Fall 1945
Spring 1946

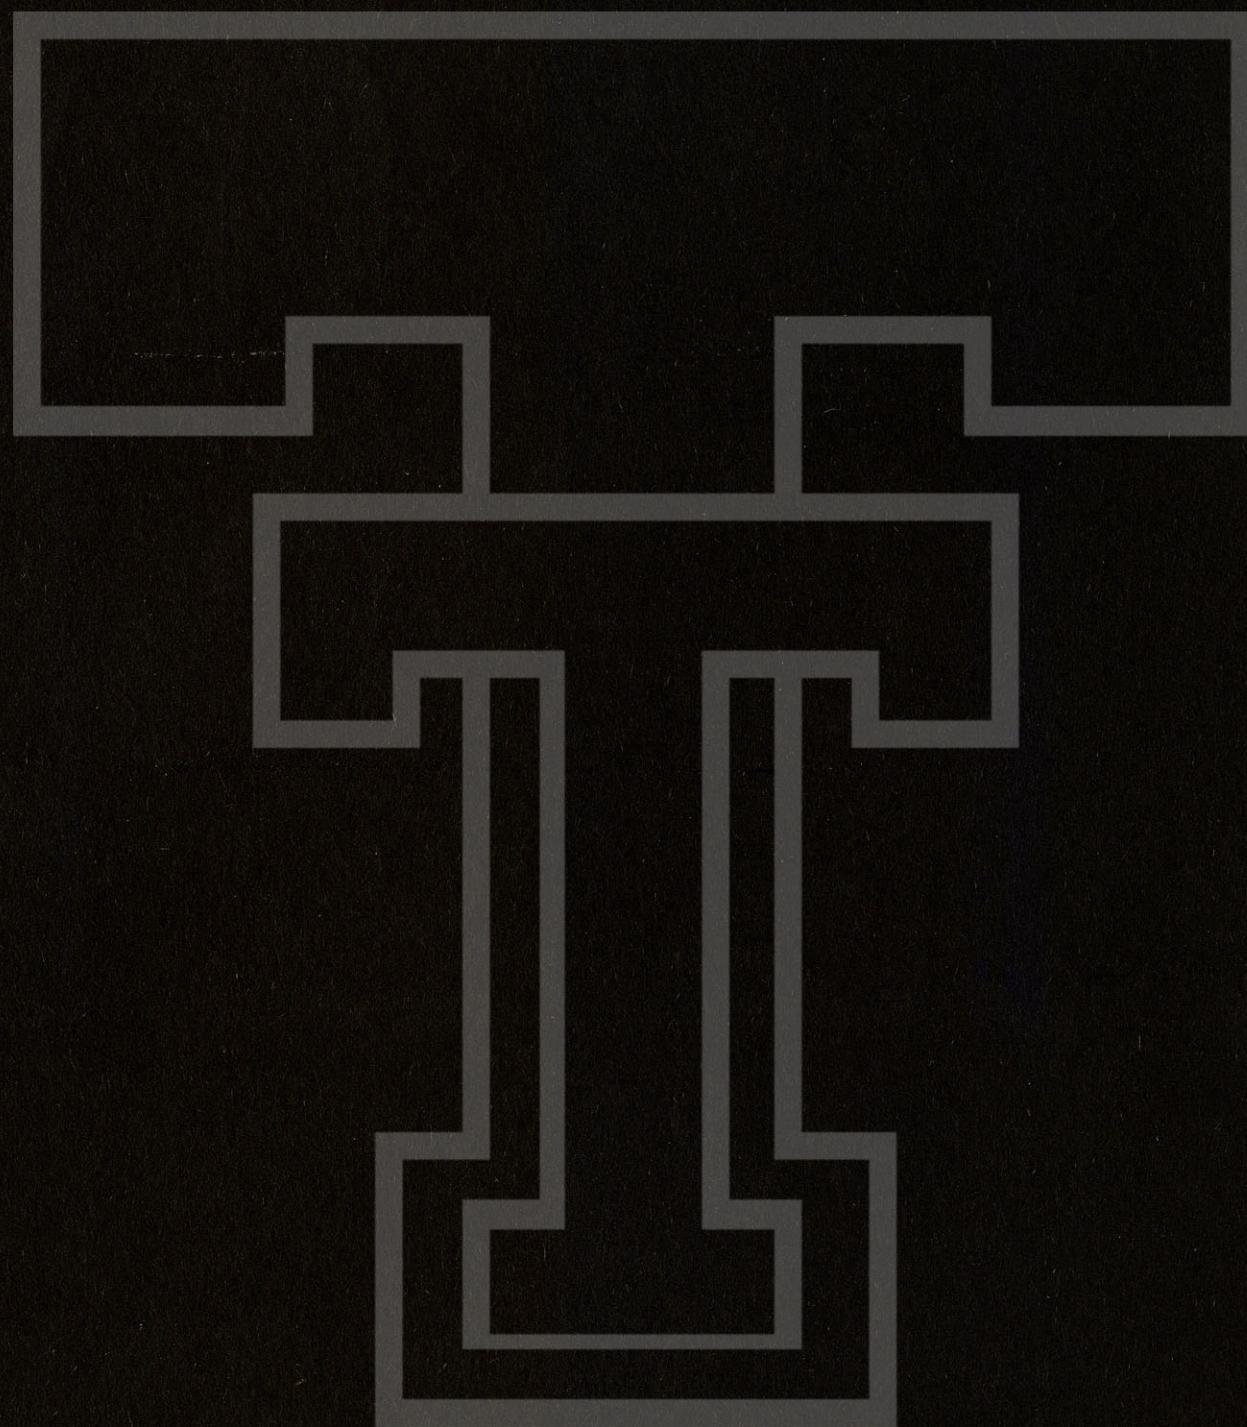

It was in the fall of 1945 from September the 12th to November the 10th that we, the residents of the Home Management House, had the privilege of living and learning together.

Whether this old saying, "Executive ability is the art of getting the credit for all the hard work that somebody else does," is true or not, it probably applies to each of us who lived there at that time.

