was erected through popular subscriptions, amounting to 200,000 pesos, in the city which bears his name—Ciudad Juarez, Mexico. Sunday

My Dear Julia
I will begin this letter but I don't know that I will get to finish it.
Both the children are sick with cold, of course are cross. My W. has a very sore throat and his glands are swollen, so it keeps W. and I busy caring for them.
This is a beautiful day bath day just cool enough to be pleasant.
I had a hank of thread so I decided to try to Knit Vernon some socks. I got as far as turning the heel and stalled, but yesterday I studied the directions until I succeeded so I am now on the foot of one and the other one is ready to turn the heel. I happen to have two pairs of needles. I can almost knit a joy in a day of course I do not have much time to knit now. I want to knit him three pairs any way.

So you can tell him when you write I am knitting them.
Arthur wrote me he had plenty of room for me now. So when I went to Yead to be sure to stop with them. I think I will leave for Yey in March. A. P. said he thought he would have to go to Indiana, if he did he was going to stop and see you and Yada.
A letter from Mrs Benton yesterday wanted me to go to Oakland Thursday and spend several days with her.
Mrs. Bailey and Eva will be from horse. but I do not know that I can if the children get well, and Aunt does not have to go away I may go.

Was it not dreadful about that ship being wrecked, and the loss of all those dear boys? many of them were from Long.
Oh! it makes me sick to think of it.

Father is so pleased they way Alice is getting along. He says they have good times, and he is glad of it.

I wish you could see Betty she is such a dear. Learning to do smart things every day. We & I didn't to finish it. did it in a hurry.
Best love to you & Mada. Lovingly Mamma.

Friday

Dear Julia. I intended going to W. M. today, but Pitts came over Wednesday. and wanted me to stay and go back with her next Tuesday. So I did Anna is coming to W. M. next week to make a visit. We want to be there.
Wednesday at noon Malone was ordered to Douglas Arizona he left that night. he was.

any more to go. Ben will go to Hopt North's house for training.
A letter from R. # yesterday said he might be here Saturday or Sunday. I hope he will. I hope said he was coming Sunday if he could. Pitts will spend Thursday with us. R. # is anxious to see G.
They have not heard from Wood yet. My limbs are improving, but I have to be very careful in walking I hate up stairs. Prefer to be on the ground. I received your card. is Mrs R. - all with you? Lovingly. Mamma

Tuesday Night.

Dear Campbell & Julia:-

I owe each of you a letter, so I'm writing this to both of you, I've been writing so much lately about our old house, that I can't half write.

A. R. (Rudolph's son) and his wife stopped here Friday after-noon on their way to San Antonio, from Ft. Worth, where they had been to the Baptist Convention. They asked me to go to S. A. with them you know me, I'm always ready to go. they brought me back Sat. after-noon. When we got to Hunter. coming back, we took the old road and the Stringtown

Then we arrived at the old place, A.R. got out and took a picture of the old barn, its in a very delapidated condition. I guess we would be too, if we had been out in all kinds of weather for 2102 years, I hope they are good, I'd like to have one for my book, even though its not pretty, its near my heart. its the last <sup>thing</sup> of our old place that left.
Campbell, asked on his card if John Pitts, was my grand father, or great grand father, he is my great grand father.

We have no record of his birth or where, <sup>down</sup> we know he was Scotch, English and was a sea Captain. We dont know Jane Ingram's birth or her age. we know her father was a silk merchant of London England.

Her family disinherited her because she ran away and married beneath her, you know how the English are, she never heard from her family. They left London immediately after the ceremony on a sailing vessel.
After fourteen months, they landed at Charleston South Carolina. their first child John Drayton Pitts, was born on the Atlantic Ocean, and was one month old when they landed in America.

He is my grand father, my mother's father. He married Eliza Permellia Daves when he was 2 1/2 yrs old in Washington Co. Ga.

After two years John Pitts, wrote back to St. Dunstan's Church for a copy of their marriage license, we have a copy of the marriage certificate. so you see why I am so proud to have a picture of the church or what's left of it for my book.

John Pitts, gave up the sea when they landed and they ran a tavern in Charleston. When the British came into the town during the war of 1812, they took every thing they had, as my great grand mother, passed the dining table she put a silver tablespoon in her pocket.
This spoon has been handed down to the oldest child (English custom) for five generations, I have a picture of this spoon.

