The club had the pleasure of welcoming as a new member Mrs. Clifton of Macdonough by reading letter from her chapter which she had held a membership for years but had been unable to join. The club also welcomed Mrs. Dinwiddie Mrs. Pancoast and Miss Moore as new members.

Mrs. Dinwiddie expressed her pleasure in being a member of the U. D. C's & gave a most delightful talk that was so instructive. She asked permission to record in the minutes. Mrs. Dinwiddie said "Madam President, Members of the B. E. B. Chapter of the U. D. C's — I wish to thank you for the honor just conferred upon me. I wish to say that I deem it a privilege as well as a pleasure to become a member of your noble women whose chief aim it is to perpetuate the memory of the "Lost Cause" that cause we all so dearly love! For many years I have been wanting to join you but have put it off for one reason or another yet I have been with you in spirit all the while — but I hope even it is better late than never! Every time I met Mrs. A. M. Houston she would say "Why don't you come along & join the Daughters. You belong right there;

Now I would like to tell you why I belong right here — I was very young only a little girl when the war began & yet I can well remember those stirring & exciting times — when my brothers joined the army — My eldest was with Van Dorn in the Miss. Department. My youngest brother was in Duff's Regiment & served in this State (Miss) all through the war. One of my brothers in law was in Stonds — gallant Texas Brigade in Virginia — was taken prisoner & sent to Andersonville. My other brother in law, Maj. Dick Howard was with Barnard E. Bee in the battle of Manassas — was wounded in that late battle, shot in the leg & fell from his horse — He was I think on Gen. Bee's staff. At any rate he was a close personal friend — his youngest son is named Barnard Bee Howard. Then — My husband was a Confederate Soldier. He was in the Corps of Cadets of the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington. When Hunter raided that part of Va. & threatened to burn the Institute (the dear old V.M.I.), the cadets were ordered out under their commandant Col. Scott Shipp. They were so eager were they to enter the fray. After crossing the river in looking back they saw that their fears were only too true. Their loved Alma Mater was in flames. But hastening on they were just in time to join Breckenridge & go into the battle of New Market — That battle ranks [illegible] in the annals of the civil war — as being fought & won by boys — May 15. 1864. The cadets were very different looking Soldiers from the foe Confederates at that time. They were well uniformed & equipped & beautifully disciplined. They marched into battle just as though they were on parade ground. My husband was in Co. C. & was Corporal of the Guard — on the Colors — He was right beside the flag in the very thickest of the fight — The enemies fire of course was aimed right at the flag but falling a little to the right & left. He saw his comrades fall on either side — his comrades who were the very flower of Virginia, Many of them scarcely more than 18 years of age. But the ranks quickly closed & they marched bravely on — When the order was given for "double time" they rushed over plowed fields & up a steep hill never faltering in face of shot & shell & with fixed bayonets they charged & captured Bergles Battery & won the day — I have a picture bed of that battle — Nothing more dauntless or more brave has ever graced the pages of history. It was sent me a few years ago at the time of a Reunion of old Cadets at the V. M. I. Lexington on the anniversary of that battle. It was on the occasion of the dedication of a monument erected by the cadets & their friends on the campus of the V.M.I. to the young heroes of New Market. This beautiful monument represents the figure of a woman kneeling with bowed head — "Virginia weeping for her dead." On the granite face of that monument are engraved the names of all who fought & fell in that battle — among others is the name of — H. H. Dinwiddie —

Treas. reported $5.28 on hand. Bill paid for flowers $2.00 — Sexton $3.00 — Pres. announced that state dues were due — $66.90 — but that dues $3.80 had been paid. Pres. stated that at last Convention there was a resolution that each chapter have Chapter extension committees & asked for volunteers — Mrs. Bell Mrs. Nethercell, Mrs. Blassingame & Mrs Ellison volunteered & were accepted by the Pres.

Mrs Calloway favored the Daughters with an instrumental solo.

Mrs. Bell announced that Mrs. Thompson would give a tea for the Daughters in May —

Mrs. Walton gave name of Mrs Mary Hearn 603 N. Elmira as an applicant for membership. Recess was taken for payment of dues. Mrs. D. E. Clifton 609 Crosby St. $1.50 — Mrs Dinwiddie $1.00, Mrs Wescott $1.00 — Paid Mrs. Bangs 30 cts.

Mrs. Spencer announced that we could not hear from Badge Firms — Names were taken of three who wanted membership certificates, six names were taken & Mrs Spencer ordered them, or as to have some on hand.