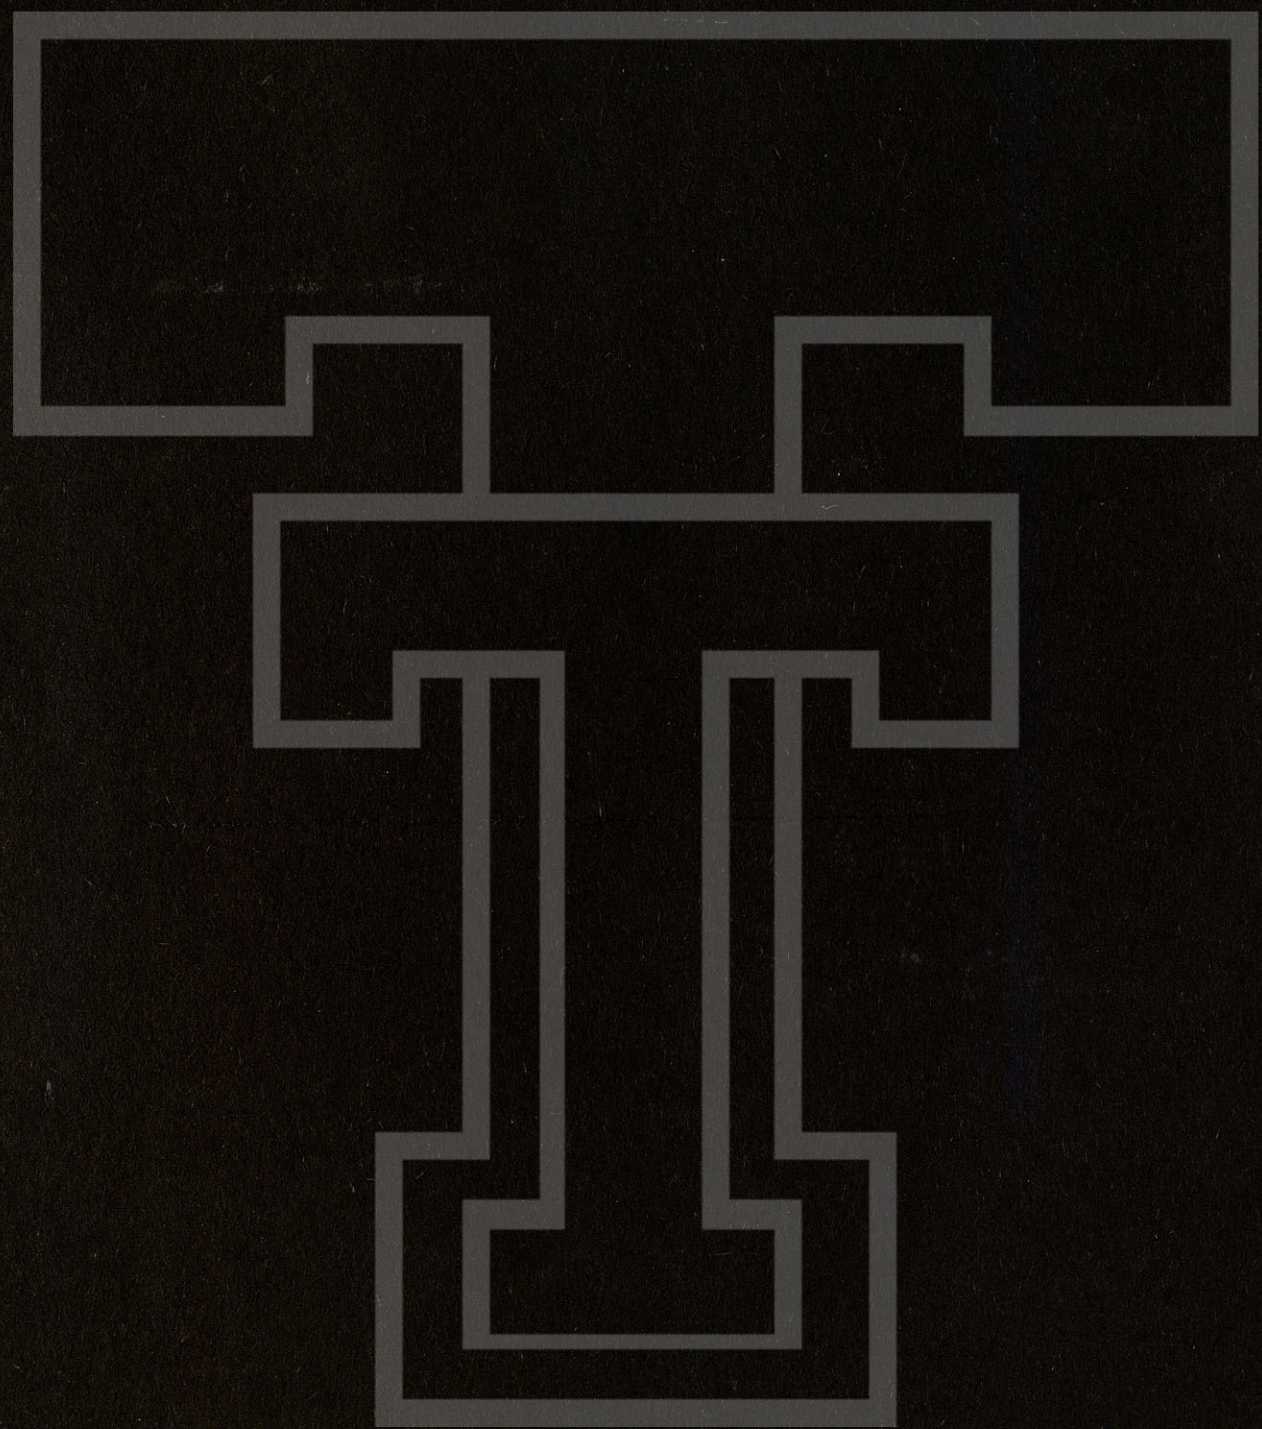

We lived in the most streamlined house on the campus - the "house of the Six gables."

In speaking of "we", we mean —
(from left to right)

1. Melba Slater
2. Mary Love Walker
3. Georgia McNeill
4. Miss Urban
5. Jimmie Earl Temple
6. Peggy Whetstone
7. Vasti Warren

To take us individually and on certain days, we would look like this.

