Services Held for Mrs. Goodbar, 83

Funeral services for Mrs. Cora Jane Goodbar, 83, a lifetime resident of Mineral Wells, were held Thursday at 2 p.m. at the Southside Church of Christ. Interment was at Indian Creek Cemetery, under the direction of Baum - Carlock - Bumgardner Funeral Home.

Mrs. Goodbar died Tuesday at 8:40 p.m. at her home at 511 NW 1st Street.

She was born Nov. 26, 1889 in Jack County. She and James Alonzo Goodbar were married Dec. 21, 1896, in Mineral Wells. He preceded her in death in 1934.

Mrs. Goodbar, a member of the Southside Church of Christ, was chosen Mother of the Year for Palo Pinto County in 1959.

Survivors include five daughters, Miss Sibba Lee Goodbar, Mrs. Marie Harrington, Mrs. Ethel Halford, Mrs. Zina Owens and Mrs. Viola Reedy, all of Mineral Wells; two sons, James Alfred of Texas City and George Nelson of Mineral Wells; two stepsons, J. W. and Lafayette, both of Mineral Wells; a stepdaughter, Mrs. Maude Bostick of Sulphur, Okla.; 18 grandchildren; 35 great - grandchildren; nine great-great-grandchildren and two step-grandchildren.

Serving as pallbearers were Bobby Reedy, James Brunson, James Halford, Douglas Halford, David Goodbar and Garry L. Glidewell.

TODAY'S PRAYER

OUR FATHER, Convince us that we are being judged every day by the things that we say, do, and think. Remind us that the close of each day finds us better or worse than we were at its beginning. In the Name of Christ. Amen.

Senior Euternear

Miss Thompson, David Locke Wed

Miss Ramona Faye Thompson and David Ernest Locke were married at 7:30 p. m. Friday at Lakeworth Baptist Church in a ceremony performed by the bridegroom's father, Rev. Al C. Locke.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Thompson, 7833 Hood, and the bridegroom is the son of Rev. and Mrs. Locke, 4428 Williams Spring Rd.

Attending the bride was Miss Mary Jane Niblett. Sara Lee Steedman was flower girl and Sharon Lynn Steedman was ring bearer.

Jerry Dean Locke assisted his brother as best man. Another brother, Al Locke Jr., and Jett Mitchell were ushers.

The bride wore a pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. Her floor-length gown was fashioned of Chantilly lace over satin with a scalloped Sabrina neckline accented with seed pearls and sequins. The bouffant skirt had back interest with ruffled tiers. She carried a white Bible topped with white roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. Members of the house party were Mrs. N. B. Steedman, Mrs. Elizabeth Bate, Mrs. Jack Cruse, Mrs. William Wheeler and Mrs. Carl Curry.

The couple will reside here at 7009 Greenbriar Crescent.

Rites Held for Lawrence Locke

Funeral services for Laurence Aaron Locke, 59, of 301 SW 16th Street, were held Wednesday at 2 p. m. in the chapel of Baum-Carlock - Bumgardner Funeral Home, with the Rev. G. W. West and the Rev. Marvin Leech officiating. Burial was at Union Hill Cemetery.