This family emigrated to Georgia. where they lived, we have no date of their deaths.

I hope this will help you get the Pitts family straight. John P. was your great, great grand father.

It's kind of you to say you will get the names of the streets around the church.

I pasted the sketch on ananilla paper and put it in my book.

Julia, I hope you are feeling better than when I last heard from you.

I want to correct one thing you wrote about what you remembered about visiting in Stringtown - you said 12 child ren lived to be grown, it was 13. Brother Sam, lived to be 21 yrs - you remembered a lot when you were young when you left and didn't make too many visits back.

Campbell, I hope you will get much relief at the Hot Springs, and soon be feeling your old self again.

Julia, perhaps you and Campbell, can together, write that poem for my book on the old Stringtown home.

I'm sure you are exhausted trying to read this scratching - so good night. With lots of love to you both Joe.

Dear Aunt Julia,

We have moved from the ranch to Gt. Falls, Montana to make a home for our Steve and his little 4 year old Daughter Janey Lynn. We are enjoying having all 5 of our grand children with us often. Jane's children are such lovely well mannered kiddies and our little Janey is a Doll. It is a mighty speedy life and so different from our slower, quieter life on ~~the~~ Spring Creek. We wonder if we can keep up with so much speed.

Bernice lives in Helena just 90 miles away so we are all nearer and enjoy being together more often...it was over 300 miles to Spring Creek...so leaving Spring Creek to be with our Dear Ones is worth while.

Steve has the franchise for Little Pigs in Montana...enclosed is a wrapper from a sandwich which tells the story. Do you have the Little Pigs in Texas? He is a very very busy man and really needs us to make a comfortable home for him.

Are you glad to have a Texan as President in the White House? Did you watch the T V and all the assassination and funeral? Don't we live in a miraculous age to be able to sit at home and see and hear all the news of the world!

Janey Lynn, Steve and Howard join me in love and best wishes to you and yours always lovingly

Mildred

Thanksgiving night

Dear Sister

Well I have had a mighty good time to day and last night, but am tired to night.

The 360th Inf officers gave a big dance last night. There were seven hundred people there. We danced until two this morning. Every body had a good time. And that made us feel good.

in its field just before the game.
There were a great many people out to see the game.

We play Wars the night of Dec. here.

Kathryn sent me a big cake and a candy box of assorted nuts all picked out and sold.

I got them today, and sure looked good to night we don't get any thing but what a Chinaman can cook and I do not like that.

And Abby sent you the letter.
She got a letter from Uncle Malone and he is going first.

I wrote to Ed and Lily and Bernard this week.

I'll go to bed now. Love you and Vada had a good time today.

Love of Love
Vanna

I took one of Benne's friends who was a good dancer.

I took dinner today at the Duggans. Ben was home from Ft Worth, gave back to Monna. They enjoyed having me so & let's go.

Except Francis played Kelly Field foot ball this evening, one of the biggest games played in the U.S. this year, and we won at 12-7. Just did not win in the last three minutes of play.
The referee dropped the balls

I got this <sup>March 24</sup> ready to send <sup>Apr 16</sup> and couldn't find the pressed flowers. just got them located 250 Broad Ave Dear Mrs. Hart, - <sup>Leonia, N.D.</sup> sorry to be so very late.

I never dreamed that it would be the last of November before I would get these things off to you. They are all from Belleau wood except the poppy seed which is from near Hill 108. I had no idea how lovely the poppies would be - the fields are just red with them. We visited the region of Chateau Thierry, Belleau Woods, Soissons and Rheims. The fields are pretty well under cultivation again and much rebuilding has been done, but there is enough left to give one a glimpse of the tragedy suffered and the "crosses row on row" should

I was very glad to hear from you after Christmas. I had thought these had been so certainly remind future generations that war is not all glamor and glory.

We, Selma and I and my Bergenfield room-mate, Anna McLarty, are living in the nicest apartment this year.
We are so happy and comfortable.
My piano is here from Maine and we have never been so "purring" in years. I have a new Ford to go to B. (where I still teach) and to the different schools and we take trips too.

I hope you and yours are well and happy. I'd love to hear from you. Now we are settled. I'll have a little more time. We had to buy all our furnishings after we got home - it kept us flying. Write soon With love