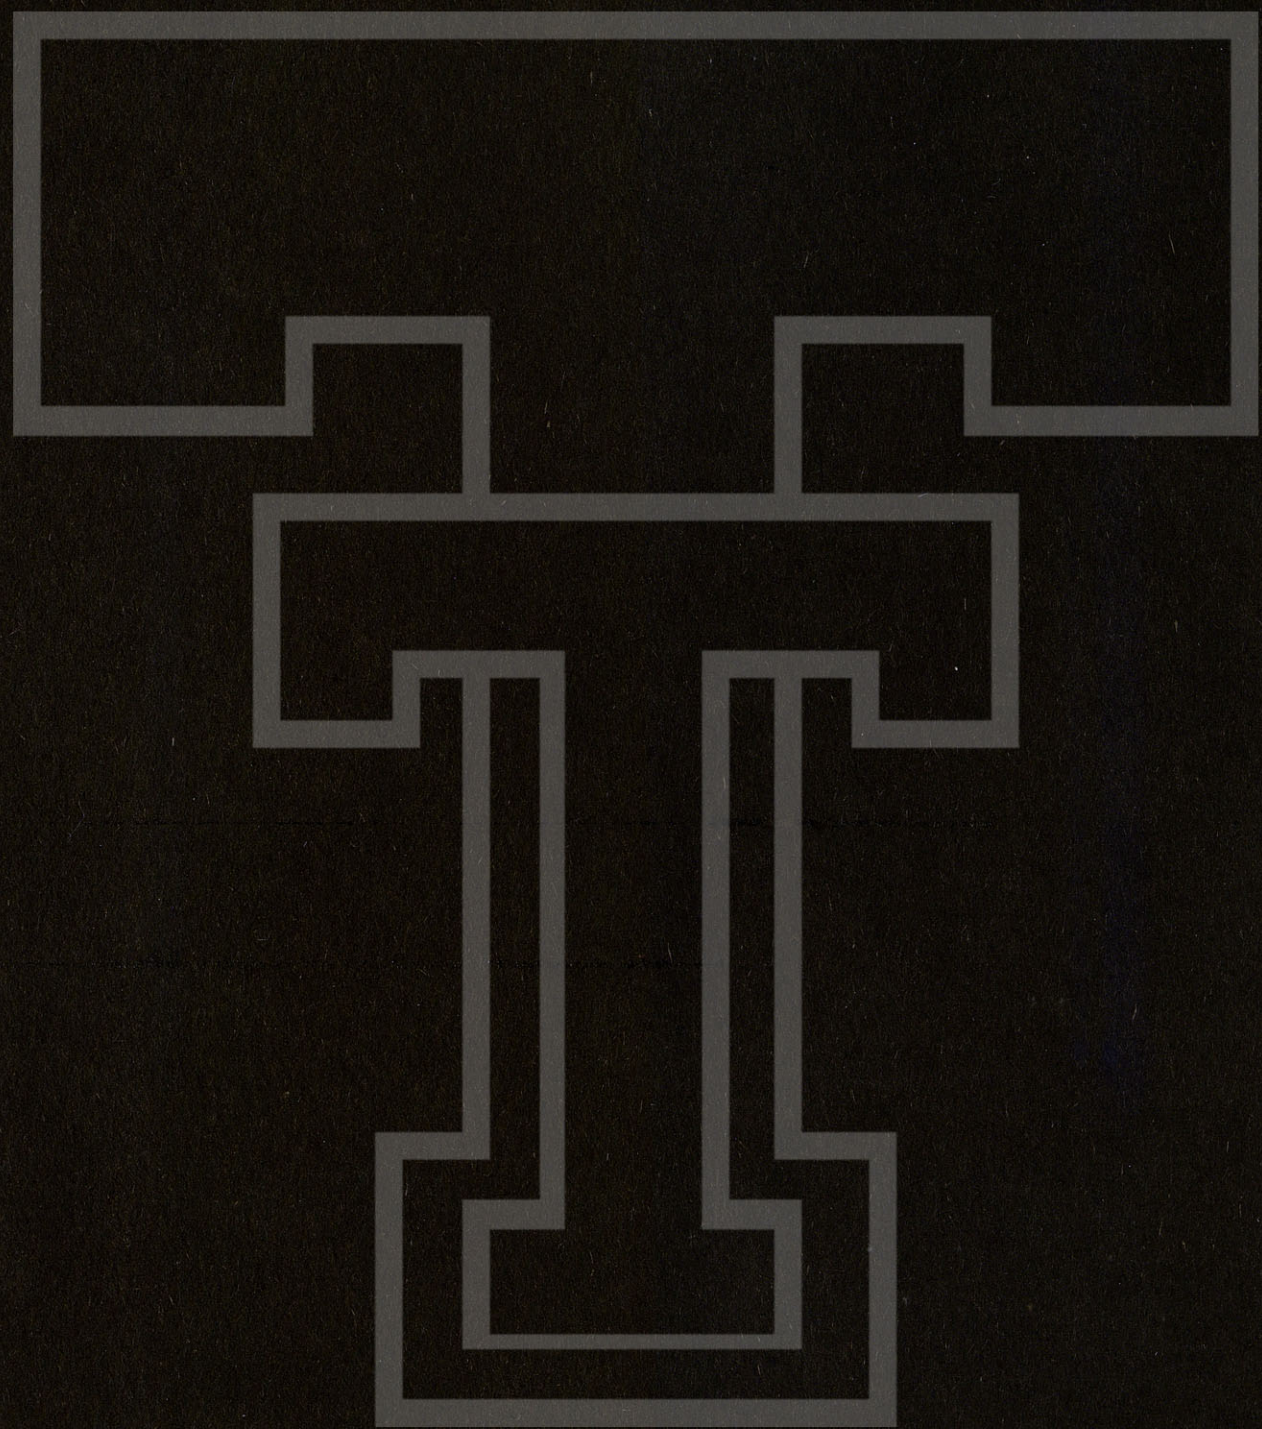

Jimmie Earl

She was always ready and willing to do anything for us with a bit of humor attached. Her specialty was making coffee for us late at night and she didn't even drink it.

Quite a glamorous pose, don't you think? But very becoming! Georgia was the proud mother of Jimmie Ann, and certainly a brave person to let five other girls have a hand in taking care of her daughter. Then surely she had a wonderful characteristic cooperation.

Georgia

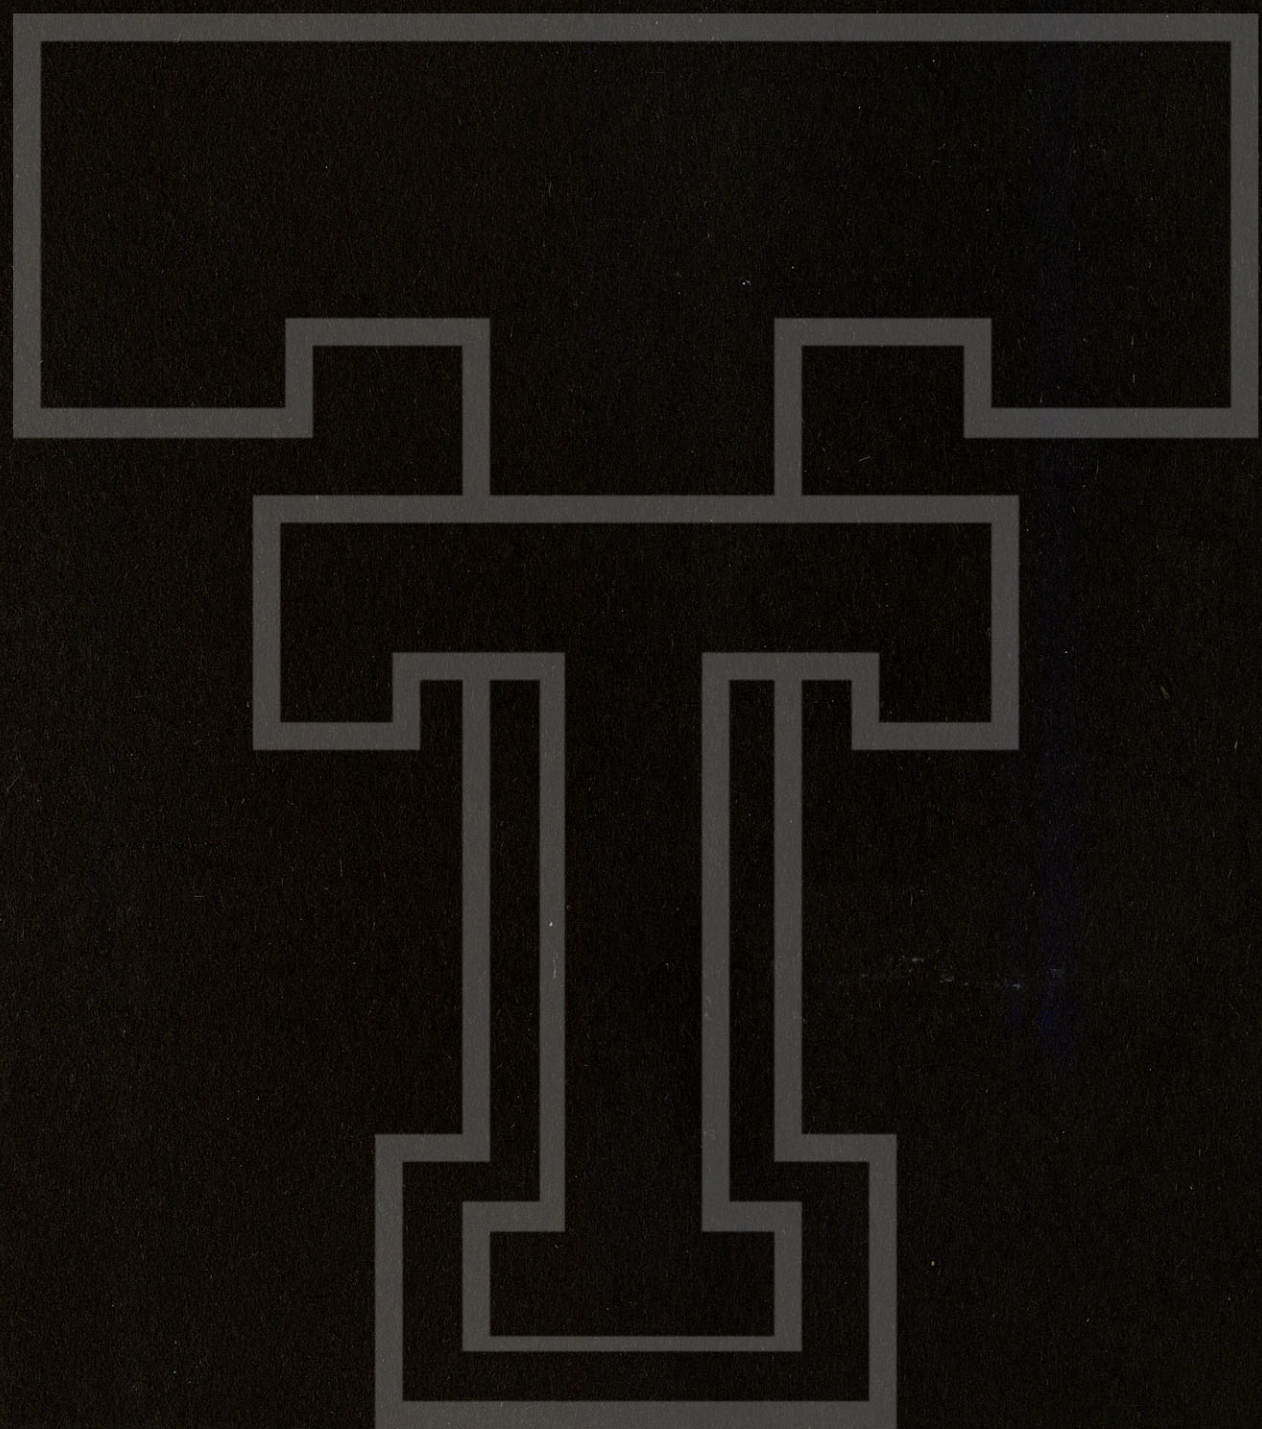

Vasti

Vasti took the lead in being the smallest girl in the house. She liked fun and excitement and was good to keep it going. She had the qualities of being a good housewife too. Well !!

Mary Love

Another small character in the family was Mary Love. Happy because her graduation wasn't far off. A well liked personality and capable of keeping us all entertained.

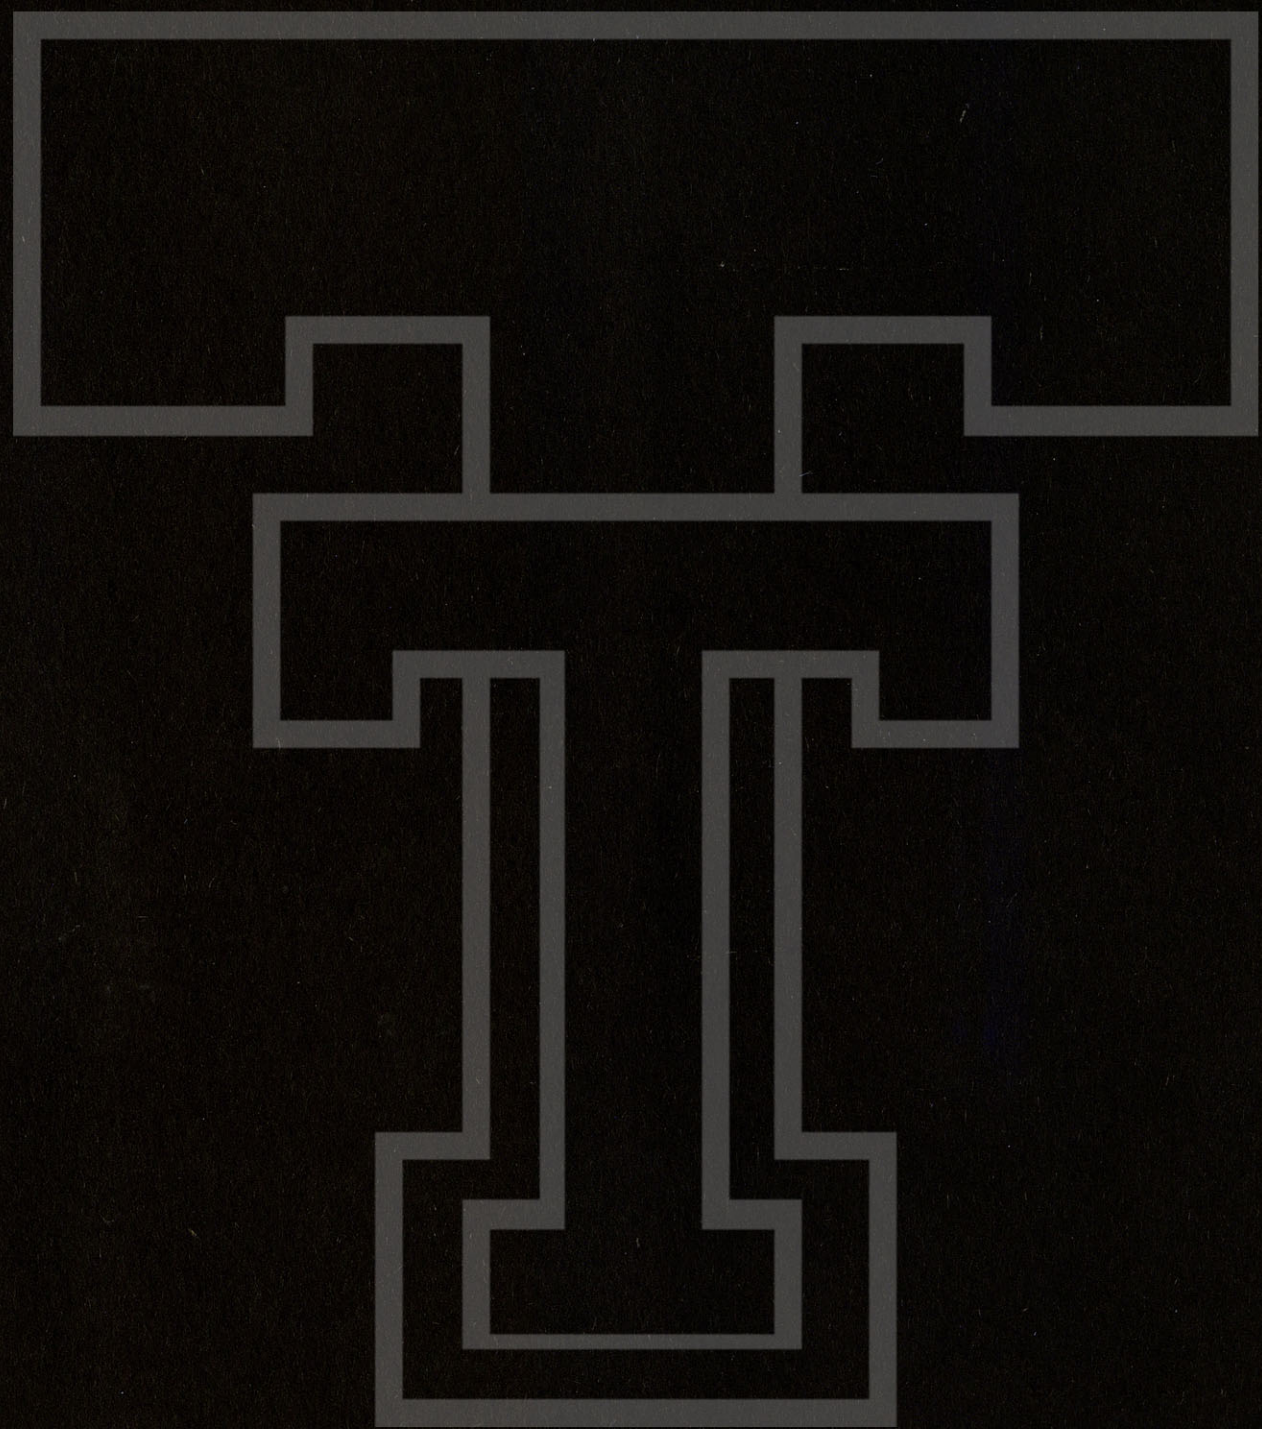

Melba

She topped them all, or rather it should be said that she didn't top them all, because she was the shortest girl living in the house. A good personality and as is shown here, a hard worker.

Peggy

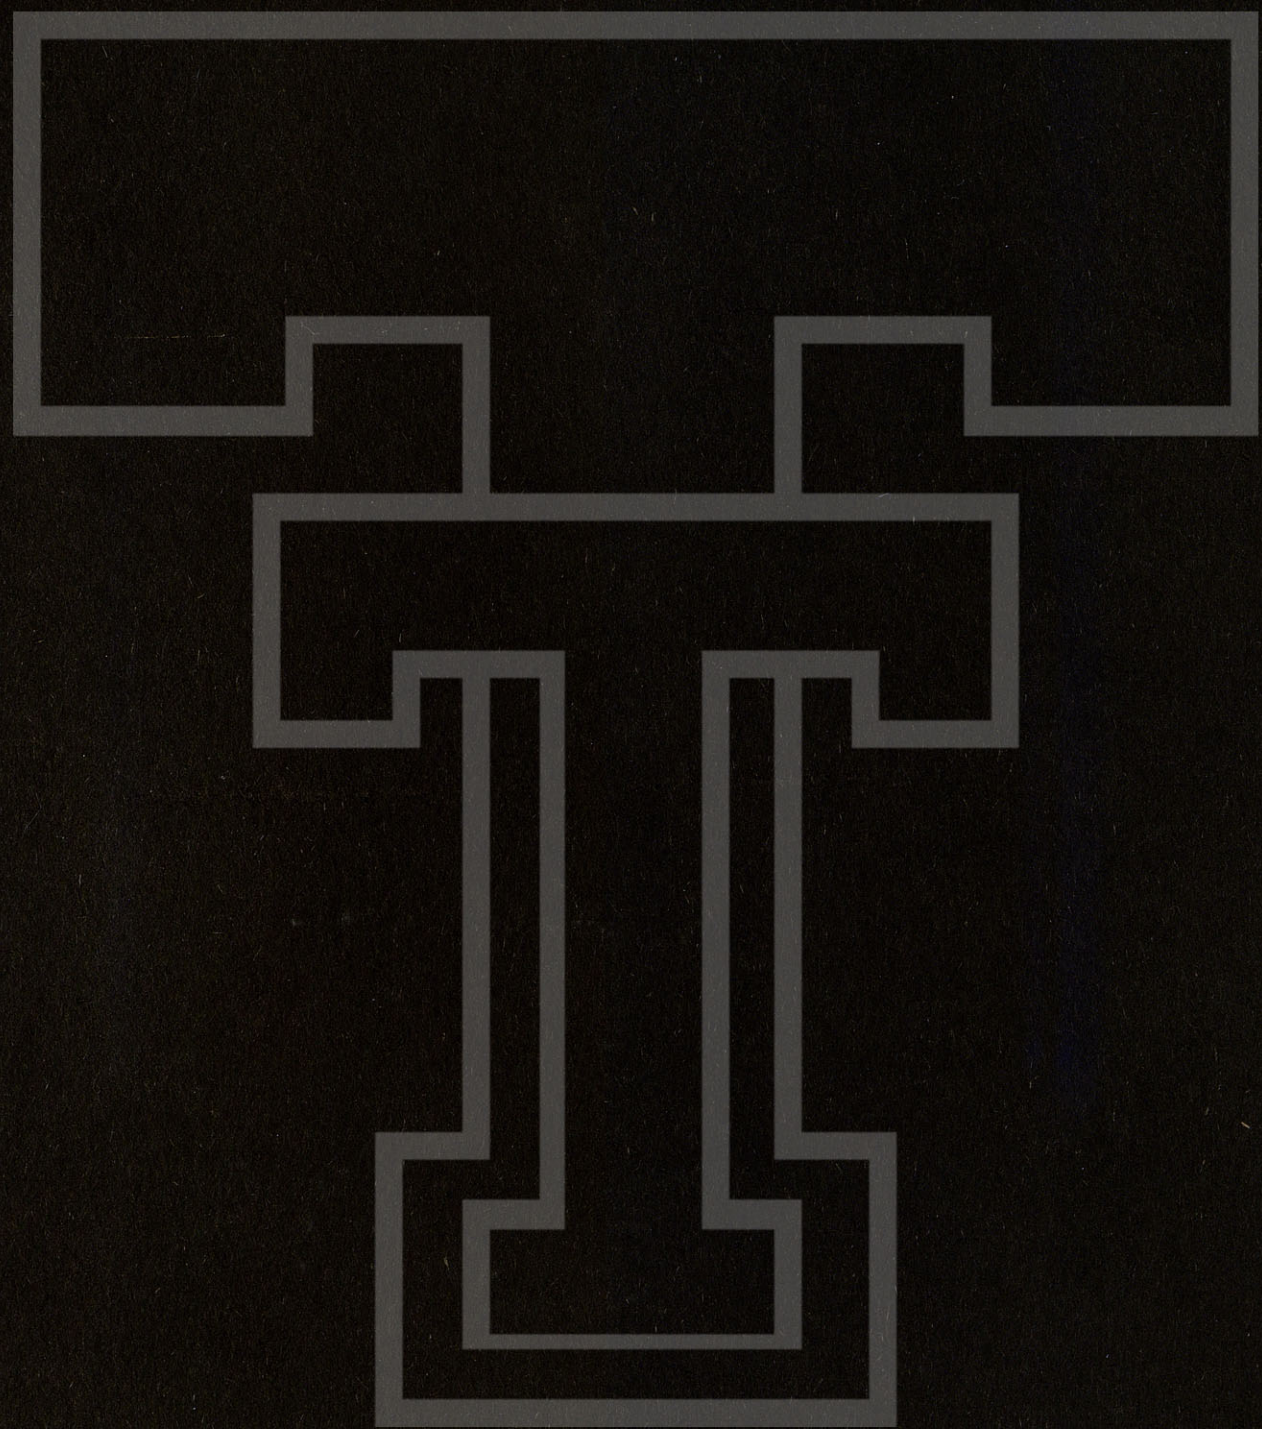

One of those Sunday afternoon snapshots, taken by the house. Last but not least among the girls!

Miss Urban
(holding J. Ann)

The attractive lady, our housemother, companion and friend,
with the unforgetful smile.
Here she holds Ann who doesn't care to pose for a picture just yet.

A Ranch Supper

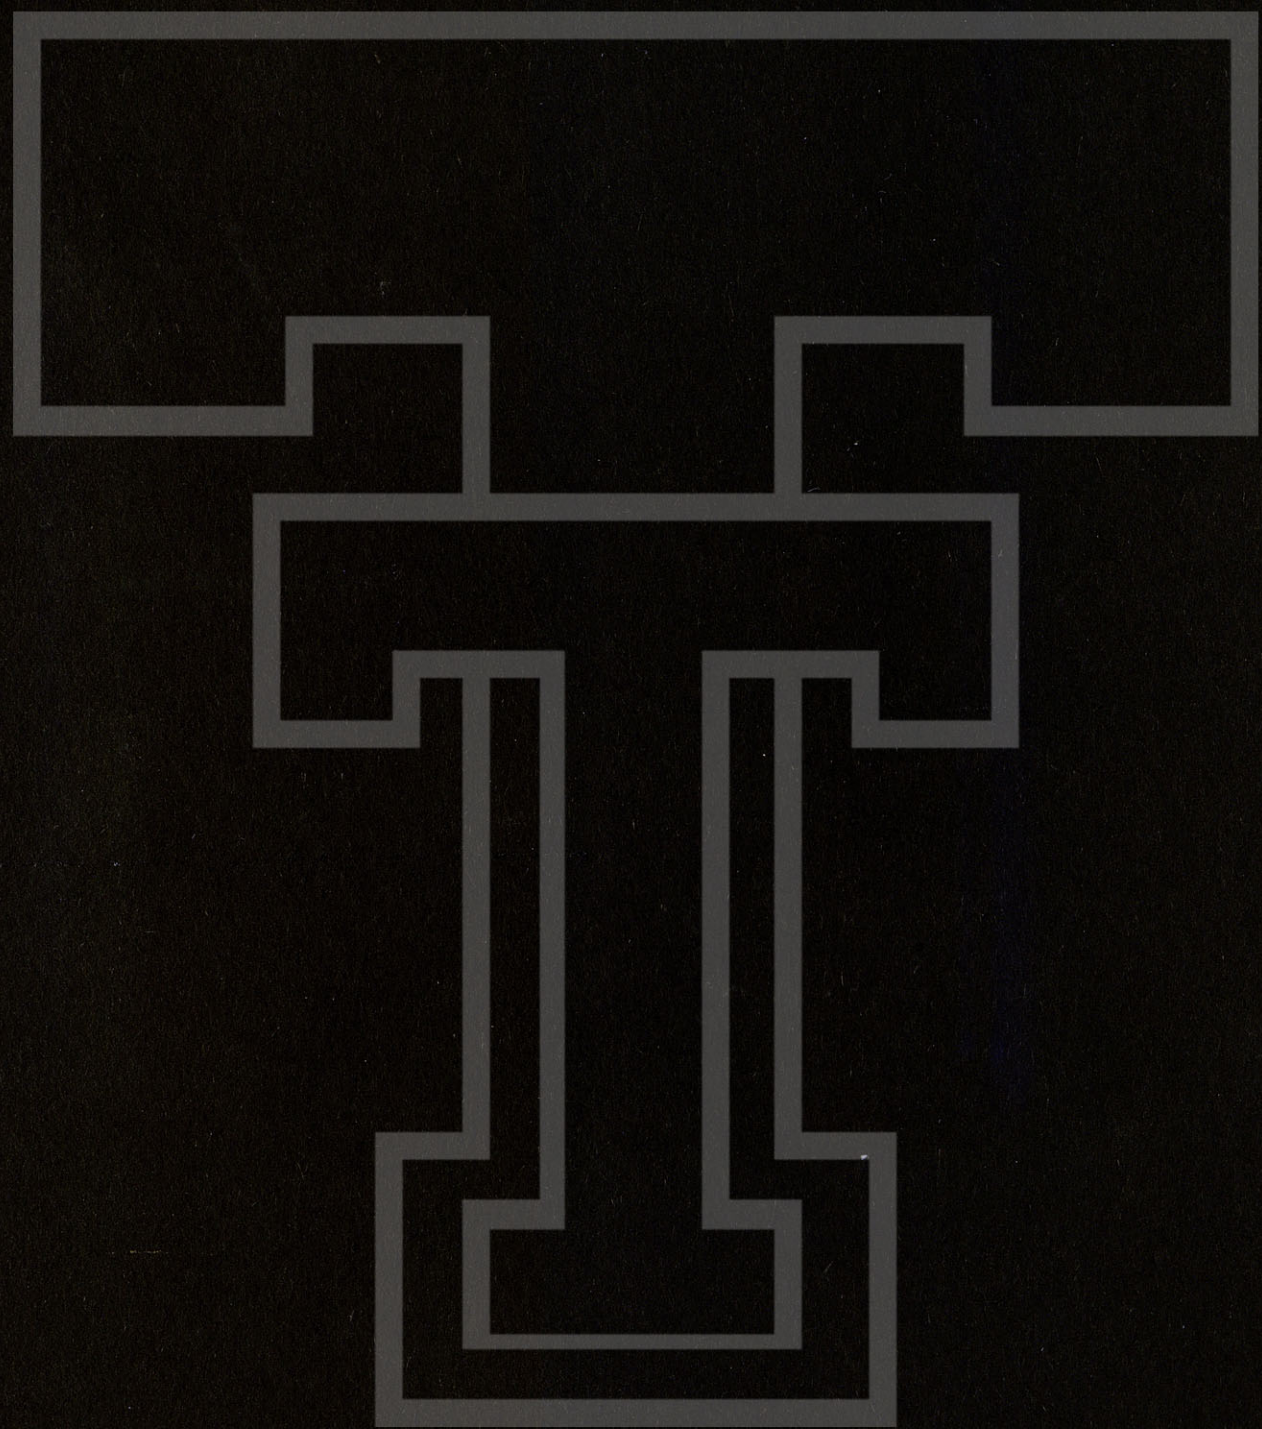

We liked to plan entertainment "just for ourselves" as well as for others. This was strictly the ranch style - tin cups, trays and all, and the light spot on the bottom of the snapshot was the reflection of our bonfire.

-Smiles for the onlookers-

Mary Love, Vasti and Melba seem to be using the backyard fence as a shield from some mischief they've been in.

Vasti - Ann - Georgia

The temporary and permanent mothers

their daughter.

Mary Love - Melba - Vasti - Ann - Georgia

Oh!! Now wasn't that just the wrong time for a snap of the camera - Whpps, your bare foot, Ann.

so sleepy!

There are so many events and experiences that we would like to tell you about in detail but we can only list the majority without much comment.

1. Patio picnic - this took the place of our evening meal which we served in the patio. We had Mrs. Bibb as a guest.
2. Ranch Supper - Our menu, beans, black coffee, etc., our style, trays, tin cups, and bonfire, and our dress, boots, levis and bandanas, were typical.
3. Backward party - We found dressing backward, serving backward and talking plus acting backward a great deal of fun for a home meal.
4. Halloween Dinner - We had three girls from the dormitory as guests. This dinner held many happy surprises such as the menu, decorations and service of the meal.
5. Faculty Buffet luncheon - On such occasions as this, all of us helped with the meal. We served this luncheon on trays and ate in the living room. Our guests were Dean Weeks, Miss Erwin and the new teachers of the Home Economics Department.
6. Buffet Dinner for new residents of the Home Management House - We enjoyed entertaining the girls who were to take our place as residents. There were six of them also.

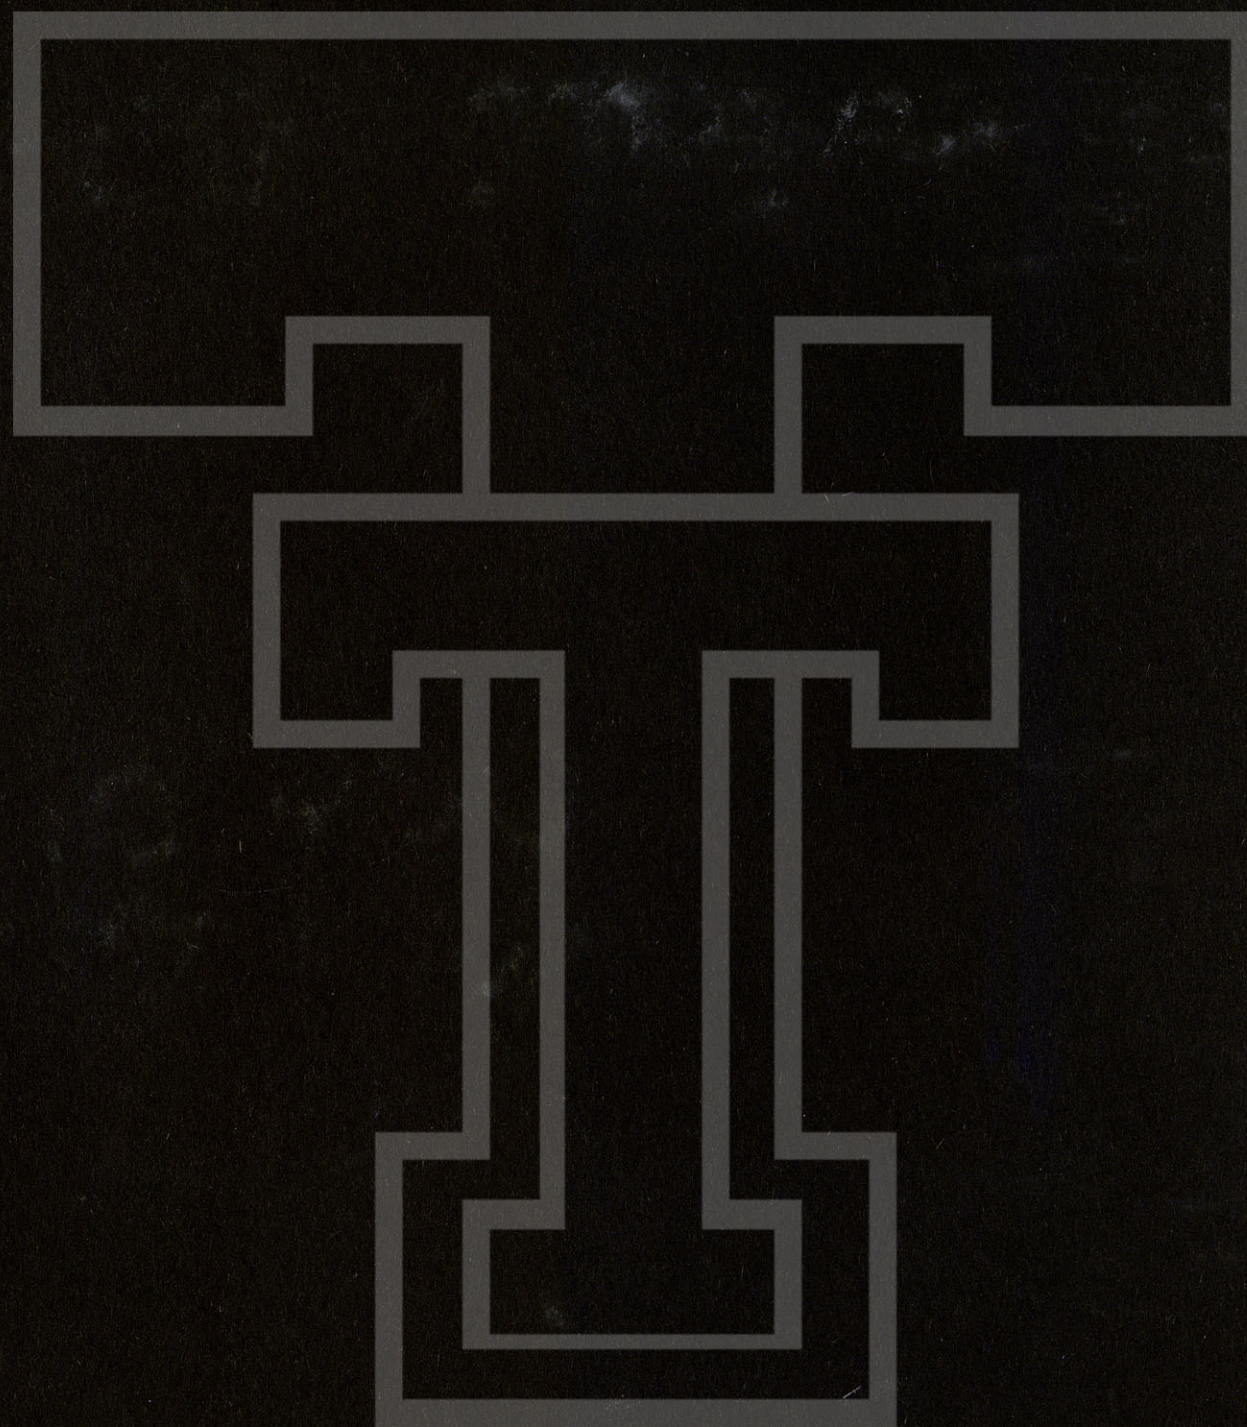

7. Sunday Morning Breakfast in bed - Not a thing to do but sit up in bed to eat it - and we had eggs too.
8. Social Center Dinner by Mrs. Bibb - Mrs. Bibb was a Clothing teacher in the college and she made her home with us. The family wouldn't have been complete without her. On this particular evening we were served T-bone steaks and - delicious!!
9. An Evening Movie and Refreshments by Miss Urban - We were in such happy spirits that we walked all the way to town. The movie was an especially good one and you know how we must have enjoyed the refreshments from Wylie's.

Of course we would like to show pictures to you that illustrate the joy of each of these but because of the film shortage at this time, we can only hope you appreciate them as they've been mentioned.

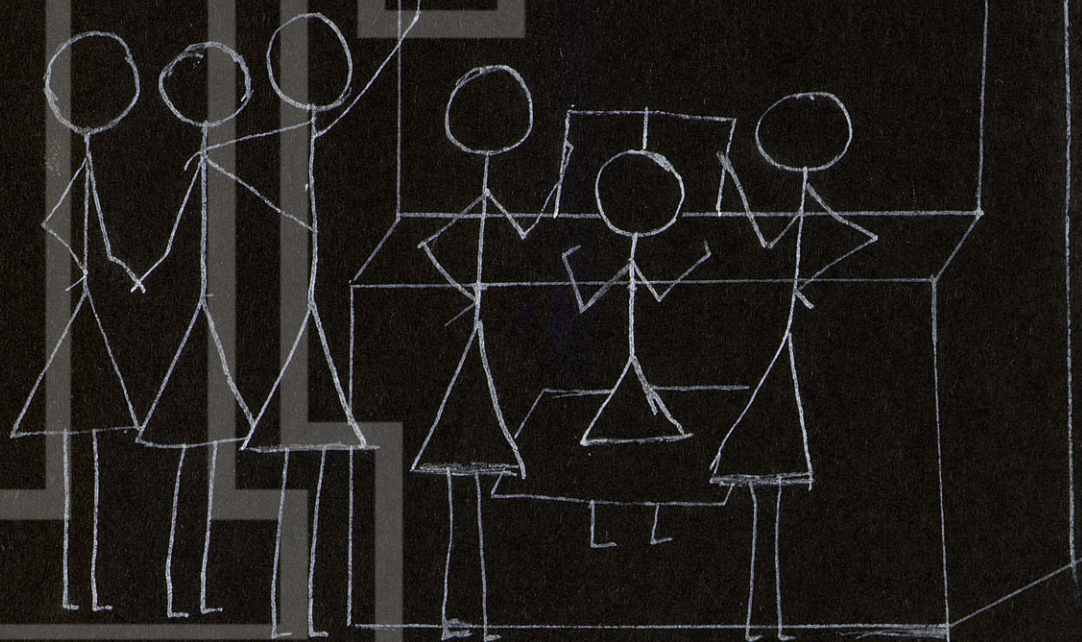

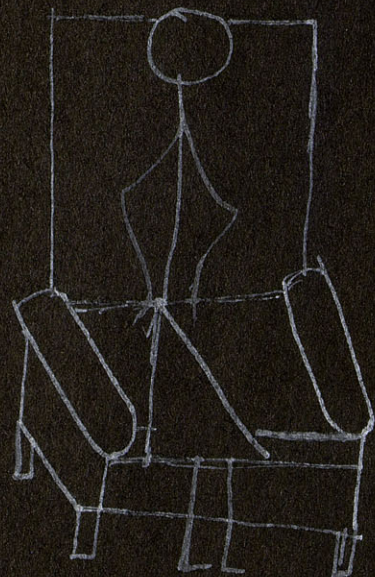

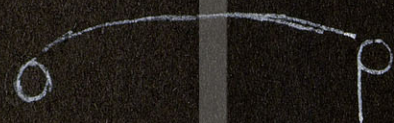

All of these events are examples of what living in the Home Management House means to every resident. Because of the inability to express ourselves about this experience, there's a poem that does it for us which we would like to quote:

Pictures, fancied by my eye,
Memories, treasured by my heart,
Grove in vain for words
Their meaning to impart.

I can only borrow
Words of other men
To put in form and measure
The impotence of my pen.

We moved into the Home Management House in November. We had been told that we would be very busy; however, we knew before we moved out in January that happiest people are those who are too busy to notice.

Dear Gals and Mrs Urban and Mrs Bibb -
 The beautiful plant came this afternoon. I do appreciate so much your thinking of me. I shall enjoy the beautiful possession all through the Christmas Season. Thank you so much -
 I hope each of you will have a fine vacation. Merry Christmas! Margaret Weber

A LIST OF A FEW OF THE ACTIVITIES

1. Parents' Dinner - On December 9th, a lovely Sunday afternoon, our families came to visit us. The Christmas tree was bright and cheerful, and we all had fun eating off of card tables in the living room.
2. Dean Weeks and Miss Erwin ate dinner with us. We had a nice visit in the livingroom after dinner.
3. Flowers - From Jo's brother, they made a lovely center piece for our table.
4. Thank you - From Dean Weeks for a plant she received from us.
5. Home Economics Club Reception - We had the priviledge of living in the house and being the hostess during this reception.
6. Thanksgiving Day - Miss Urban took us to the social center. We had a very nice dinner - "Turkey and all".
7. Theater party - Mrs. Bibb took us to a show, and we had "coaks" after the show.
8. Last night - our last night we had a special dinner for ourselves. we recalled pleasant times and past memories. However we knew we would be able to see each other again.

1

1. Jo took Ann outside to see the new fallen snow

2. Ann enjoyed the snow enough to sit up alone and be a big girl

3. I should say she is a big girl, just look who is with her - it's Mike

When ann was put to bed, we often gathered around for quiet and happy times, because we knew happiness was not alway a laughing matter.

We have time for our personal work. Maybe this would not be called work, because nothing is really work unless you had rather be doing something else.

SNOW/FALL

1.

We hear it is crude
And very, very rude
To suggest a visitor should go
So when in such a fix
Don't write D. Dix
Just turn on the Radio.

2

A picture is made
A very nice trade
To put a wire here and there,
Freeze with a smile
Hold for a while
Snap! A picture but OH! what a stare

3.

It's gotta be one
And Oh what fun
Deciding just whom it will be,
Just leave them alone
Maybe one will go home
Or will another arrive and make Three?

4.

We have a light
To shine at night
For girls who go out to roam,
When they finish spooning
And have planned Honeymooning
They can easily find their way home.

5

Democracy is swell
If carried out well
But watch your plans when you make them,
Make people understand
Before the clock strikes ten
That you really intended to break them.

6.

So I am told
From people of old
LaNell's a cook from way back.
But from look's of toast
And overdone Roast
The CLOCK should empty the rack.

7

Pity the guy
That will buy
Groceries for Ruths' household,
Tho a Saver at heart
She couldn't even start
To make our budget stay low.

8

Isn't it a shame
That such a name
As George should apply to a girl,
If called at night
It's really a fright
The caller should be under a barrel.

9.

Ben Franklin was smart
But that's no reason to start
Making Doorknobs shock us like this,
If we got the trembles
From carpets to thimbles
What would he have caused in a kiss.

10

On an Ark. hill
Sure a girl will
Shed her shoes when wheather is fair,
From the Looks of Jo
How would one know
That she didn't loose her pair.

11.

It's tough alright
To awaken at night
With a stomach in real distress,
Just take a tum
Chew Beamans' gum
Go to be and get some rest.

12.

A sleepy head
Must get from bed
Or some day it'll be too late,
If you'd rather sleep
While Breakfast we eat
Just stay in bed until eight.

13.

Gather around
And surely you'll hear
The story of Lavern, Jr.,
Dick, Curtiss and Bill.

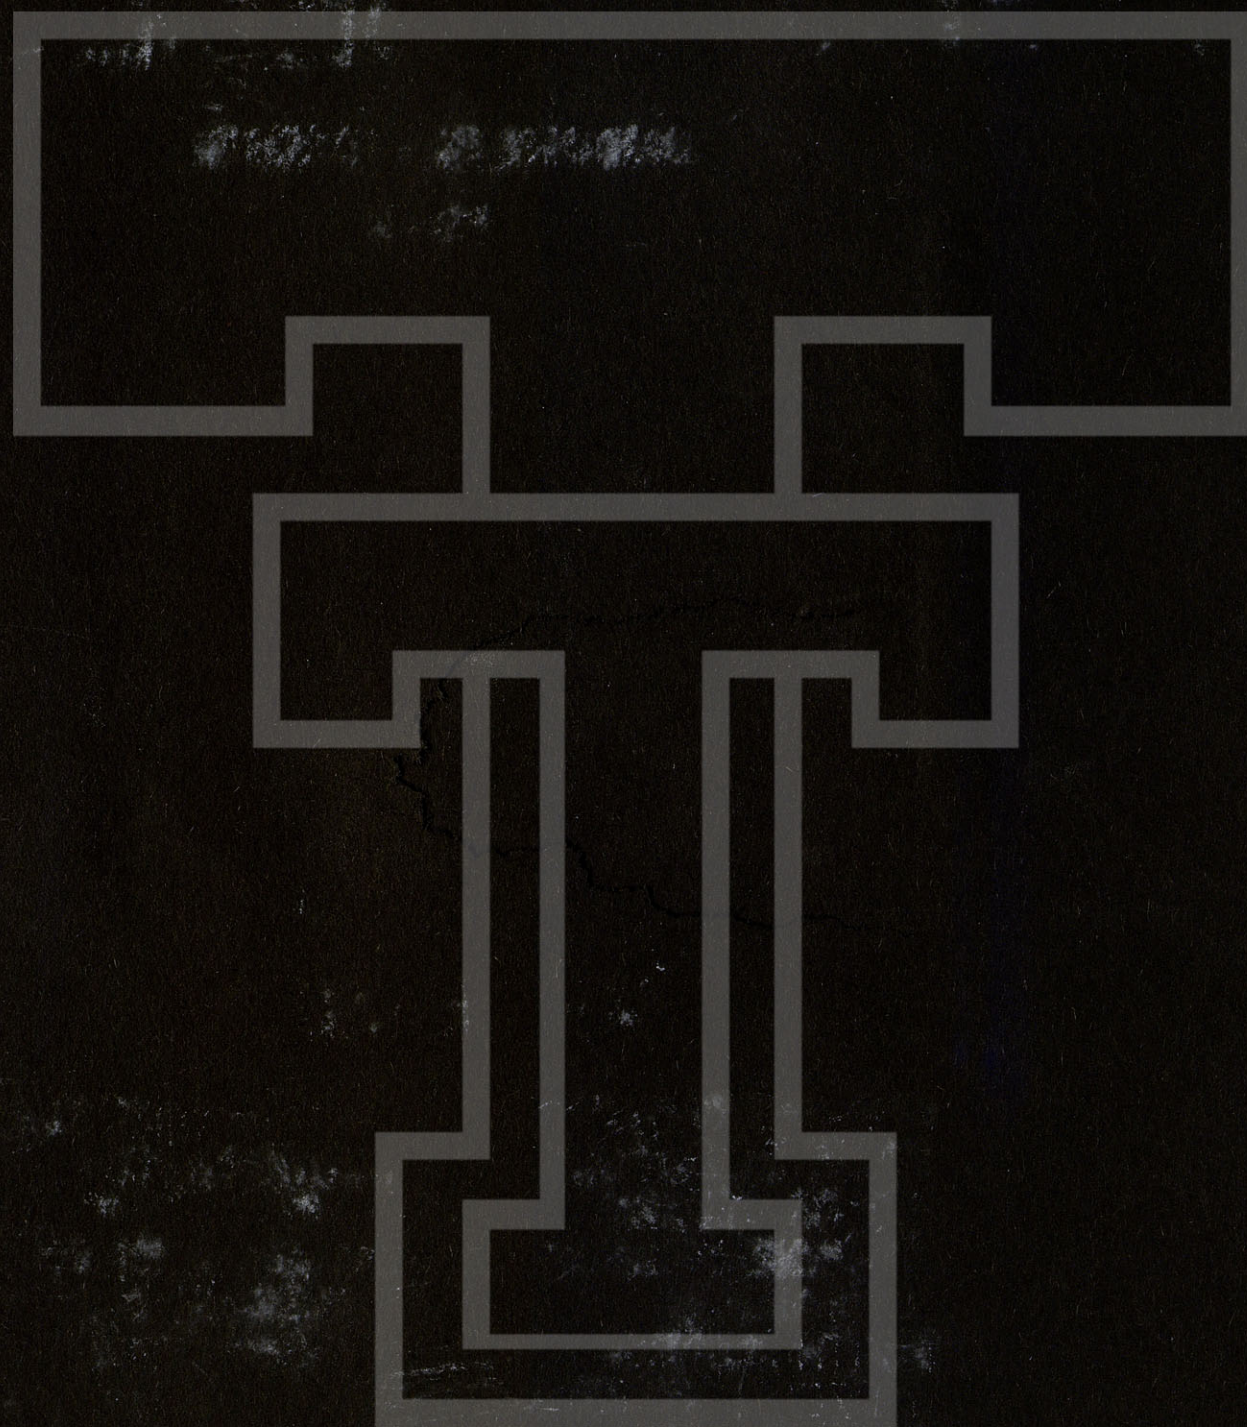

ENJOYING BEING TOGETHER

We hope that each group that follows us may be as happy together as we were.

We Leave the house with the same happy smile with which We entered. We would like to pass on the thought that we may not know how to make a living but we really learned how to live.

OUR ENTERTAINMENTS

On February 14, we had a surprise Valentine Party for Miss Urban, which was really a surprise to her. We forgot about our lessons that should have been gotten and all went to the show. Oma and Billie gave us all flowers.

Sunday, February 17, Miss Weeks and Miss Erwin ate dinner with us. We chatted in the living room afterwards and Ann demonstrated her ability to take a few steps.

We celebrated George Washington's birthday with an informal party for our friends of the opposite sex. We ate hamburgers with all the trimmings, potato salad and ice cream until we thought we'd pop. Then we played games, centering our attention on several brain busters, Picking up Sticks, and Pit, from which we had a great deal of fun. Everyone had a good time.

On Saturday night, February 23, we had as our guests for dinner Mr. and Mrs. Steele, some friends of Miss Urban's. We enjoyed this event for more reasons than one. We had a holiday the next day.

Then on March 3 we decided to have our parents to be our guests and see for themselves how well we were learning home management. We felt we succeeded and everyone enjoyed themselves.

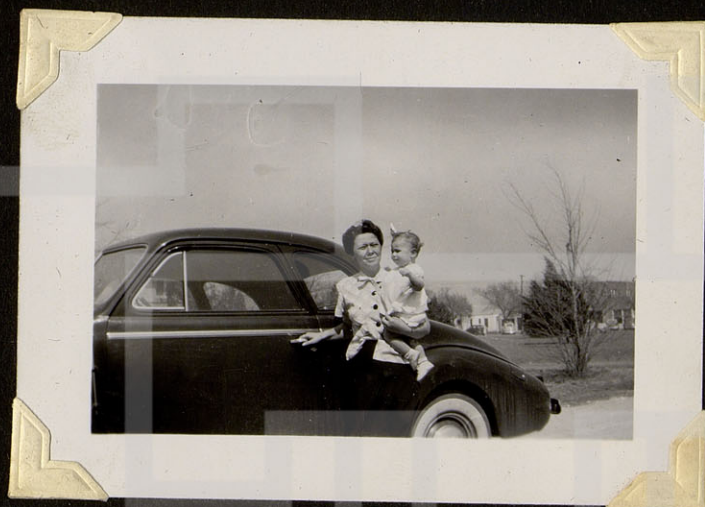

In order to better acquaint our new librarian and wife with our part of the college, we had Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord for dinner on March 7.

We enjoyed having Miss Clewell for dinner, Sunday March 10.

This day, March 19, we had our sisters or girlfriends for lunch. We all enjoyed this "hen" party immensely.

Rev. and Mrs. Robinson honored us with their presence at dinner on March 25. We all enjoyed our visit with them after dinner.

Since all good things must come to an end, we ended our social activities by having a luncheon for the new girls and other members of the Home Management class on March 27.
